1 Corinthians J. Ayodeji Adewuya, 2019-04-09 New Testament scholars have widely recognized and acknowledged the occasional nature of Paul's first canonical letter to the Corinthians In the letter Paul addresses real problems that were faced by real people in a real world This commentary shows how the church in the twenty first century mirrors the Corinthian Church in many ways It goes further to show how the church in the present day particularly its leaders could benefit from how Paul addressed the situations that the church faced Patrick Navas, 2006-10-01 In Divine Truth or Human Tradition the author examines the viewpoints and Scripture expositions of prominent evangelical scholars and apologists including popular author and debater Dr James R White author of The Forgotten Trinity John MacArthur President of The Master's Seminary Wayne Grudem author of the widely read Systematic Theology Robert Bowman Jr author of Why You Should Believe in the Trinity Robert Morey Founder of California Biblical University and Seminary and author of The Trinity Evidence and Issues R C Sproul President of Ligonier Ministries Robert L Reymond author of Jesus Divine Messiah and A New Systematic Theology of the Christian Faith and others According to what has long been considered mainstream Christian orthodoxy the doctrine of the Trinity the idea that the one true God is in the ultimate sense a divine being made up of three co equal and co eternal persons is not only central to the Christian faith but absolutely necessary for one to accept in order to be counted as a true Christian and be saved Such a demand on a Christian's faith has come across as strange and perplexing to many especially so in light of the fact pointed out by one respected Trinitarian The Trinity is not clearly or explicitly taught anywhere in Scripture yet it is widely regarded as a central doctrine indispensable to the Christian faith In this regard it goes contrary to what is virtually an axiom that is a given a self evident truth of biblical doctrine namely that there is a direct correlation between the scriptural clarity of a doctrine and its cruciality to the faith and life of the church Millard J Erickson God in Three Persons p 11 Emphasis added Understandably this fact has raised questions in the minds of Christians and truth seekers alike ever since the doctrine was first decreed as mandatory to confess in the late 4th century Many Christians have wondered How can a doctrine that is no

The Social God and the Relational Self Stanley J. Grenz, 2001-01-01 In this the first of a six volume contribution to systematic theology Grenz creatively extends the insights of contemporary Trinitarian thought to theological anthropology

The Social God and the Relational Self is an example of theological construction as an ongoing conversation involving biblical texts the theological heritage of the Christian tradition and the contemporary historical social context 2 Corinthians V. George Shillington,1998-04-10 V George Shillington sees this letter as Paul s personal testimony about his ministry of reconciliation among the Corinthian Christians chapters 1 9 and his ministry in defending the truth of the gospel chapters 10 13 The thread that ties the two parts together is Paul s conviction on pastoral ministry under the banner of Christ Paul insists that ministry is to be borne in affliction like that of Christ crucified In raising the crucified Messiah out of the old creation God has inaugurated a new creation in which believers already participate The only boast allowed is in the Lord not in one s own achievements or elevated experiences The Disciple Investing Apostle Rod Culbertson,2018-08-02 When we think of the ministry of discipleship or what I call disciple investing we often conclude that the focus of discipleship involves one individual intentionally helping only one other individual often called one to one ministry We think we have to choose one person to whom we must give our attention However as we observe the Apostle Paul s ministry the reality is that he devotes time and effort with all sorts of people both individuals and groups people whom he meets in various contexts The Apostle Paul willingly and actively invests in multiple relationships as seemingly he is open to most anyone the Lord sends his way And Paul goes out of his way both to lead others to Christ as well as to deepen believers in their walks with Christ The Disciple Investing Apostle Paul s Ministry of Relationships provides an overview of the many and varied relationships that the Apostle Paul develops as he helps others grow in Christ In the book you will meet the people Paul meets and you also will watch him build meaningful disciple investing relationships with these friends And in doing so you may learn some lessons for your personal ministry with others as well
