How did two very different language communities encounter and make early choices about Christianity This book is a historical record of the Dagomba and Konkomba people groups of Northern Ghana as they embraced the Bible translated into their mother tongues Author Dr Sumani Sule Saa employs Professor Lamin Sanneh s groundbreaking hermeneutic of mission as translation as a grid to examine the effect of Bible translation on the lives of these two very important language groups Sule Saa first presents a brief history of the Dagomba and Konkomba and describes their very different societal structures He analyses early Christian mission involvement and documents the role of two Bible translation agencies among these people groups Through a number of case studies he illustrates the positive impact of the Bible in their mother tongues Woven throughout Dr Sule Saa discusses to what degree the Christian faith has been indigenised into the ethos and behaviour of the Dagomba and Konkomba Theological students and those interested in missions will find this book relevant as it deals with missiological issues and serves as a reference on the establishment of Christianity among the Dagomba and Konkomba Its multi disciplinary approach will also appeal to a wider audience The New International Encyclopædia Frank Moore Colby,Talcott Williams,1922 Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 ,2003 Mission Field ,1903 Annual Report of the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church Methodist Episcopal Church.
