Immaterial Architecture Jonathan Hill, 2006-04-18 This fascinating argument from Jonathan Hill presents the case for the significance and importance of the immaterial in architecture Architecture is generally perceived as the solid physical matter that it unarguably creates but what of the spaces it creates This issue drives Hill's explorative look at the immaterial aspects of architecture The book discusses the pressures on architecture and the architectural profession to be respectively solid matter and solid practice and considers concepts that align architecture with the immaterial such as the superiority of ideas over matter command of drawing and design of spaces and surfaces Focusing on immaterial architecture as the perceived absence of matter Hill devises new means to explore the creativity of both the user and the architect advocating an architecture that fuses the immaterial and the material and considers its consequences challenging preconceptions about architecture its practice purpose matter and use This is a useful and innovative read that encourages architects and students to think beyond established theory and practice Mink Hills J.F Lore, 2024-04-18 For more than two hundred years the township of Mink Hills Manitoba has been embroiled in a secret war with an enemy profoundly suited to the shadows Legend has it that werewolves roam the woods outside of town responsible for the abduction of local children a few from each generation Of course that s nonsense Surely whatever monster is responsible for taking these children is merely human though clearly lacking in humanity But when the son of RCMP Detective Marcus Pope is abducted along with two other children and the desperate search takes him and his fellow officers deep into the woods the werewolf legend becomes an undeniable reality in a vicious attack that leaves officers down and the survivors questioning everything they had ever believed Enlisting the help of fellow detective Morgan Heart as well as an ancient werewolf who had been turned against his will centuries earlier Marcus vows to put an end to the wolf pack s persistent and pernicious evil and seek justice for everything they d taken from the people of Mink Hills and from himself The Refractionist ,1914 Thermoplastic Material Selection Eric R. Larson,2015-04-30 Thermoplastic Material Selection A Practical Guide presents current information on how proper material selection is a critical component of any manufactured product The text is a practical guide to a difficult process giving the reader a fundamental grounding in thermoplastic materials and providing the tools they need to save time money and frustration The book provides an overview of the most commonly used thermoplastic materials including discussions of the different chemical families plastics categories and material grades and the implications of these differences on the material selection process It provides fresh insights on the traditional methods of material selection based on performance and cost and also discusses the use of non traditional methods based on subjective evaluation Subsequent sections include references on tools that can be used to conduct further exploration how to accurately select the most suitable material writing an effective material specification and working with material suppliers and distributors Presents current information on how proper thermoplastics material selection is a critical component of any manufactured product A practical guide to a difficult process giving the reader a fundamental grounding in thermoplastics material selection and providing the tools they need to save time money and frustration Delivers insights on the traditional methods of material selection based on performance and cost and introduces nontraditional methods based on size form appearance and feel Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson,2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide The Architectural Review ,1921 Catholic World ,1926 Ford Madox Ford and the Misfit Moderns R. The Queen of Peace Room Magie Dominic, 2006-01-01 What is memory and where is it stored in the body Can a room be symbolic of a lifetime Memories are like layers of your skin or layers of paint on a canvas In The Queen of Peace Room Magie Dominic peels away these layers as she explores her life that of a Newfoundlander turned New Yorker an artist and a writer and frees herself from the memories of her violent past On an eight day retreat with Catholic nuns in a remote location safe from the outside world she exposes and captures fifty years of violent memories and weaves them into a tapestry of unforgettable images The room she inhabits while there is called The Queen of Peace Room it becomes for her a room of sanctuary She examines Newfoundland in the 1940s and 1950s and New York in the 1960s her confrontations with violence incest and rape the devastating loss of friends to AIDS and the relationship between life and art These memories she finds stored alongside memories of nature's images of trees pulling themselves up from their roots and fleeing the forest storms and ley lines and skies bursting with star like eyes In The Queen of Peace Room from a very personal perspective Magie Dominic explores violence against women in the second half of the twentieth century and in doing so unearths the memory of a generation In eight days she captures half a century
