Silence and Articulacy in the Poetry of Medbh McGuckian Maureen E. Ruprecht Fadem, 2019-12-03 Silence and Articulacy in the Poetry of Medbh McGuckian is an innovative contribution to the scholarship on Belfast poet Medbh McGuckian. This book considers the entire oeuvre of this globally respected Irish woman writer, a member of the contemporary avant garde with now fifteen US published volumes and numerous individual publications. The author positions McGuckian's oeuvre as political and historical poetry and offers a provocative new assessment of its crafted silences. This work argues that it is the muted character of McGuckian's poems a consequence of a defamiliarized language, the overwhelming sway of the image and a profusion of intertextual quoting that constitutes their agency and force. The silences are read as a response to the precarious positionality of poet and speaker at the site of disaster and the limits of articulacy. In line with Rukeyser's notion of the life of poetry, the life of McGuckian's silences is located. Fadem argues in the poems' production as revealed self reflexively and in their prolonged consumption. This oeuvre operates as a formidable counter discourse by converting poetry's reception into a much protracted task that redistributes the temporal economy of poem and reader and disrupts the given structures of time, place and the order of things.
