Her Neighbor's Wife Lauren Jae Gutterman, 2019-10-04 At first glance Barbara Kalish fit the stereotype of a 1950s wife and mother Married at eighteen Barbara lived with her husband and two daughters in a California suburb where she was president of the Parent Teacher Association At a PTA training conference in San Francisco Barbara met Pearl another PTA president who also had two children and happened to live only a few blocks away from her To Barbara Pearl was the most gorgeous woman in the world and the two began an affair that lasted over a decade Through interviews diaries memoirs and letters Her Neighbor's Wife traces the stories of hundreds of women like Barbara Kalish who struggled to balance marriage and same sex desire in the postwar United States In doing so Lauren Jae Gutterman draws our attention away from the postwar landscape of urban gay bars and into the homes of married women who tended to engage in affairs with wives and mothers they met in the context of their daily lives through work at church or in their neighborhoods In the late 1960s and 1970s the lesbian feminist movement and the no fault divorce revolution transformed the lives of wives who desired women Women could now choose to divorce their husbands in order to lead openly lesbian or bisexual lives increasingly however these women were confronted by hostile state discrimination typically in legal battles over child custody Well into the 1980s many women remained ambivalent about divorce and resistant to labeling themselves as lesbian therefore complicating a simple interpretation of their lives and relationship choices By revealing the extent to which marriage has historically permitted space for wives relationships with other women Her Neighbor's Wife calls into question the presumed straightness of traditional American marriage

marriage has historically permitted space for wives relationships with other women Her Neighbor's Wife calls into question the presumed straightness of traditional American marriage Thy Neighbor's Wife Eva Fischer-Dixon,2013-12-06 Calvin Stonebridge was a brilliant financial adviser and surprisingly a loner Rumors had it that he didn't like women but in real life it was the contrary He never considered marrying especially to an American woman until he met Sonia There was only one problem Calvin met Sonia at her engagement party to his colleague and friend Steven The idea to make Sonia his wife becomes his calm but firm obsession as since they first met she had become of the center of Calvin's universe the center of his ignited desire to have her and her only One thing unknown to anyone who knew him what Calvin wanted Calvin got as long as it did not get in the way of playing with his toys Calvin Stonebridge's secret life was bound to come to light and justice was lurking around the corner but only if he couldn't avoid Many tried and many failed in their attempt to find out about Calvin Stonebridge's secret world if indeed it existed His remarkable talent to camouflage his actions made everyone involved question is there anyone capable to bring the Delta Force's fearless former soldier to his knees Maybe one person could and that person makes Calvin wonder about his future if there is any Thy Neighbor's Wife Linn Boyd Porter,1892
