the vital security interests of the United States The Role of Threat Perceptions in International Relations Vindu Mai Chotani, 2025-08-01 With China's rise in the Indo Pacific this book systematically analyses and explores the complex reality of questions regarding threat perception why and when do states perceive or do not perceive China as a threat and what influences or drives these perceptions How have their perceptions evolved and changed over time To provide deeper insight it moves beyond traditional Realist explanations of the China threat Additionally by engaging in a diverse theoretical discussion it studies the various perspectives of key Indo Pacific players India Japan China the United States Australia the Association of Southeast Asian Nations and South Korea Mapping the formation and changing perceptions of threat regarding China's rise this book would be essential reading for scholars students and researchers of international relations studying the Indo Pacific region threat perception global politics geopolitics foreign policy Chinese studies middle powers and strategic studies It will also be a useful handy reference for foreign policy experts government bureaucrats and think tanks Geopolitical Orientations, Regionalism and Security in the Indian Ocean Dennis Rumley, Sanjay Chaturvedi, 2015-07-24 First published in 2004 this book is the inaugural volume of the Indian Ocean Research Group IORG and is based on a selection of papers presented at the IORG launch in Chandigarh in November 2002 The volume emphasizes the complexity and historical and contemporary geopolitical significance of the Indian Ocean Region IOR It also propagates the necessity for increased intra regional cooperation especially in terms of economic and environmental security maritime boundaries sea lane security and ocean management in the spirit of open regionalism in order to ensure a more secure IOR In addition the volume initiates an agenda for future social science policy orientated research The book should be of particular interest to policy makers business people and academics as well as citizens of the IOR A Subject Index to Current Literature Australian Public Affairs Information Service, Domestic Politics and International Relations in US-Japan Trade Policymaking C. Meyerson, 2003-10-14 To what extent does domestic politics affect the agreement reached in an international trade negotiation In order to address this question Christopher C Meyerson develops an approach to analyzing the relationship between domestic politics and international relations in trade policymaking This approach is used to analyze both American and Japanese trade policymaking and US Japan trade negotiations especially during the GATT Uruguay Round agriculture negotiations that occurred between 1986 and 1994 Meyerson not only develops an innovative approach to the analysis of the relationship between domestic politics and international relations in trade policymaking but also using publicly available GATT documents and publications US Congressional hearings and Japanese language sources provides a strong narrative description of the roles of the United States and Japan in the GATT Uruguay Round agriculture negotiations China's Diplomacy Responding to World Transformation in the New Era Honghua Men, 2025-07-25 This book delves into the innovative thinking new and key agendas and practical evolution of China's diplomacy in the new era As the world has entered a new epoch the once in a century world transformation is accelerating and great power rivalry becomes increasingly prominent with the Sino US strategic competition emerging as the driving force behind the tremendous shifts in international relations. The interaction between China and the world has undergone significant changes and China's diplomatic adjustments have captured global attention. This book elucidates the underlying logic behind these diplomatic adjustments, summarizes the manifestations of China's diplomatic concepts and innovative practices, highlights the numerous new issues arising from China's interaction with the world, analyzes the challenges and dilemmas faced by Chinese diplomacy, and explores new directions for China's diplomatic breakthroughs. This book serves as a theoretical guide for professional researchers, including experts, scholars, research personnel, and students, while also offering a systematic understanding for a wide range of readers interested in China-related issues, including those in the business world, policy circles, and international activists. The translation was done with the help of artificial intelligence. A subsequent human revision was done primarily in terms of content.

Navies and Foreign Policy (Routledge Revivals) Ken Booth, 2014-06-27. First published in 1977, this study offers a comprehensive, systematic, and integrated survey of the important relationship between navies and the making and execution of foreign policy. Ken Booth explains the functions navies can perform in both war and peace, the influence they have on particular situations, and how the relevant organisations can affect the character of naval actions. Ultimately, navies are regarded as indispensable instruments of the state by a number of countries, whilst all countries with a coast find some need to threaten a degree of force at sea. This book provides students and academics with the intellectual framework with which to assess the changing character of the navy.

APAIS 1991: Australian public affairs information service, Greek-Turkish Relations Since 1955 Tozun Bahcheli, 2021-11-28. Bahcheli analyzes the dispute over Cyprus from its emergence in the 1950s to the coup against President Makarios, which brought Greece and Turkey to war in 1974. He considers the Cyprus issue within the narrow context of Greek-Turkish relations and the broad context of international relations.

Routledge Handbook of the International Relations of South Asia Āmit Ganguly, Frank O'Donnell, 2022-10-28. This handbook offers a comprehensive overview of the international relations of South Asia. South Asia as a region is increasingly assuming greater significance in global politics for a host of compelling reasons. This volume offers the most comprehensive collection of perspectives on the international politics of South Asia and it covers an extensive range of issues spanning from inter-state wars to migration in the region. Each contribution provides a careful discussion of the four major theoretical approaches to the study of international politics: Realism, Constructivism, Liberalism, and Critical Theory. In turn, the chapters discuss the relevance of each approach to the issue area addressed in the book. The volume offers coverage of the key issues under four thematic sections: Theoretical Approaches to the Study of the International Relations of South Asia; Traditional and Emerging Security Issues in South Asia; The International Relations of South Asia; Cross-cutting Regional Issues. Further, every effort has been made in the chapters to discuss the origins, evolution, and future direction of each issue. This book will be of much interest to students of South Asian politics human security regional security and International Relations in general Asian Geopolitics and the US-China Rivalry Felix Heiduk, 2021-07-22 This book analyses the ways in which foreign policy actors in Asia have responded to the emerging great power conflict between the US and the People's Republic of China focusing on medium and small states across the Indo Pacific. The book offers a much needed counterpoint to existing analyses on the Indo Pacific and China's BRI and presents a new perspective by examining how great power politics are locally reinterpreted conditioned or at times even contested. It illustrates the policy level challenges which the US-China rivalry poses for established political and economic practices and outlines how these challenges can be best addressed by smaller states and their societies. A timely assessment of the power play in the Indo Pacific with the angle of Sino-American rivalry this book makes an important contribution to the study of Political Science International Relations Asian Studies and Security Studies.
