Search Committee, The José Skinner, 2025-05-24 Mexico is only eight miles from Bravo University When Minerva Mondragón candidate for a tenure track Border Studies position suggests Professor Quigley take her across the border for lunch before the interview he acquiesces uneasily He can't afford to scare her off so doesn't mention he hasn't crossed over in more than a year because of the drug cartel related violence The first two candidates have turned down the job offer and the committee can't lose this applicant But lunch in the fictional border town of La Reina leads to shocking consequences for the candidate and her hapless guide Minerva never returns from the restaurant's bathroom and Quigley feeling guilty convinces himself that she has decided to disappear He returns to the United States without reporting her missing or mentioning the trip to his colleagues Meanwhile the applicant finds herself bound and gagged in the back of a taxi victim of a kidnapping A host of quirky characters populate these pages There's the bumbling university professor trying to cover his ass and the kidnapped woman attempting to escape a dire situation alive The candidate's dissertation director knows just enough about Bravo University's government sponsored spy training program to endanger Minerva's life And the new leader of the Gamboa organization is the son who has been educated to take over the financial side of the business but has no idea how to handle the intra gang war that erupted following his father's imprisonment in the United States A long time professor of literature and creative writing in South Texas Jos Skinner writes darkly comedic scenes with an insider's understanding of university and border life and the narco violence that has disrupted them

The Films of Akira Kurosawa,

Third Edition, Expanded and Updated Donald Richie, 2023-12-22 In an epilogue provided for his incomparable study of Akira Kurosawa 1910 1998 Donald Richie reflects on Kurosawa's life work of thirty feature films and describes his last unfinished project a film set in the Edo period to be called The Ocean Was Watching Kurosawa remains unchallenged as one of the century's greatest film directors Through his long and distinguished career he managed like very few others in the teeth of a huge and relentless industry to elevate each of his films to a distinctive level of art His Rashomon one of the best remembered and most talked of films in any language was a revelation when it appeared in 1950 and did much to bring Japanese cinema to the world's attention Kurosawa's films display an extraordinary breadth and an astonishing strength from the philosophic and sexual complexity of Rashomon to the moral dedication of Ikiru from the naked violence of Seven Samurai to the savage comedy of Yojimbo from the terror filled feudalism of Throne of Blood to the piercing wit of Sanjuro
