Looking At Modern Painting:

Looking at Modern Painting Leonard Freedman, 1961 Looking at Modern Painting Leonard Freedman, Gibson A. Danes, Theresa Zezzos Fulton, Carl D. Sheppard, Frederick Stallknecht Wight, 1961 Learning to Look at Modern Art Mary Acton, 2004 This companion text to the author's Learning to Look at Paintings addresses some of the questions most commonly asked about modern art covering key movements of the modern and postmodern periods in a richly illustrated and engaging volume The Art of Looking Lance Esplund, 2018-11-27 A veteran art critic helps us make sense of modern and contemporary art The landscape of contemporary art has changed dramatically during the last hundred years from Malevich's 1915 painting of a single black square and Duchamp's 1917 signed porcelain urinal to Jackson Pollock's midcentury drip paintings Chris Burden's Shoot 1971 in which the artist was voluntarily shot in the arm with a rifle Urs Fischer's You 2007 a giant hole dug in the floor of a New York gallery and the conceptual and performance art of today's Ai Weiwei and Marina Abramovic The shifts have left the art viewing public understandably perplexed In The Art of Looking renowned art critic Lance Esplund demonstrates that works of modern and contemporary art are not as indecipherable as they might seem With patience insight and wit Esplund guides us through the last century of art and empowers us to approach and appreciate it with new eyes Eager to democratize genres that can feel inaccessible Esplund encourages viewers to trust their own taste guts and common sense The Art of Looking will open the eyes of viewers who think that recent art is obtuse nonsensical and irrelevant as well as the eyes of those who believe that the art of the past has nothing to say to our present Looking at Modern Painting Leonard Freedman, 2003-01 What Are You Looking At? Will Gompertz, 2016-04-07 What is modern art Why do we either love it or loathe it And why is it worth so much damn money Join Will Gompertz on a dazzling tour that will change the way you look at modern art forever From Monet's water lilies to Van Gogh's sunflowers from Warhol's soup cans to Hirst's pickled shark hear the stories behind the masterpieces meet the artists as they really were and discover the real point of modern art You will learn not all conceptual art is bollocks Picasso is king but Cezanne is better Pollock is no drip Dali painted with his moustache a urinal changed the course of art why your five year old really couldn't do it Refreshing irreverent and always straightforward What Are You Looking At asks all the basic questions that you were too afraid to ask Your next gallery trip is going to be a little less intimidating and a lot more interesting Looking at Modern Painting University of California, Los Angeles. Department of Art, 1957 Why a Painting Is Like a Pizza Nancy G. Heller, 2019-12-31 The first time she made a pizza from scratch art historian Nancy Heller made the observation that led her to write this entertaining guide to contemporary art Comparing modern art not only to pizzas but also to traditional and children's art Heller shows us how we can refine analytical tools we already possess to understand and enjoy even the most unfamiliar paintings and sculptures How is a painting like a pizza Both depend on visual balance for much of their overall appeal and though both can be judged by a set of established standards pizzas and paintings must ultimately be evaluated in terms of individual taste By using such commonsense examples and making unexpected connections this book helps even the most skeptical viewers feel comfortable around contemporary art and see aspects of it they would otherwise miss Heller discusses how nontraditional works of art are made and thus how to talk about their composition and formal elements She also considers why such art is made and what it means At the same time Heller reassures those of us who have felt uncomfortable around avant garde art that we don't have to like all or even any of it Yet if we can relax we can use the aesthetic awareness developed in everyday life to analyze almost any painting sculpture or installation Heller also gives concise answers to the eight questions she is most frequently asked about contemporary art from how to tell when an abstract painting is right side up to which works of art belong in a museum This book is for anyone who agrees with art critic Clement Greenberg that All profoundly original art looks ugly at first It's also for anyone who disagrees It is for anyone who wants to get more out of a museum or gallery visit and would like to be able to say something more than just yes or no when asked if they like an artist's work

Looking at Art Philosophically Tom Supensky, 2012-08-31 The purpose of this book is to present to the reader a series of philosophical ideas that assist in understanding one's position in the world of art and some thinking on art and creativity intended to awaken the aesthetic aspects of making art There is no intention to review historical philosophical concepts nor is there any specific inclusion of contemporary theories on art philosophy What is included are those philosophies important to the developing artist that are more commonplace in nature often neglected in art education yet vitally necessary to the true artist Finally this book is intended to stimulate the reader into asking such questions as who am I why art and what is art It is hopeful that the reader finds an aesthetic foundation a personal and honest place in the world of art

Looking at Art Peter V. Moak, 2016-09-06 This guide contains a new approach to looking at and appreciating art One not found elsewhere It makes you aware of abilities you already have to see things in various ways The key to these abilities is what I call the visual ego the place between your eyes from which you see the world The guide then describes a series of particular ways of seeing and making works of art Finally it applies these ways which I call perspectives to works of art painting sculpture architecture and the decorative arts covering a period of some seventy thousand years The results I find to be amazing including new understandings and appreciation of many works of art and artists and their place in the history of art

A Companion to Modern Art Pam Meecham, 2018-02-13 A Companion to Modern Art presents a series of original essays by international and interdisciplinary authors who offer a comprehensive overview of the origins and evolution of artistic works movements approaches influences and legacies of Modern Art Presents a contemporary debate and dialogue rather than a seamless consensus on Modern Art Aims for reader accessibility by highlighting a plurality of approaches and voices in the field Presents Modern Art's foundational philosophic ideas and practices as well as the complexities of key artists such as Cezanne and Picasso and those who straddled the modern and contemporary Looks at the historical reception of Modern Art in addition to the latest insights of art historians curators and critics to artists educators and more

Looking Back to the Future Griselda Pollock, 2014-04-08 In this selection of recent essays Pollock insightfully engages all major areas of contemporary theory especially focusing on sexed subjectivities post colonialism and Marxist informed history In her commentary Penny Florence places Pollock's critique of modernism art history and criticism within the context of the social political and ideological developments that have taken place since the 1970s Florence recognizes in Pollock's work a critical model that moves beyond the contradictions that take place within the history of art Pollock's own essays and Florence's commentary elaborate the complexities in evaluating this prominent theorist and feminist whose work demands a capacity to sustain contradiction

The Horrid Looking Glass: Reflections on Monstrosity, 2020-09-25 From the fictional world of vampires zombies and invaders from other worlds to the very real world of revolutionary France and in between the nature of the monster encompasses the very quality that makes them so believable that which we perceive as other While there is a commonality in this otherness the monster lurking in the shadows concealed in darkness or conjured with a few lines from a horror novel suggests the monster as one onto which we are free to project the most distorted and unhuman features In each chapter of this volume you will discover that the way in which we project what is monstrous is not a singular other but is in fact a part of our own self identity The greatest horror of the monster is not that it stands apart but that once we pull it from the shadow of our own projected imagination we discover that that the monster we fear is also bound to our own mirror image To look at the monster to name that which must never be named is to look upon a reflection and embrace a part of our nature we do not wish to see

Modern Art, 1851-1929 Richard R. Brettell, 1999 In a bold new look at the Modern Art era Brettell explores the works of such artists as Monet Gauguin Picasso and Dali as well as lesser known figures in relation to expansion colonialism national and internationalism and the rise of the museum 140 illustrations 75 in color
