Reggae Love Love in an African Way Thousand Ways out of Africa „I love you Baby“ has many meanings. The quadrature of black-white-love. Dantse Dantse, 2022-07-21 In order to come to Europe with his family, the married Johnny, father of two children, develops a perfidious plan that looks worldwide for its equal. Now he has found the white woman and married her. The first part of his plan works. He is in Europe. But how can he bring his alleged sister there too? The resourceful Johnny finds the solution in the brother of his new white wife. Volume 3 tells of the perfidious execution of his plan and how he raves about his sister to his brother-in-law for so long that said brother-in-law travels to Cameroon, falls in love with her, marries her, and brings her to Europe. The four live together with the children in a family house, a ménage à quatre, that the two white siblings know nothing of until the third part of his plan works. Volume 3 tells of the difficulties of Afro-European relationships in Europe in a way that they also happen in reality. Difficulties that cause Afro-European

Love in Africa Jennifer Cole,Lynn M. Thomas,2009-08-01 In recent years scholarly interest in love has flourished Historians have addressed the rise of romantic love and marriage in Europe and the United States while anthropologists have explored the ways globalization has reshaped local ideas about those same topics Yet love in Africa has been peculiarly ignored resulting in a serious lack of understanding about this vital element of social life a glaring omission given the intense focus on sexuality in Africa in the wake of HIV AIDS Love in Africa seeks both to understand this failure to consider love and to begin to correct it In a substantive introduction and eight essays that examine a variety of countries and range in time from the 1930s to the present the contributors collectively argue for the importance of paying attention to the many different cultural and historical strands that constitute love in Africa Covering such diverse topics as the reception of Bollywood movies in 1950s Zanzibar the effects of a Mexican telenovela on young people s ideas about courtship in Niger the models of romance promoted by South African and Kenyan magazines and the complex relationship between love and money in Madagascar and South Africa Love in Africa is a vivid and compelling look at love s role in African society African Film Festivals and Transnational Flows of Living Cultural Heritage Sheila Petty,2025-07-25 This open access book investigates how flows of knowledge that arise from the African continent travel and are transformed through new contexts of presentation and engagement in new locations Through case studies on Africa themed film festivals in Africa Europe and the Americas the book explores potential methods of catalyzing a transnational flow from inception to end that involves attention to process rather than studying festivals as static cultural products with discrete and isolated categories of programming presentation documentation and networking The chapters probe how festivals interact with place and location and create journeys of discovery in translating and contextualizing films for specific populations and audiences The book also focuses on how dialogue is created in a festival knowledge forum that respects the living nature of cultural heritage as it is received from its original context presented during film festivals and passed on to future generations for safeguarding
