William Patrick Martin

Lost Girl Of The Sudan:

Lost Boy, Lost Girl John Bul Dau, Martha Arual Akech, 2010 One of thousands of children who fled strife in southern Sudan John Bul Dau survived hunger exhaustion and violence His wife Martha endured similar hardships In this memorable book the two convey the best of African values while relating searing accounts of famine and war There s warmth as well in their humorous tales of adapting to American life For its importance as a primary source for its inclusion of the rarely told female perspective of Sudan s lost children for its celebration of human resilience this is the perfect story to inform and inspire young readers Lost Girl of the Sudan A. Russo, 2005-04 Two Sudanese children Bok and Marta sent by their mother to a village market are captured by rebel soldiers and separated from each other Lost Girl of the Sudan is the story of their plights Bok sold as a slave and working on a farm fears for his life and escapes with a dozen other boys Marta is brought to an army captain s home where they intend to sell her as a slave Their lives become entangled in a horrid plot orchestrated by the son of a Nazi officer This thriller captures the science and mystery in an international plot similar to Robin Cook s Chromosome Six What They Meant for Evil Rebecca Deng, 2019-09-10 Many stories have been told about the famous Lost Boys but now for the first time a Lost Girl shares her hauntingly beautiful and inspiring story One of the first unaccompanied refugee children to enter the United States in 2000 after South Sudan s second civil war took the lives of most of her family Rebecca s story begins in the late 1980s when at the age of four her village was attacked and she had to escape What They Meant for Evil is the account of that unimaginable journey With the candor and purity of a child Rebecca recalls how she endured fleeing from gunfire suffering through hunger and strength sapping illnesses dodging life threatening predators lions snakes crocodiles and soldiers alike that dogged her footsteps and grappling with a war that stole her childhood Her story is a lyrical captivating portrait of a child hurled into wartime and how through divine intervention she came to America and found a new life full of joy hope and redemption Dark Exodus Beverly Parkhurst Moss, 2008 The civil war which broke out in Sudan in the early 1980s left hundreds of thousands of Sudanese Southerners dead The dispossessed victims who survived often had to trek hundreds of miles to reach overfilled poorly constructed refugee camps Of the few female refugees who received passage to other countries a handful ended up in the Dallas Texas metroplex Dark Exodus is a collection of sixteen women s heartrending stories of struggle and survival in a time and place of utmost turmoil and tragedy Page 4 of cover The Longest Journey Peter Browne, 2006 Over the past five years more than 25 000 Africans have arrived in Australia under the federal government s humanitarian resettlement program Some have spent a decade or more in refugee camps in remote regions of East Africa years of inadequate food enforced inactivity and the threat of violence Hundreds of thousands are still stranded in the camps Australia is one of only a dozen western countries that resettle refugees but how fair is the resettlement process Does it always help the neediest of all refugees Reading the World's Stories Annette Y. Goldsmith, Theo Heras, Susan Corapi, 2016-08-11 Reading the World s Stories is volume 5 in the Hope, Pain & Patience Friederike Bubenzer, Orly Stern, 2011 As in many post conflict countries the roles played by women during Sudan s long lasting liberation struggle continue to go unrecognised Thousands of women joined the southern liberation struggle in response to a political situation that affected whole communities leaving the comfort and security of their homes not just to accompany their husbands but to fight for freedom democracy equity justice rights and dignity As well as playing roles in the fighting women acted as mothers teachers and nurses and filled numerous other roles during the war The long standing struggle for the liberation of South Sudan severely altered traditional gender roles as well as the societal structure as a whole Women also suffered during the war An increase in HIV hunger and violence particularly sexual violence characterised their lives in Sudan as well as in exile for many years Life in the post conflict period continues to be challenging as women try to carve out a meaningful life in a tenuous peace This volume documents the lives of different groups of women in South Sudan It seeks to understand the contributions made by a range of women both during the conflict and today It describes the women of South Sudan who they are what they have experienced what they hope and feel what they experienced in the war and whether the end of the war has brought meaningful change Back cover Rise and Fall of John Garang's Family Arou,2015-06-22 The dreams has come in the final stage when I was a little boy in the years of struggling many soldiers many juniors senior military offices and politicians approached me to write a book I wonder why they approached me and there were many kids The war will take long time says officers we would not be alive and we are going to the war or frontline is a matter of death or life When we gone you will write a book for cost of our lives our memories and celebrations of lives because we have brought independence of south Sudan through our dear blood They just told me you are young boy you have suffered with us as child soldier you will make it to a better school you will become professional man and next leader in south Sudan And many authors didnt articulated how John Garang mistreated some clans tribe in SPLA SPLM than he gone far to retained some politicians for longer time and executed military officers It was voluntary job you cant exploit soldiers that doing voluntary job and it is unacceptable in modern era The John Garang was not elected through democracy channel he came through coup attempts and starting lock up his bosses He John Garang appointed himself as chief prosecutor he executed many army officers for many years The 15 12 war in south Sudan last years I just recalled what we discussed with elders than I have starting writing this book However John Garang s wife she a masterminded of all human atrocities in both 1980s and 2013 of fuelling up the war that took lives of innocent civilians in south Sudan Identity and Power in Narratives of

Displacement Katrina M. Powell,2015-02-11 In this book Powell examines the ways that identities are constructed in displacement narratives based on cases of eminent domain natural disaster and civil unrest attending specifically to the rhetorical strategies employed as barriers and boundaries intersect with individual lives She provides a unique method to understand how the displaced move within accepted and subversive discourses and how representation is a crucial component of that movement In addition Powell shows how notions of human rights and the public good are often at odds with individual well being and result in intriguing intersections between discourses of power and discourses of identity Given the ever increasing numbers of displaced persons across the globe and the layers of displacement experienced by many this study sheds light on the resources of rhetoric as means of survival and resistance during the globally common experience of displacement Darfur Genocide Alexis Herr,2020-03-06 This important reference work offers students a comprehensive overview of the Darfur Genocide with roughly 100 in depth articles by leading scholars on an array of topics and themes and more than a dozen key primary source documents Stretching beyond Darfur to situate Sudan within the scope of its African colonial human rights and genocidal history this reference work explores every aspect of the Darfur Genocide Covering hundreds of years this book explores the religious ethnic and cultural roots of Sudanese identity making and how it influenced the shape of the genocide that erupted in 2004 As the first reference guide on the Darfur Genocide this text will enable readers to explore an array of critical topics related to the atrocities in Sudan The book opens with seven key essays collectively providing an overview of the genocide its causes and consequences international reaction and profiles on the main perpetrators victims and bystanders These are followed by entries on such crucial topics as the African Union child soldiers the Janjaweed and the Lost Boys and Girls of Sudan Leading scholars offer perspective essays on the primary cause of the Darfur Genocide and on whether the conflict in Darfur is a just case for intervention Expertly curated primary documents enrich readers ability to understand the complexity of the genocide What Is the What Dave

Eggers,2009-02-24 What Is the What is the story of Valentino Achak Deng a refugee in war ravaged southern Sudan who flees from his village in the mid 1980s and becomes one of the so called Lost Boys Valentino s travels bring him in contact with enemy soldiers with liberation rebels with hyenas and lions with disease and starvation and with deadly murahaleen militias on horseback the same sort who currently terrorize Darfur Eventually Deng is resettled in the United States with almost 4000 other young Sudanese men and a very different struggle begins Based closely on true experiences What Is the What is heartbreaking and arresting filled with adventure suspense tragedy and finally triumph Branding Humanity

Amal Hassan Fadlalla,2018-11-20 The Save Darfur movement gained an international following garnering widespread international attention to this remote Sudanese territory Celebrities and other notable public figures participated in human rights campaigns to combat violence in the region But how do local activists and those throughout the Sudanese diaspora in the United States situate their own notions of rights nationalism and identity Based on interviews with Sudanese social actors activists and their allies in the United States the Sudan and online Branding Humanity traces the global story of violence and the remaking of Sudanese identities Amal Hassan Fadlalla examines how activists contest reshape and reclaim the stories of violence emerging from the Sudan and their identities as migrants Fadlalla charts the clash and friction of the master narratives and counter narratives circulated and mobilized by competing social and political actors negotiating social exclusion and inclusion through their own identity politics and predicament of exile In exploring the varied and individual experiences of Sudanese activists and allies Branding Humanity helps us see beyond the oft monolithic international branding of conflict Fadlalla asks readers to consider how national and transnational debates about violence circulate shape and re territorialize ethnic identities disrupt meanings of national belonging and rearticulate notions of solidarity and global affiliations Time and Space in Literacy Research

Catherine Compton-Lilly, Erica Halverson,2014-04-24 Literacy researchers interested in how specific sites of learning situate students and the ways they make sense of their worlds are asking new questions and thinking in new ways about how time and space operate as contextual dimensions in the learning lives of students teachers and families These investigations inform questions related to history identity methodology in school and out of school spaces and local global literacies An engaging blend of methodological theoretical and empirical work featuring well known researchers on the topic this book provides a conceptual framework for extending existing conceptions of context and provides unique and ground breaking examples of empirical research Ethnocinema: Intercultural Arts Education Anne M.
