Revolutionary Love in Eighteenth- and Early Nineteenth-Century France Allan H. Pasco, 2016-12-05 In this innovative study the author carves out a new field a sociology of literature in which he offers insightful commentary about the nexus of literature and society Calling on history sociology and psychology as well as literature as points of reference Allan Pasco examines the conceptual shift in the ideal of love in eighteenth century France Pasco explores the radical though gradual changes that occurred during the Enlightenment with respect to how the emotion of love was viewed Earlier love had been subordinate to the demands of family king and deity passion was dangerous and to be avoided But over time individual happiness became the greatest good and passion the measure of love Authors as diverse as Marivaux Marmontel Rousseau Baculard d Arnaud Pigault Lebrun and Madame de Sta l make it clear that the ideal of rapturous love did not live up to its billing it did not last and it brought destructive fantasies an epidemic of disease the scourge of divorce and considerable anguish Still as Pasco points out passion became and remained the ideal and the Romantics were left to plumb its nature Feminism's Empire Carolyn J. Eichner,2022-06-15

Feminism's Empire investigates the complex relationships between imperialisms and feminisms in the late nineteenth century and demonstrates the challenge of conceptualizing pro imperialist and anti imperialist as binary positions By intellectually and spatially tracing the era's first French feminists engagement with empire Carolyn J Eichner explores how feminists opposed yet employed approaches to empire in writing speaking and publishing In differing ways they ultimately tied forms of imperialism to gender liberation Among the era's first anti imperialists French feminists were enmeshed in the hierarchies and epistemologies of empire They likened their gender based marginalization to imperialist oppressions Imperialism and colonialism's gendered and sexualized racial hierarchies established categories of inclusion and exclusion that rested in both universalism and ideas of nature that presented colonized people with theoretical yet impossible paths to integration Feminists faced similar barriers to full incorporation due to the gendered contradictions inherent in universalism The system presumed citizenship to be male and thus positioned women as outsiders Feminism's Empire connects this critical struggle to hierarchical power shifts in racial and national status that created uneasy linkages between French feminists and imperial authorities Women of Liberty Steve J. Shone,2019-10-01 Steve Shone's Women of Liberty explores the many overlaps between ten radical feminist and anarchist thinkers Tennie C Claflin Noe It Louise Michel Rose Pesotta Margaret Sanger Elizabeth Cady Stanton Mollie Steimer Lois Waisbrooker Mercy Otis Warren and Victoria C Woodhull In an age of great and understandable dissatisfaction with governments around the world Shone illuminates both the lost wisdom of the anarchists and the considerable contribution of women to intellectual thought influences that are currently missing from many classes documenting the history of political theory British Women's Life Writing, 1760-1840 A. Culley,2014-07-22 British Women's Life Writing 1760 1840 brings together for the first time a wide range of print and manuscript sources to demonstrate women's innovative approach to self representation It examines canonical writers such as Mary Wollstonecraft Mary Robinson and Helen Maria Williams amongst others Women's Life Writing, 1700-1850 D. Cook,A. Traveling to Unknown Places Lloyd S. Kramer,2024-09-24 Traveling to Unknown Places presents a compelling incisive analysis of how French and American writers reshaped their personal and collective identities as they traveled in foreign countries after the social upheavals of the eighteenth century Atlantic revolutions Delving into the experiences of renowned figures like Flora Tristan and Margaret Fuller alongside lesser known postrevolutionary travelers this book illuminates how cross cultural encounters pushed writers to redefine their views of nationality language race slavery gender religion science and political ideologies Lloyd Kramer deftly demonstrates how unsettling journeys challenged cultural preconceptions and fostered introspective writings that transcended geographical boundaries By interweaving the perspectives of women and men whose travels led them far beyond their youthful social origins Kramer unveils a rich tapestry of evolving selfhood ambition and political consciousness across the Atlantic world Each traveler s experience was unique but long journeys connected all these nineteenth century writers with others who had traveled before and trips into unknown distant cultures also carried travelers toward previously unknown places within themselves

In the Footsteps of Flora Tristan Máire Cross,2020 The book offers a new approach to biography by interlocking the legacy of Flora Tristan 1803 1844 with the life of Jules Puech 1879 1957 through his recovery and loss of her papers crucial for showing her political activism It is an intergenerational history of feminism socialism and pacifism

Reassessing the Transnational Turn Constance Bantman, Bert Altena, 2014-12-05 This edited volume reassesses the ongoing transnational turn in anarchist and syndicalist studies a field where the interest in cross border connections has generated much innovative literature in the last decade It presents and extends up to date research into several dynamic historiographic fields and especially the history of the anarchist and syndicalist movements and the notions of transnational militancy and informal political networks Whilst restating the relevance of transnational approaches especially in connection with the concepts of personal networks and mediators the book underlines the importance of other scales of analysis in capturing the complexities of anarchist militancy due to both their centrality as a theme of reflection for militants and their role as a level of organization Especially crucial is the national level which is often overlooked due to the internationalism which was so central to anarchist ideology And yet as several chapters highlight anarchist discourses on the nation as opposed to the state patriotism and even race were more nuanced than is usually assumed The local and individual levels are also shown to be essential in anarchist militancy
