Revolution And History Origins Of Marxist Historiography In China 1919 1937:

Revolution and History Arif Dirlik, 1989-09-18 A fascinating contribution to Marxist historiography and to the history of Marxist historiography Dirlik's story of the reemergence of the modes of production debate in the early years of the Chinese revolution has much to tell us about that debate itself and not least about its intimate relationship to political practice and revolutionary strategy Fredric Jameson Duke University

World History and National Identity in China Xin Fan, 2021-02-25 Focuses on individual lived experiences to trace the development of world historical studies in China's long twentieth century

Marxist Historiographies Q. Edward Wang, Georg G. Iggers, 2015-07-16 Marxist Historiographies is the first book to examine the ebb and flow of Marxist historiography from a global and cross cultural perspective Since the eighteenth century few schools of historical thought have exerted a more lasting impact than Marxism and this impact extends far beyond the Western world within which it is most commonly analysed Edited by two highly respected authors in the field this book deals with the effect of Marxism on historical writings not only in parts of Europe where it originated but also in countries and regions in Africa Asia North and South America and the Middle East Rather than presenting the chapters geographically it is structured with respect to how Marxist influence was shown in the works of historians in a particular area This title takes a dual approach to the subject some chapters are national in scope addressing the Marxist impact on historical practices within a country whereas others deal with the varied expressions of Marxist historiography throughout a wider region Taking a truly global perspective on this topic Marxist Historiographies demonstrates clearly the breadth and depth of Marxism's influence in historical writing throughout the world and is essential reading for all students of historiography

Schools Into Fields and Factories Ming K. Chan, Arif Dirlik, 1991 In this collaborative effort by two leading scholars of modern Chinese history Ming K Chan and Arif Dirlik investigate how the short lived National Labor University in Shanghai was both a reflection of the revolutionary concerns of its time and a catalyst for future radical experiments in education Under the slogan Turn schools into fields and factories fields and factories into schools the university attempted to bridge the gap between intellectual and manual labor which its founders saw as a central problem of capitalism and which remains a persistent theme in Chinese revolutionary thinking The authors bring to bear the perspectives of institutional and intellectual history on their examination of the structure and operation of the university presenting new material on its faculty curriculum physical plant and history They demonstrate how the prominent features and problems of Chinese higher education during the early years of the Guomindang regime prefigure the Marxist program of the Cultural Revolution and continue to have an influence on revolutionary thinking in the situation of China today Jacket

China, Democracy, and Law, 2021-12-06 This landmark volume deals with such essential questions as What points of departure or resources can be identified in Chinese history and culture for what we call democracy What are and have been their potential for development in a modern China confronted with powerful Western influences Are there any connections between imperial China's strong legal tradition and the PRC's current endeavour to restore the rule of law in a context of legal globalization in which China itself is an important participant. How serious or superficial should the political opening which started in the 1980s be regarded and the discourse on human rights currently heard in official circles. And finally how relevant is Taiwan's experiment with democratic institutions. In this rich and inspiring volume foremost French scholars carefully clarify the process of political and legal change convincingly showing that these questions cannot be answered without a proper understanding of centuries of Chinese juridical philosophical religious and political thought. Ouvrage publié avec le soutien du Centre national du livre. Published with financial support by the Centre national du livre. Articulating Citizenship Robert Culp, 2020-03-23. At the genesis of the Republic of China in 1912 many political leaders educators and social reformers argued that republican education should transform China's people into dynamic modern citizens social and political agents whose public actions would rescue the national community. Over subsequent decades however they came to argue fiercely over the contents of citizenship and how it should be taught. Moreover many of their carefully crafted policies and programs came to be transformed by textbook authors teachers administrators and students. Furthermore the idea of citizenship once introduced raised many troubling questions. Who belonged to the national community in China and how was the nation constituted. What were the best modes of political action. How should modern people take responsibility for public matters. What morality was proper for the modern public. This book reconstructs civic education and citizenship training in secondary schools in the lower Yangzi region during the Republican era. It also analyzes how students used the tools of civic education introduced in their schools to make themselves into young citizens and explores the complex social and political effects of educated youths' civic action. Intellectual Discourse in Reform Era China Giorgio Strafella, 2016-11-18. This book explores intellectual discourse in reform era China by analysing the so called debate on the spirit of the Humanities which occurred in the years 1993-95 and which is recognised by scholars as one of the most interesting influential and important debates of the 1990s. This debate in which Chinese intellectuals reflected on reform era mass culture and on their role in society was the first debate in China after the crackdown of 1989 and the launch of new economic reforms after Deng Xiaoping's 1992 southern tour. The book drawing on a large corpus of texts and a wide range of individual positions demonstrates how Chinese intellectuals having to face the combination of political repression and economic liberalisation conceptualised and reacted to both. The book reveals the scale and complexity of the debate the nature of intellectual life in China the status and relevance of intellectual voices in society the divisions within the intellectual sphere as well as shared concepts and ideals and how the key factors of political repression and economic liberalisation which remain central in China today were defined and articulated. Global Modernity Arif Dirlik, 2015-11-17. A compelling essay on the contemporary human condition. William D Coleman Director of the Institute on Globalization and the Human Condition McMaster University. An unusually perceptive and balanced appraisal of the globalization hype and its relation to the reality of global capitalism.

Immanuel Wallerstein Yale University In his provocative new book Arif Dirlik argues that the present represents not the beginning of globalization but its end We are instead in a new era in the unfolding of capitalism global modernity The fall of communism in the 1980s generated culturally informed counter claims to modernity Globalization has fragmented our understanding of what is modern Dirlik s global modernity is a concept that enables us to distinguish the present from its Eurocentric past while recognizing the crucial importance of that past in shaping the present Chinese Visions of Family and State, 1915-1953 Susan L. Glosser,2003-02-12 In this book Susan Glosser examines how the link between family order and national salvation affected state building and explores its lasting consequences Writing the Nation Stefan Berger,2007-07-12 This book brings together experts on national history writing from all five continents to discuss the role of history in the making of national identities in a transnational and comparative way The institutionalization and professionalisation of history writing is analysed in the context of history s increasing nationalization The Intellectual Foundations of Chinese Modernity Edmund S. K. Fung,2010-03-22 In the early twentieth century China was on the brink of change Different ideologies those of radicalism conservatism liberalism and social democracy were much debated in political and intellectual circles Whereas previous works have analyzed these trends in isolation Edmund S K Fung shows how they related to one another and how intellectuals in China engaged according to their cultural and political persuasions The author argues that it is this interrelatedness and interplay between different schools of thought that are central to the understanding of Chinese modernity for many of the debates that began in the Republican era still resonate in China today The book charts the development of these ideologies and explores the work and influence of the intellectuals who were associated with them In its challenge to previous scholarship and the breadth of its approach the book makes a major contribution to the study of Chinese political philosophy and intellectual history Modernisation of Chinese Culture Jana S. Rošker,Nataša Vampelj Suhadolnik,2014-09-26 The editors are grateful to the Chiang Ching kuo Foundation for its generous support of their research work which enabled them to publish the present book The present book carefully maps the Chinese modernisation discourse highlighting its relationship to other similar discourses and situating it within historical and theoretical contexts In contrast to the majority of recent discussions of a Chinese development model that tend to focus more on institutional than cultural factors and are more narrowly concerned with economic matters than overall social development the book offers several important focal points for many presently overlooked issues and dilemmas The multifaceted perspectives contained in this anthology are not limited to economic social and ecological issues but also include political and social functions of ideologies and cultural conditioned values representing the axial epistemological grounds of modern Chinese society 2011 was the 100th anniversary of the Xinhai Revolution The centennial is relevant not only in terms of state ideology but also plays a significant role within academic research into Chinese society and culture This historic turning point likewise represents the symbolic and concrete linkages and tensions between tradition and modernity progress and conservatism traditional values and the demands for adjustment to contemporary societies The book shows that Chinese transition from tradition to modernity cannot be understood in a framework of a unified general model of society but rather through a more complex insight into the interrelations among elements of physical environment social structure philosophy history and culture      The Buddha Party John Powers,2017 The Buddha Party tells the story of how the People's Republic of China employs propaganda to define Tibetan Buddhist belief and sway opinion within the country and abroad The narrative they create is at odds with historical facts and deliberately misleading but John Powers argues it is widely believed by Han Chinese Most of China's leaders appear to deeply believe the official line regarding Tibet which resonates with Han notions of themselves as China's most advanced nationality and as a benevolent race that liberates and culturally uplifts minority peoples This in turn profoundly affects how the leadership interacts with their counterparts in other countries Powers's study focuses in particular on the government's patriotic education campaign an initiative that forces monks and nuns to participate in propaganda sessions and repeat official dogma Powers contextualizes this within a larger campaign to transform China's religions into patriotic systems that endorse Communist Party policies This book offers a powerful comprehensive examination of this ongoing phenomenon how it works and how Tibetans resist it      China's Revolutions in the Modern World Rebecca E. Karl,2020-01-28 China's emergence as a twenty first century global economic cultural and political power is often presented as a story of what Chinese leader Xi Jinping calls the nation's great rejuvenation a story narrated as the return of China to its rightful place at the center of the world In China's Revolutions in the Modern World historian Rebecca E Karl argues that China's contemporary emergence is best seen not as a return but rather as the product of revolutionary and counter revolutionary activity and imaginings From the Taipings in the mid nineteenth century through nationalist anti imperialist cultural and socialist revolutions to today's capitalist inflected Communist State modern China has been made in intellectual dissonance and class struggle in mass democratic movements and global war in socialism and anti socialism in repression and conflict by multiple generations of Chinese people mobilized to seize history and make the future in their own name Through China's successive revolutions the contours of our contemporary world have taken shape This brief interpretive history shows how      Modern Tyrants Daniel Chirot,1996-05-05 Chirot offers a study of modern tyrants revealing the forces which allow them to come to power and predicting where they may arise in the future      Critical Han Studies Thomas Mullaney,James Patrick Leibold,Stéphane Gros,Eric Armand Vanden Bussche,2012-02-15 Constituting over ninety percent of China's population Han is not only the largest ethnonational group in that country but also one of the largest categories of human identity in world history In this pathbreaking volume a multidisciplinary group of scholars examine this ambiguous identity one that shares features with but cannot be subsumed under existing notions of ethnicity culture race nationality and civilization      Politics of the 'Other' in India and China Lion Koenig,Bidisha Chaudhuri,2016-02-22 The social sciences have been heavily influenced by modernization theory focusing on issues of economic growth political development and social change in order to develop a predictive model of linear progress for developing countries following a Western prototype Under this hegemonic paradigm of development the world tends to get divided into simplistic binary oppositions between the West and the rest us and them and self and other Proposing to shift the discussion on what constitutes the Other as opposed to the Self from philosophy and cultural studies to the social sciences this book explores how the structural asymmetries existing between Western discourses and the realities of the non Western world manifest themselves in the ideas institutions and socio political practices of India and China and in how far they shape the social scientist s understanding of their discipline in general It provides a counter narrative by revealing the relativity of geographies and by showing that the conventional presentation of core elements of the Asian socio political set up as aberrations from the Western models fails to acknowledge their inherent strategic character of adapting Western concepts to meet local requirements Drawing on multiple disciplines concepts and contexts in India and China the book makes a valuable contribution to the theory and practice of politics as well as to International and Asian Studies     Chinese Dialectics

Chenshan Tian,2005-01-01 The history of Chinese Marxist thought is intimately intertwined with ancient autochthonous philosophical texts In Chinese Dialectics the complete intellectual history of Chinese Marxism is laid bare     Rethinking China in the 1950s

Mechthild Leutner,2007 The articles in this issue deal with various aspects of the on going re evaluation and reconsideration of the far reaching political economic and ideological transformation of China in the 1950s exploring the broader themes in various subfields and from different perspectives There is a special focus on specific developments in the early 1950s on land reform and the significance of this for the political consolidation of the new People s Republic on state violence and mass crimes on the state discourse on housewives and housework on the establishment of Chinese as a foreign language at Peking University from the perspective of an eye witness Two studies deal with developments in the field of historiography the first analyses the discussions of Chinese intellectuals in the late 1950s who were seeking to establish historical legitimacy the second highlights recent debates among historians and intellectuals who have been creating new master narratives and have been involved in pluralistic terms in newly constructing the history of the 1950s especially with regard to the Great Leap Forward and the 1957 Anti Rightist Movement     Handbook of Ancient Afro-Eurasian Economies

Sitta Reden,2019-12-02 The notion of the Silk Road that the German geographer Ferdinand von Richthofen invented in the 19th century has lost attraction to scholars in light of large amounts of new evidence and new approaches The handbook suggests new conceptual and methodological tools for researching ancient economic exchange in a global perspective with a strong focus on recent debates on the nature of pre modern empires The interdisciplinary team of Chinese Indian and Graeco Roman historians archaeologists and anthropologists that has written this handbook compares different forms of economic development in agrarian and steppe regions in a period of accelerated empire formation during 300 BCE and 300 CE It investigates inter imperial zones and networks of exchange which were crucial for ancient Eurasian connections Volume I provides a comparative history of the most important empires forming in Northern Africa Europe and Asia between 300 BCE and 300 CE It surveys a wide range of evidence that can be brought to bear on economic development in the these empires and takes stock of the ways academic traditions have shaped different understandings of economic and imperial development as well as Silk Road exchange in Russia China India and Western Graeco Roman history
