Medicine Man Among The Zaramo Of Dar Es Salaam:

The Medicine Man Among the Zaramo of Dar Es Salaam Lloyd W. Swantz, 1990 As an urban anthropologist pastor and teacher the author has lived for many years among the Zaramo This revised doctoral thesis is an important and well documented study of the traditional healers in the urban setting

Taifa James R. Brennan, 2012-05-29 Taifa is a story of African intellectual agency but it is also an account of how nation and race emerged out of the legal social and economic histories in one major city Dar es Salaam Nation and race both translatable as taifa in Swahili were not simply universal ideas brought to Africa by European colonizers as previous studies assume They were instead categories crafted by local African thinkers to make sense of deep inequalities particularly those between local Africans and Indian immigrants Taifa shows how nation and race became the key political categories to guide colonial and postcolonial life in this African city Using deeply researched archival and oral evidence Taifa transforms our understanding of urban history and shows how concerns about access to credit and housing became intertwined with changing conceptions of nation and nationhood Taifa gives equal attention to both Indians and Africans in doing so it demonstrates the significance of political and economic connections between coastal East Africa and India during the era of British colonialism and illustrates how the project of racial nationalism largely severed these connections by the 1970s

Between Five Lines Helena Jerman, 1997 Transactions of the Finnish Anthropological Society No 38 The research area of this study was once the focal point of colonial penetration in East Africa The author traces the evolution of ethnicity from the 15th century until the post colonial period She argues that ethnic group identification is used as a self referent People s perception of the present is a reflection of the colonial practice of dividing people into tribes Yet villagers in the Bagamoyo District stress commonality another dimension of ethnic consciousness

Custodians of the Land Gregory H. Maddox, James L. Giblin, Isaria N. Kimambo, 1996-04-15 Farming and pastoral societies inhabit ever changing environments This relationship between environment and rural culture politics and economy in Tanzania is the subject of this volume which will be valuable in reopening debates on Tanzanian history In his conclusion Isaria N Kimambo a founding father of Tanzanian history reflects on the efforts of successive historians to strike a balance between external causes of change and local initiative in their interpretations of Tanzanian history He shows that nationalist and Marxist historians of Tanzanian history understandably preoccupied through the first quarter century of the country s post colonial history with the impact of imperialism and capitalism on East Africa tended to overlook the initiatives taken by rural societies to transform themselves Yet there is good reason for historians to think about the causes of change and innovation in the rural communities of Tanzania because farming and pastoral people have constantly changed as they adjusted to shifting environmental conditions

Ngoma John M. Janzen, 1992-10-21 Ngoma in Bantu means drum song performance and healing cult or association A widespread form of ritual healing in Central and Southern Africa ngoma is fully investigated here for the first time and interpreted in a contemporary context John Janzen s daring study incorporates drumming and spirit possession into a broader institutional profile that emphasizes the varieties of knowledge and social forms and also the common elements of doing ngoma Drawing on his recent field research in Kinshasa Dar es Salaam Mbabane and Capetown Janzen reveals how ngoma transcends national and social boundaries Spoken and sung discourses about affliction extended counseling reorientation of the self or household and the creation of networks that link the afflicted their kin and their healers are all central to ngoma and familiar to Western self help institutions as well Students of African healing and also those interested in the comparative and historical study of medicine religion and music will find Ngoma a valuable and thought provoking book The Professionalisation of African Medicine Murray Last, G. L.

Chavunduka, 2018-09-03 Originally published in 1986 this book draws upon a range of authors to reflect wide interest in systematising traditional medicine and to include material on significant instances of regulation or organisation It was the first book to study the efforts of traditional healers and their newly formed professional associations and as such constitutes a pioneering collection of sources Because of the changing position of traditional medicine it may well also be a unique record before long what is described here will largely have disappeared Holy Water and Evil Spirits Katharina Wilkens, 2011

In Tanzania the Marian Faith Healing Ministry offers Catholic healing rituals under the patronage of the Virgin Mary Exorcism and a special water service are central to the healing process People bring physical spiritual and social afflictions before the group's leader Felicien Nkwera Combining the perspectives of the study of religions and medical anthropology this book analyzes Nkwera's pastoral texts and the personal healing narratives of the members Thus a complex image of the healing process is created and framed within its Tanzanian interreligious context and its global conservative Catholic context Series Beitrage zur Afrikaforschung Vol 47 "Verheft Uw Stemmen en Doodt Uw Dieren G. C. Van De Bruinhorst, 2007

This research analyses how groups of people in Tanga discursively construct Islam by animal slaughter Central to the project are the sometimes conflicting tendencies of grounding ritual practice in authoritative texts and constructing ethnic social and religious identity through ritual practices The discourse on and the practice of daily animal slaughter at the abattoir sacrifice as part of the annual hajj the slaughter of sheep after the birth or death of a child and the Swahili New Year sacrifice all reproduce assumptions of what Islam and Islamic behaviour should be Priests, Witches and Power Maia

Green, 2003-03-06 In the aftermath of colonial mission Christianity has come to have widespread acceptance in Southern Tanzania In this book Maia Green explores contemporary Catholic practice in a rural community of Southern Tanzania Setting the adoption of Christianity and the suppression of witchcraft in a historical context she suggests that power relations established during the colonial period continue to hold between both popular Christianity and orthodoxy and local populations and indigenous clergy Paradoxically while local practices around the constitution of kinship and personhood remain defiantly free of Christian elements they inform a popular Christianity experienced as a system of substances and practices This book offers a challenge to idealist and interpretative accounts of African participation in twentieth century

religious forms and argues for a politically grounded analysis of historical processes It will appeal widely to scholars and students of anthropology sociology and African Studies particularly those interested in religion and kinship Street Archives and City Life Emily Callaci,2017-10-24 In Street Archives and City Life Emily Callaci maps a new terrain of political and cultural production in mid to late twentieth century Tanzanian urban landscapes While the postcolonial Tanzanian ruling party TANU adopted a policy of rural socialism known as Ujamaa between 1967 and 1985 an influx of youth migrants to the city of Dar es Salaam generated innovative forms of urbanism through the production and circulation of what Callaci calls street archives These urban intellectuals neither supported nor contested the ruling party's anti city philosophy rather they navigated the complexities of inhabiting unplanned African cities during economic crisis and social transformation through various forms of popular texts that included women's Christian advice literature newspaper columns self published pulp fiction novellas and song lyrics Through these textual networks Callaci shows how youth migrants and urban intellectuals in Dar es Salaam fashioned a collective ethos of postcolonial African citizenship This spirit ushered in a revolution rooted in the city and its networks an urban revolution that arose in spite of the nation state's pro rural ideology Tanzania Jannik Boesen,1986 Research papers development policy economic and social development failures Tanzania population growth economic recession manufacturing agriculture farming economic policy erosion control fuelwood macroeconomics agricultural mechanization green revolution rural women small scale industry handicrafts water supply health service ILO mentioned Graphs maps references statistical tables Beyond Bodies Todd Sanders,2008-01-01 Beyond Bodies examines the Ihanzu sensibilities about gender through a fine grained ethnography of rainmaking rites African Seminars Various Authors,2021-02-25 Originally published between 1986 and 1989 the 8 volumes in this set reflect the research and debate surrounding many issues for the African economy society and culture and as such make a vital contribution to effective development both rural and urban They re issue key titles from the International African Library and the International African Seminars and address themes of direct relevance to contemporary Africa on topics as diverse as medicine migration housing pastoralism and marriage Feminist Perspectives on Sustainable Development Wendy Harcourt,1994 This collection captures the vitality and urgency of feminists responses to the environment and development debate The authors researchers activists and policy makers from North and South offer new ways of challenging the present dominating knowledge systems and development institutions and discuss the difficulties women face on the margins of the development process Contributions on resource management power knowledge production culture development institutions and politics health and economics show how gender relations are not simply a footnote to our understanding of history and societies but must be central to the development discourse In so doing they suggest that diversity itself is necessary to the creation of new paradigms of development that are built upon gender equity secure livelihoods ecological sustainability and political participation Developing a National Mental Health Policy Lynne Friedli,Rachel Jenkins,Andrew McCulloch,Camilla

Parker,2005-07-22 Designed to support those involved in developing locally appropriate mental health policies emphasising the role of primary care NGOs the social sector schools and workplaces and the criminal justice system Between Resistance and Expansion Peter Probst,Gerd Spittler,2004 This book grew from an International Symposium on Local Vitality and the Globalization of the Local at Bayreuth University in May 2002 The SAGE Handbook of Action Research Peter Reason,Hilary Bradbury,2013-03-26 For anyone seeking to create meaning out of life inspire others with publication of research discoveries and insights and help the world become a better place within which to live and work action research holds great promise as an approach The challenge is to do it well and with rigor The Handbook is a magnificent collection of articles that will help the reader do all of that Richard E Boyatzis Case Western Reserve University and ESADE This second volume will be a welcome extension of the landmark first volume of the SAGE Handbook of Action Research It effectively secures the field s second wave in a particularly powerful and creative articulation of well theorised practice It could not be more timely for a fast growing field that has attracted recent appreciation from parties as disparate as Shell 3M Australian Aboriginal women in outback Australia working to prevent harm to children and the Secretary General of the UN Yoland Wadsworth For anyone thinking about or doing action research this book is an obligatory point of reference If any one text both maps the action research paradigm and at the same time moves it on this is it Bill Cooke Manchester Business School Building on the strength of the seminal first edition the The SAGE Handbook of Action Research has been completely updated to bring chapters in line with the latest qualitative and quantitative approaches in this field of social inquiry Peter Reason and Hilary Bradbury have introduced new part commentaries that draw links between different contributions and show their interrelations Throughout the contributing authors really engage with the pragmatics of doing action research and demonstrate how this can be a rich and rewarding reflective practice They tackle questions of how to integrate knowledge with action how to collaborate with co researchers in the field and how to present the necessarily messy components in a coherent fashion The organization of the volume reflects the many different issues and levels of analysis represented This volume is an essential resource for scholars and professionals engaged in social and political inquiry organizational research and education Emergence of African Capitalism John Iliffe,2015-12-31 Dar es Salaam. Histories from an Emerging African Metropolis James R. Brennan,Andrew Burton,Yusufu Qwaray Lawi,2007 From its modest beginnings in the 1860s Dar es Salaam has grown to become one of Africa s most important urban centres A major political economic and cultural hub the city has also acted as a crucible of local social and cultural innovation exerting a powerful influence on wider Tanzanian society Reflecting important contemporary socio economic trends of urban Africa it has recently attracted the attention of a diverse range of scholars from several disciplines This collection draws on the best of this scholarship Book Jacket A Politics of Presence Peter Pels,2013-12-16 Christian missions in Africa are commonly viewed as a blatant example of ethnocentrism This stereotype partly exists because the day to day interaction between missionaries and Africans has so rarely been studied This book shows how Africans and missionaries co produced a Catholic Church in the Uluguru mountains of Eastern Tanzania in the late colonial period thereby adapting each others routines in the fields of initiation education magic and religion It explores how the presence of the mission resulted in a rift between spiritual and worldly magic and in the underdevelopment of the capacity of Waluguru to manage their own practices of revelation
