Long-Term Care in the 21st Century Iris

Chi, 2013-08-27 Who pays for long term care Discover the unique approaches of seven countries around the Pacific Rim Long Term Care in the Twenty First Century discusses policies and programs for long term care in seven countries around the Asia Pacific Rim the United States Canada Japan Australia Singapore Hong Kong and Taiwan Each country is covered in two chapters one to examine the philosophy and values that underlie its approaches to long term care the second to discuss its systems of service delivery These thoughtful analyses backed up with facts and figures explain program successes and failures in the context of demographic and social trends and with reference to the differing political systems across the region Its breadth of perspective and insightful examination of cultural differences make Long Term Care in the Twenty First Century an important contribution to the international comparative study of aging The programs in the United States Australia and Canada offer a fascinating contrast with the longer established and very different programs in the Asian countries including Japan the world s oldest country Long Term Care in the Twenty First Century provides practical information on essential gerontological issues for each country including financing arrangements development of client classification systems case management in both residential and community based systems key source documents references and Web sites political and cultural influences home based and family caregiving This valuable book provides a critical record of developments in the current transition period This multicultural perspective contributes a chance for all countries to learn from the experience of others in dealing with a problem that is increasingly important as the world population ages Long Term Care in the Twenty First Century is an essential resource for scholars service providers policymakers and anyone concerned with care of the aged not only in Pacific Rim countries but around the world Caring for the Elderly in Japan and the US Susan Orpett Long, 2013-01-11 In an era of changing demographics and values this volume provides a cross national and interdisciplinary perspective on the question of who cares for and about the elderly The contributors reflect on research studies experimental programmes and personal experience in Japan and the United States to explicitly compare how policies practices and interpretations of elder care are evolving at the turn of the century Aging and Demographic Change in Canadian Context David J. Cheal, Professor of Department of Sociology David Cheal, 2002-01-01 Contributors question whether an aging society is necessarily inferior or problematic compared with the recent past cautioning that exaggerated concerns about population aging can be harmful to rational policy making Technology for Adaptive Aging National Research Council, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Board on Behavioral, Cognitive, and Sensory Sciences, Steering Committee for the Workshop on Technology for Adaptive Aging, 2004-04-25 Emerging and currently available technologies offer great promise for helping older adults even those without serious disabilities to live healthy comfortable and productive lives What technologies offer the most potential benefit What challenges must be overcome what problems must be solved for this promise to be fulfilled How can federal agencies like the National Institute on Aging best use their resources to support the translation from laboratory findings to useful marketable products and services Technology for Adaptive Aging is the product of a workshop that brought together distinguished experts in aging research and in technology to discuss applications of technology to communication education and learning employment health living environments and transportation for older adults It includes all of the workshop papers and the report of the committee that organized the workshop The committee report synthesizes and evaluates the points made in the workshop papers and recommends priorities for federal support of translational research in technology for older adults Welfare States and the Future B. Vivekanandan,N. Kurian,2005-01-06 This volume presents a thought provoking analysis of key welfare state issues engaging policy makers across the globe It provides a unique and comprehensive evaluation of the state of welfare states developed and developing It maps the diversity of welfare regimes across the world and brings to fore the particularities and nuances that characterise them The book also focuses on the on going reforms and makes a powerful case for the increased relevance of the welfare state in a globalizing era Historical Dictionary of Postwar Japan William D. Hoover,2011-03-18 The Historical Dictionary of Postwar Japan relates the history of postwar Japan through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on significant persons events places organizations Career Women in Contemporary Japan Anne Stefanie Aronsson,2014-10-24 Since Japan s economic recession began in the 1990s the female workforce has experienced revolutionary changes as greater numbers of women have sought to establish careers Employment trends indicate that increasingly white collar professional women are succeeding in breaking through the glass ceiling as digital technologies blur and redefine work in spatial gendered and ideological terms This book examines what motivates Japanese women to pursue professional careers in the contemporary neoliberal economy and how they reconfigure notions of selfhood while doing so It analyses how professional women contest conventional notions of femininity in contemporary Japan and in turn negotiate new gender roles and cultural assumptions about women whilst reorganizing the Japanese workplace and wider socio economic relationships Further the book explores how professional women create new social identities through the mutual conditioning of structure and self and asks how women come to understand their experiences how their actions change the gendering of the workforce and how their lives shape the economic political social and cultural landscapes of this post industrial nation Based on extensive fieldwork Career Women in Contemporary Japan will have broad appeal across a range of disciplines including Japanese culture and society gender and family studies women s studies anthropology ethnology and sociology A Cultural History of Postwar Japan Oliviero Frattolillo,2023-07-14 This book is a political and cultural history of the early postwar Japan aiming at exploring how the perception and cultural values of everyday life in the country changed along with the rise of the kasutori culture Such a process was closely tied with both a refusal of the samurai culture and the interwar debate on modernity and it resulted in a decadent way of life exemplified by intellectuals such as Sakaguchi Ango It depicts a short lived radical cultural and social alternative one that forced people to rethink their relationship to the kokutai modernity social roles daily practices and the production of knowledge The subjectivity and daily practices in those years were more important in shaping the cultural identities of the Japanese than the new public ideology of the nation This challenges some Euro American historical notions that the new private sphere has emerged in Japan as an effect of the country s Americanization rather than from within it This work not only looks at the immediate aftermath of WWII from the perspective of Japan but also tries to rethink Westernization in the light of its global appropriation This volume is addressed to specialists of Japanese or Asian history but it will also attract historians of the United States and readers from political and intellectual history cultural studies and historiography in general

Older People in Natural Disasters Junko Ôtani,2010 Japan s Great Hanshin Earthquake of 1995 destroyed the homes livelihoods and communities of many elderly people Some of the most vulnerable survivors spent up to five years in temporary shelters before settling into publicly subsidized apartments or dispersing into the general population Public scrutiny of the post earthquake recovery drew attention to the challenges of community generation and the loneliness isolation and death experienced by elderly earthquake victims Bringing together quantitative and qualitative analysis of media discourse public policy and ethnographic fieldwork this book examines the earthquake s long term effects of temporary shelters and public reconstruction housing for elderly residents The first study to utilize NVivo qualitative research software in a Japanese research context this is an original contribution to natural disaster literature as well as health and welfare policy in societies that like Japan are undergoing rapid urbanization and population aging

Factors that Affect Implementation of the Health and Welfare Plan for the Elderly in Japan Noriko Tsukada,1997

Bibliographic Guide to East Asian Studies 1996 G K HALL,G. K. Hall and Co. Staff,1997-07

The Cultural Context of Aging Jay Sokolovsky,1997 This volume uses the concept of culture to explore the parameters of aging and being old in a worldwide context thus providing a true cross cultural and qualitative approach to social gerontology. Containing both specific case studies and broader analytical articles, this revised and expanded second edition focuses on the multitude of cultural solutions societies have available for dealing with the challenges, problems, and opportunities of growing old. Composed almost exclusively of specially commissioned articles, the text is organized around six topical areas which cover the major concerns of cross cultural social gerontology. Each section is preceded by an introduction providing a framework for the chapters and highlighting key related issues. Also included are state of the art resource guides including Internet sites, special student resources, data sets, and annotated bibliographies of related readings. The authors come from the fields of anthropology, sociology, gerontology, social work, psychology, psychiatry, and nursing. Through explorations of the experiences of real people, the contributors illuminate how elders actually live in such places as U.S. urban ethnic enclaves, rural Kenya, a South Seas island, urban China, or a New York City women's shelter. Dealing directly with key practical issues relevant to those seeking to pursue a career in the aging field, this volume covers policy implications of demographic aging, culture and successful aging, culture and caregiving, gender and aging, grandparenthood, and the crisis in urban families, informal social support, homelessness, and aging, nursing homes, and pet therapy, assisted suicide, and death hastening behavior, the aging woman and widowhood, rural aging, self-help groups, and the cultural response to Alzheimer's disease. This essential text allows students to understand fully how culture can dictate what may appear to be natural responses to elders and aging.
