Protestant Missionaries In The Philippines 1898 1916 An Inquiry Into The American Colonial Mentality:

Protestant Missionaries in the Philippines, 1898-1916 Kenton J. Clymer, 1986 The Blood of Government Paul A. Kramer, 2006-12-13 In 1899 the United States having announced its arrival as a world power during the Spanish Cuban American War inaugurated a brutal war of imperial conquest against the Philippine Republic Over the next five decades U S imperialists justified their colonial empire by crafting novel racial ideologies adapted to new realities of collaboration and anticolonial resistance In this pathbreaking transnational study Paul A Kramer reveals how racial politics served U S empire and how empire building in turn transformed ideas of race and nation in both the United States and the Philippines Kramer argues that Philippine American colonial history was characterized by struggles over sovereignty and recognition In the wake of a racial exterminist war U S colonialists in dialogue with Filipino elites divided the Philippine population into civilized Christians and savage animists and Muslims The former were subjected to a calibrated colonialism that gradually extended them self government as they demonstrated their capacities The latter were governed first by Americans then by Christian Filipinos who had proven themselves worthy of shouldering the white man s burden Ultimately however this racial vision of imperial nation building collided with U S nativist efforts to insulate the United States from its colonies even at the cost of Philippine independence Kramer provides an innovative account of the global transformations of race and the centrality of empire to twentieth century U S and Philippine histories Scarlet and Black, Volume Two Kendra Boyd, Marisa J. Fuentes, Deborah Gray White, 2020-02-21 The 250th anniversary of the founding of Rutgers University is a perfect moment for the Rutgers community to reconcile its past and acknowledge its role in the enslavement and debasement of African Americans and the disfranchisement and elimination of Native American people and culture Scarlet and Black Volume 2 continues to document the history of Rutgers s connection to slavery which was neither casual nor accidental nor unusual Like most early American colleges Rutgers depended on slaves to build its campuses and serve its students and faculty it depended on the sale of black people to fund its very existence This second of a planned three volumes continues the work of the Committee on Enslaved and Disenfranchised Population in Rutgers History This latest volume includes an introduction to the period studied from the end of the Civil War through WWII by Deborah Gray White a study of the first black students at Rutgers and New Brunswick Theological Seminary an analysis of African American life in the City of New Brunswick during the period and profiles of the earliest black women to matriculate at Douglass College To learn more about the work of the Committee on Enslaved and Disenfranchised Population in Rutgers History visit the project s website at <http://scarletandblack.rutgers.edu> Critical Theology against US Militarism in Asia Nami Kim, Wonhee Anne Joh, 2016-12-24 Drawing on cultural studies scholar Kuan Hsing Chen s threefold notion of decolonization deimperialization and de cold war this book provides analyses of the interrelated issues concerning the relationship between Christianity and the United States imperialist militarism in the Asia Pacific Contributors explore the effects of US imperialist militarism on the formation of Asian and Asian American collective subjectivity and inter intra subjectivity The book investigates the ways in which Christianity broadly defined in its own complexity has been complicit in maintaining and reinforcing US imperialist military agendas in both national and international contexts Conversely the volume also discusses the various sites and instances where Christianity has managed to serve as a force of resistance against US imperialist militarism Paths to Power Michael J. Hogan, 2000-02-13 Paths to Power includes essays on US foreign relations from the founding of the nation through the outbreak of World War II Essays by leading historians review the literature on American diplomacy in the early Republic and in the age of Manifest Destiny on American imperialism in the late nineteenth century and in the age of Roosevelt and Taft on war and peace in the Wilsonian era on foreign policy in the Republican ascendancy of the 1920s and on the origins of World War II in Europe and the Pacific The result is a comprehensive assessment of the current literature helpful suggestions for further research and a useful primer for students and scholars of American foreign relations Exporting the American Gospel Steve Brouwer, Paul Gifford, Susan D. Rose, 2013-12-16 As the pressures of globalization are crushing local traditions millions of uprooted people are buying into a new American salvation product This fundamentalist Christianity a fusion of American popular religion and politics is one of the most significant cultural influences exported from the United States With illuminating case studies based on extensive field research Exporting the American Gospel demonstrates how Christian fundamentalism has taken hold in many nations in Africa Latin America and Asia Pentecostal Pioneer Dynnice Rosanny D Engcoy, 2017-11-29 Rose Engcoy's insightful study of the life and ministry of Rodrigo e Rudy is a legitimate contribution to the historiography of the Pentecostal Charismatic movement in the Philippines about which so little has been done Here we have some valuable insights into the life of one of the six Filipino pioneers of the Assemblies of God church in the Philippines Esperanza began as a church planter and pastor and later also served as an educator and long time senior executive in the Assemblies of God in the Philippines He played a vital role in that church's early success which brought it to the forefront of the Pentecostal Charismatic movement in his beloved homeland Today the number of Christians is multiplying in the Asia Pacific region and Pentecostals and Charismatics are in the vanguard of that growth Routledge

Handbook on the Global History of Nursing NIP Patricia D'Antonio, Julie A. Fairman, Jean C. Whelan, 2013-06-19 A CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title 2014 2014 winner of the American Association for the History of Nursing's Mary M Roberts Award for Exemplary Historical Research and Writing The Routledge Handbook on the Global History of Nursing brings together leading scholars and scholarship to capture the state of the art and science of nursing history as a generation of researchers turn to the history of nursing with new paradigms and methodological tools Inviting readers to consider new understandings of the historical work and worth of nursing in a larger global context this ground breaking volume illuminates how research into the history of nursing moves us away from a reductionist focus on diseases and treatments and towards more inclusive ideas about the experiences of illnesses on individuals families communities voluntary organizations and states at the bedside and across the globe An extended introduction by the editors provides an overview and analyzes the key themes involved in the transmission of ideas about the care of the sick Organized into four parts and addressing nursing around the globe it covers New directions in the history of nursing New methodological approaches The politics of nursing knowledge Nursing and its relationship to social practice Exploring themes of people practice politics and places this cutting edge volume brings together the best of nursing history scholarship and is a vital reference for all researchers in the field and is also relevant to those studying on nursing history and health policy courses Spirited Politics Andrew Clinton Willford, Kenneth M. A History of Christianity in Asia, Vol. II Samuel Hugh Moffett, 2014-07-30 This second volume of Samuel Moffett's acclaimed History of Christianity in Asia illustrates the advance of the modern missionary movement in the continent of its birth. Like the first volume, it makes available immense research in a readable and engaging narrative. Moffett brings into dramatic relief events that illustrate both the broad patterns and the vital details of the spread of Christianity on a continent.

World History Encyclopedia [21 volumes] Alfred J. Andrea Ph.D., 2011-03-23 An unprecedented undertaking by academics reflecting an extraordinary vision of world history, this landmark multivolume encyclopedia focuses on specific themes of human development across cultures era by era, providing the most in-depth, expansive presentation available of the development of humanity from a global perspective. Well-known and widely respected historians worked together to create and guide the project in order to offer the most up-to-date visions available. A monumental undertaking, a stunning academic achievement. ABC-CLIO's World History Encyclopedia is the first comprehensive work to take a large-scale thematic look at the human species worldwide. Comprised of 21 volumes covering 9 eras, an introductory volume, and an index, it charts the extraordinary journey of humankind, revealing crucial connections among civilizations in different regions through the ages. Within each era, the encyclopedia highlights pivotal interactions and exchanges among cultures within eight broad thematic categories: population and environment, society and culture, migration and travel, politics and statecraft, economics and trade, conflict and cooperation, thought and religion, science and technology. Aligned to national history standards and packed with images, primary resources, current citations, and extensive teaching and learning support, the World History Encyclopedia gives students, educators, researchers, and interested general readers a means of navigating the broad sweep of history unlike any ever published.

Holiness Abroad Floyd Timothy Cunningham, 2003 This resource provides a detailed case study of an American denomination's work in Asia during the first three quarters of the twentieth century. Taking Christianity to China Samuel Paul Garner, 1976 Beginning early in the 19th century, the American missionary movement made slow headway in China. Alabamians became part of that small beachhead. After 1900, both the money and personnel rapidly expanded, peaking in the early 1920s. By the 1930s, many American denominations became confused and divided over the appropriateness of the missionary endeavor. Secular American intellectuals began to criticize missionaries as meddling do-gooders trying to impose American Evangelicalism on a proud ancient culture. By examining the lives of 47 Alabama missionaries who served in China between 1850 and 1950, Flynt and Berkley reach a different conclusion. Although Alabama missionaries initially fit the negative description of Americans trying to superimpose their own values and beliefs on heathen, they quickly learned to respect Chinese civilization. The result was a new synthesis, neither entirely southern nor entirely Chinese. Although previous works focus on the failure of Christianity to change China, this book focuses on the degree to which their service in China changed Alabama missionaries. And the change was profound. In their consideration of 47 missionaries from a single state their call to missions preparation for service in China living working contacts back home cultural clashes political views internal conflicts and gender relations the authors suggest that the efforts by Baptist Methodist and Presbyterian missionaries from Alabama were not the failure judged by many historians In fact the seeds sown in the hundred years before the Communist revolution in 1950 seem to be reaping a rich harvest in the declining years of the 20th century when the number of Chinese Christians is estimated by some to be as high as one hundred million
