

PULSE OF THE HEARTLAND

Grasslands store carbon, cycle nutrients and sustain songbirds and other wildlife—but less than half of all grasslands remain, and we plow up millions more acres each year.

Pulse Of The Heartland:

Examination of problems affecting the farm community United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry, 1988 Geopolitical Traditions David Atkinson, Klaus Dodds, 2002-09-26

Condemned as an intellectual poison by the late American geographer Richard Hartshorn, geopolitics has confounded its critics. Today it remains a popular and important intellectual field despite the persistent allegations that geopolitics helped to legitimate Hitler's policies of spatial expansionism and the domination of place. Using insights from critical geopolitics and cultural history, the contributors focus on how geopolitics has been created, negotiated, and contested within a variety of intellectual and popular contexts. Geopolitical Traditions argues that geopolitics has to take responsibility for the past whilst at the same time reconceptualising geopolitics in a manner which accounts for the dramatic changes in the late twentieth century. The book is divided into three sections: firstly, Re-thinking Geopolitical Histories concentrates on how geopolitical conversations between European scholars and the wider world unfolded; secondly, Geopolitics, Nation and Spirituality considers how geopolitical writings have been strongly influenced by religions, iconography, and doctrine, with examples drawn from Catholicism, Judaism, and Hinduism; and thirdly, Reclaiming and Refocusing Geopolitics contemplates how geopolitics has been reformulated in the post-war period with illustrations from France and the United States. Geopolitical Traditions brings together scholars working in a variety of disciplines and locations in order to explore a hundred years of geopolitical thought.

Updating the Literary West, 1997. Western writers, says Thomas J. Lyon in his epilogue to Updating the Literary West, have grown up with the frontier myth but now find themselves in the early stages of creating a new western myth. The editors of the Literary History of the American West (TCU Press, 1987) hoped that the first volume would begin, not conclude, their exploration of the West's literary heritage. Out of this hope comes Updating the Literary West, a comprehensive reference anthology including essays by over one hundred scholars. A selected bibliography is included with each piece. In the ten years since publication of LHAW, western writing has developed a significantly larger presence in the national literary stream. A variety of cultural viewpoints have developed along with new tactics for literary study. New authors have risen to prominence and the range of subjects has changed and widened. Updating the Literary West looks at topics ranging from western classics to cowboys and Cadillacs and considers children's literature, ethnicity, environmental writing, gender issues, and other topics in which change has been rapid since publication of LHAW. This volume again affirms the West's literary legitimacy, status hard-earned by the Western Literary Association, and the lasting place of popular western writing as part of the growing and changing literary and American experience. An excellent reference for a wide range of readers and an invaluable resource for scholars and libraries.

Tilman Baumgärtel, 2012-01-01 The rise of independent cinema in Southeast Asia following the emergence of a new generation of filmmakers there is among the most significant recent developments in global cinema The advent of affordable and easy access to digital technology has empowered startling new voices from a part of the world rarely heard or seen in international film circles The appearance of fresh sharply alternative and often very personal voices has had a tremendous impact on local film production This book documents these developments as a genuine outcome of the democratization and liberalization of film production Contributions from respected scholars interviews with filmmakers personal accounts and primary sources by important directors and screenwriters collectively provide readers with a lively account of dynamic film developments in Southeast Asia Interviewees include Lav Diaz Amir Muhammad Apichatpong Weerasethakul Eric Khoo Nia Dinata and others Tilman Baumgärtel taught film and media studies in Germany Austria and the Philippines before joining Royal University of Phnom Penh in 2009 He has curated international film series and art exhibitions and has also published books on independent cinema Internet art computer games and the German director Harun Farocki His blog can be found at <http://southeastasiancinema.wordpress.com> The Oxford Handbook of Midwestern History Jon Lauck, 2025 The Midwest region holds a pivotal place in the tapestry of American history The Oxford Handbook of Midwestern History delves into this rich heritage with chapters on topics ranging from the early Native American and French Midwest to the impact of the Northwest Ordinance and the Great Lakes the emergence of Midwest regional consciousness after the Civil War and the role of the Midwest's natural resources in the region's economic success and later decline It presents the newest research on race ethnicity culture politics and economic development It also considers the role of religion organized labor the presence of a diverse population of Germans Irish Dutch and Latinos and the influence of sports nostalgia populism and isolationism This handbook moves beyond the examination of traditional topics in Midwestern history to provide significant attention to matters such as architecture literary realism visual culture and constitutionalism This treatment of Midwestern history marks a major turn towards the history of the American interior In many ways The Oxford Handbook of Midwestern History marks the coming of age of what scholars and commentators are calling the New Midwestern History Tahoe Sallie B. Morgan,1881 A novel set in Lake Tahoe San Francisco Sacramento and Yosemite about a prosperous Southern family who have moved into Northern California and brought Southern charm beautiful daughters servants racism and numerous adventures with them Bookdealer s description Lyrical Iowa ,2000 Children, Families and Communities: Creating and Sustaining Integrated Services Pat Broadhead,Chrissy Meleady,Marco Delgado,2007-12-16 I would highly recommend this book There is a depth of insight here rarely accessible in parallel literature It provides an honest critical and authentic challenge to the emergent literature in areas of inter professional working integrated children s services and family support Children and Society This book draws on the work of Sheffield Children s Centre a well known community cooperative which is recognized worldwide for its cutting edge approach and models of good practice that have emerged from community participation Gaining an insight into the work of the Centre contributes to a better understanding of the challenges issues difficulties and opportunities which confront integrated services for children and families The authors illustrate how through working closely with the local community and through hearing the voices of children and adults service provision for children and families can meet needs and change lives The book Looks at the alternative approach of Sheffield Children s Centre where multi professional working has grown through common principles and aspirations rather than through policy imperative and legislation Details innovative practices and approaches to holistic work with children and families Explores the challenges and celebrations of working with a wide range of children families and communities both in the UK and internationally It has particular resonance with the multi professional agendas now required by Every Child Matters and the Children Act 2004 and is groundbreaking in terms of re thinking support for communities perceived to be in difficulty in fostering community cohesion and promoting active participation in community regeneration from a childcare perspective working from grassroots upwards Children Families and Communities is ideal for researchers policy makers practitioners and students training to work with children and families from a range of disciplines such as education health and social services including those pursuing the NPQICL National Professional Qualification for Integrated Centre Leadership qualification and the EYPs Early Years Professional Status Age of Pi and Prose Venkatesh Rangan,2022-11-12 Between 476 CE and 505 CE three heroic makers of history from India laid the seeds of a massive transformation in human society the effects of which we still feel today Budhagupta Vikramaditya the heroic warrior emperor unified a polarized and disintegrating country defeated the world conquering armies of the Huns appointed mentors to the Nan Qi emperors of Southern China and paved the way for organized state formation in Tibet He organized a series of mega conferences that powered a transformative intellectual ferment Two products of the intellectual ferment of these years were the child prodigy

Aryabhata and the literary giant Subandhu In the wider realm of world politics and society the effects of events of these three decades in India laid the foundation for some of the most defining moments of civilizational history These moments included the unification of the Korean peninsula in the 7th cent the consolidation of imperial control by the Soga clan in Japan the transformation of Chinese polity a redefinition of Sassanian kingship in Persia and an intellectual revolution in late medieval Europe This book is a non fiction narrative of this incredible yet rare story of three Indians who in a short span of thirty years created a whole new world
