Long Way To Die:

The Essential Mystery Lists Roger M Sobin, 2011-09-30 For the first time in one place Roger M Sobin has compiled a list of nominees and award winners of virtually every mystery award ever presented He has also included many of the best of lists by more than fifty of the most important contributors to the genre Mr Sobin spent more than two decades gathering the data and lists in this volume much of that time he used to recheck the accuracy of the material he had collected Several of the best of lists appear here for the first time in book form Several others have been unavailable for a number of years Of special note are Anthony Boucher's Best Picks for the Year Boucher one of the major mystery reviewers of all time reviewed for The San Francisco Chronicle Ellery Queen Mystery Magazine and The New York Times From these resources Mr Sobin created Boucher's Best and Important Lists to Consider lists that provide insight into important writing in the field from 1942 through Boucher's death in 1968 This is a great resource for all mystery readers and collectors Winner of the 2008 Macavity Awards for Best Mystery Nonfiction , Silent Catastrophes W.G. Sebald, 2025-03-25 From the renowned author of Austerlitz named a Top 10 Book of the 21st Century by the New York Times comes the first English translation of his extraordinary essays on the Austrian writers who shaped his life and work Silent Catastrophes brings together the two books W G Sebald wrote on the Austrian writers who meant so much to him The Description of Misfortune and Strange Homeland published in Austria in 1985 and 1991 As a German in self chosen exile from his country of birth Sebald found a particular affinity with these writers from a neighboring nation The traumatic evolution of Austria from vast empire to diminutive Alpine republic followed by its annexation by Nazi Germany meant that concepts such as home land borderland and exile occupy a prominent role in its literature just as they would in Sebald's own Through a series of remarkable close readings of texts by Bernhard Stifter Kafka Handke Roth and more Sebald charts both the pathologies which so often drove their work and the seismic historical forces which shaped them This sequence of essays will be a revelation to Sebald's English language readers tracing as they do so many of the themes which animate his own literary writings to which these essays form a kind of prelude This is an essential new edition from a writer whose life and work has become a wonderful vindication of literary culture in all its subtle and entrancing complexity The Guardian The Long Way Home Lorraine Adamson, 2015-06-26 This is a true story It had to be that was an edict handed down by Godyes that God the Supreme Authority the Creator of heaven and earth and everything else The God of Thou shall not bear false witness So let me tell you about the family God placed me in First Neil Diamond isn't really my father No kidding right But knowing that Neil Diamond isn't my father also meant knowing that my mother lived with a significant mental illness How are you supposed to go back to the beginning and find your way once you've realized the map you've been following is not only illusory it isn't even your own illusion

Representing the Race Gene Andrew Jarrett, 2011-08-08 The political value of African American literature has long been a topic of great debate among American writers both black and white from Thomas Jefferson to Barack Obama In his compelling new book Representing the Race Gene Andrew Jarrett traces the genealogy of this topic in order to develop an innovative political history of African American literature Jarrett examines texts of every sort pamphlets autobiographies cultural criticism poems short stories and novels to parse the myths of authenticity popular culture nationalism and militancy that have come to define African American political activism in recent decades He argues that unless we show the diverse and complex ways that African American literature has transformed society political myths will continue to limit our understanding of this intellectual tradition Cultural forums ranging from the printing press schools and conventions to parlors railroad cars and courtrooms provide the backdrop to this African American literary history while the foreground is replete with compelling stories from the debate over racial genius in early American history and the intellectual culture of racial politics after slavery to the tension between copyright law and free speech in contemporary African American culture to the political audacity of Barack Obama's creative writing Erudite yet accessible Representing the Race is a bold explanation of what's at stake in continuing to politicize African American literature in the new millennium

Collapse Jared Diamond, 2013-03-21 From the author of Guns Germs and Steel Jared Diamond's Collapse How Societies Choose to Fail or Survive is a visionary study of the mysterious downfall of past civilizations Now in a revised edition with a new afterword Jared Diamond's Collapse uncovers the secret behind why some societies flourish while others founder and what this means for our future What happened to the people who made the forlorn long abandoned statues of Easter Island What happened to the architects of the crumbling Maya pyramids Will we go the same way our skyscrapers one day standing derelict and overgrown like the temples at Angkor Wat Bringing together new evidence from a startling range of sources and piecing together the myriad influences from climate to culture that make societies self destruct Jared Diamond's Collapse also shows how unlike our ancestors we can benefit from our knowledge of the past and learn to be survivors A grand sweep from a master storyteller of the human race Daily Mail Riveting superb terrifying Observer Gripping the book fulfils its huge ambition and Diamond is the only man who could have written it Economist This book shines like all Diamond's work Sunday Times

Ethical Issues in Rural Health Care Craig M. Klugman, Pamela M. Dalinis, 2013-01-02 Klugman and Dalinis initiate a much needed conversation about the ethical and policy concerns facing health care providers in the rural United States This volume initiates a much needed conversation about the ethical and policy concerns facing health care providers in the rural United States Although 21 percent of the population lives in rural areas only 11 percent of physicians practice there What challenges do health care workers face in remote locations What are the differences between rural and urban health care practices What particular ethical issues arise in treating residents of small communities Craig M Klugman and Pamela M Dalinis gather philosophers lawyers physicians nurses and researchers to discuss these and other questions offering a multidisciplinary overview of rural health care in the United States Rural practitioners often practice within small tight knit communities socializing with their patients outside the examination room The residents are more likely to have limited finances and to lack health insurance Physicians may have insufficient resources to treat their patients who often have to travel great distances to see a doctor The first part of the book analyzes the differences between rural and urban cultures and discusses the difficulties in treating patients in rural settings The second part features the personal narratives of rural health care providers who share their experiences and insights The last part introduces unique ethical challenges facing rural health care providers and proposes innovative solutions to those problems This volume is a useful resource for bioethicists members of rural bioethics committees and networks policy makers teachers of health care providers and rural practitioners themselves
