Grieving the Death of a Pet Betty J. Carmack,2025-05-27 Because our relationships with our animal companions are unlike human relationships the death of a pet is like no other loss that we will experience In Grieving the Death of a Pet Betty J Carmack draws on her own experience and on interviews with dozens of pet lovers to guide the reader through the loss of a beloved animal companion

A Peaceful Path MJ Tucci,Laurie Califf,2012-05-22 Experiencing the death of a pet is a significant loss many of us must face in our lifetime What may surprise you is how you or others may respond when this occurs These companions share our daily lives A mischievous little cat woke you with every sunrise the wiry mutt you thought only you could love or your beautiful quarter horse who took you away to places of simple beauty These are losses you will feel daily yet have no idea how to address them This workbook will allow you to explore and understand why you feel this loss and help you do the work in the process of grieving It is designed to be a seven week study but can be taken at your own pace You may find yourself laughing at memories of your first days together or working through the those questions of those last few days All of these are necessary parts of the healing process and we hope you find comfort as you spend these days loving your companion as well as yourself

I Lost My Best Friend Today Judy Wright,2013-01-29 Pet Loss Is Devastating There Are Ways To Help Ease Your Pain Dear friend I wonder if you can relate to some of the stories in this book Was the decision to euthanize your pet one of the hardest things you ve ever done Do you have an old or terminally ill pet who you cannot stand the thought of losing Do you find yourself denying the inevitable or wondering how you will ever be able to handle the loss when they are gone Is your child struggling to understand the death of their pet Do you wish you could find the words to comfort a grieving friend or family member who lost a beloved pet but you don t know what to say to show your support without appearing to trivialize their pain Did the loss of your animal best friend trigger unhappy memories or unresolved conflicts of loss from years ago Did you find that you were more upset over losing a pet than losing a parent or relative All of the contributors knew their pets were more than just animals they are our closest friends constant companions and integral members of the family Just one of the comments about the book I can't share how sad I am about my dog because my co-workers will think I am crazy But on the other hand I inquire about their child's cold and buy their stupid Girl Scout cookies to support them It isn't fair Oh God please don't let me start crying at work again I heard someone call me a drama queen and say It's only a dog not a child I just need someone to acknowledge my sadness Each day with our pet is special and brings joy to both the owner and the owned sometimes it is hard to determine who owns who do you agree No one wants to lose their pet No one gets an animal anticipating the death of that companion But the fact is pets are lost to accidents disease old age or they simply wander off and never come home It's finding ways to deal with the grief that will help you during the difficult time of losing your best friend Read this book you will be so glad you did

The Grief Recovery Handbook for Pet Loss Russell Friedman, Cole James, John W. James, 2014 If you've found yourself almost inconsolable after your pet died please know that you're normal If you've found that your family and friends don't seem to understand the level of your grief please know that too is normal Without comparing our relationships with our pets to those with people we know that because of the unique emotional relationships we have with our pets their deaths produce a level of pain that is difficult to describe If you relate to any or all of these sentences this book is for you We have been there and most probably will be there again We will be with you on this journey to help your heart deal with the absence of your cherished companion Russell Cole and John Your relationship with your pet is special it's a bond that is very different than those that human beings share with each other When a beloved pet passes away people often resort to incorrect mechanisms to deal with the grief such as trying to move too quickly past the loss dismissing the real impact or even attempting to replace the pet immediately However these are merely two myths out of six that the authors discuss and dismantle in The Grief Recovery Handbook for Pet Loss Based on the authors Grief Recovery Method R this book addresses how losing a pet is different from losing a human loved one and ultimately how to move on with life
