Indian Books in Print ,2003 India Migration Report 2017 S.

Irudaya Rajan,2018-01-02 The India Migration Report 2017 examines forced migration caused by political conflicts climate change disasters natural and man made and development projects India accounts for large numbers of internally displaced people in the world Apart from conflicts and disasters over the years development projects including urban redevelopment and beautification often justified as serving the interests of the people and for public good have caused massive displacements in different parts of the country disrupting the lives and livelihoods of millions of people The interdisciplinary essays presented here combine a rich mix of research methods and include in depth case studies on aspects of development induced displacement affecting diverse groups such as peasants religious and ethnic minorities the poor in urban and rural areas and women leading to their exclusion and marginalization The struggles and protests movements of the displaced groups across regions and their outcomes are also assessed This volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of development studies economics sociology and social anthropology and migration studies Development in Multiple Dimensions Alexander Lee,2019-02-01 Why do some states provide infrastructure and social services to their citizens and others do not In Development in Multiple Dimensions Alexander Lee examines the origins of success and failure in the public services of developing countries Comparing states within India this study examines how elites either control or are shut out of policy decisions and how the interests of these elites influence public policy He shows that social inequalities are not single but multiple creating groups of competing elites with divergent policy interests Since the power of these elites varies states do not necessarily focus on the same priorities some focus on infrastructure others on social services and still others on both or neither The author develops his ideas through quantitative comparisons and case studies focusing on four northern Indian states Gujarat West Bengal Bihar and Himachal Pradesh each of which represents different types of political economy and has a different set of powerful caste groups The evidence indicates that regional variation in India is a consequence of social differences and the impact of these differences on carefully considered distributional strategies rather than differences in ideology geography or institutions Ambedkar's Vision of Economic Development for India Gummadi Sridevi,2020-07-10 This book discusses Ambedkar s engagements with the issues of social justice economic development and caste enclosures It highlights his significant contributions in the field of trade public finance and monetary economics Indian agriculture education among others and examines their relevance in contemporary India The volume analyses the basic theoretical conceptions in Ambedkar s writings which attributed a key role to industrialisation favoured economic planning and progressive labour laws It reaffirms these theories and illustrates that focus on social and economic democracy promotes productivity equitable distribution of wealth and an inclusive society Through an analysis of Ambedkar s interdisciplinary works the book discusses issues of rural poverty lagging infrastructure growth the persistence of an exploitative ruling class and the economic and social marginalisation of the downtrodden which are still relevant today Further it offers solutions for a restructuring of the society under democratic principles which would recognise the basic right of all to social dignity and devise means to insure against social and economic insecurity Insightful and authoritative this volume will be of great interest to students and researchers of economics sociology development studies and social exclusion Managing Rural Finances in India Gursharan Singh Kainth,2010 Punjab 2000 Mohinder Singh,2001 Chronology of events from January 1 1999 December 31 1999 Spatial Diversity and Dynamics in Resources and Urban Development Ashok K. Dutt,Allen G. Noble, Frank J. Costa, Sudhir K. Thakur, Rajiv Thakur, Hari S. Sharma, 2015-10-15 This double volume work focuses on socio demographics and the use of such data to support strategic resource management and planning initiatives Papers go beyond explanations of methods technique and traditional applications to explore new intersections in the dynamic relationship between the utilization and management of resources and urban development International authors explore numerous experiences characteristics of development and decision making influences from across Asia and Southeast Asia as well as recounting examples from America and Africa Papers propound techniques and methods used in geographical research such as support vector machines socio economic correlates and travel behaviour analysis In this volume the contributions examine issues such as natural resource and environmental management livelihoods issues in the context of climate change land markets and land trusts adaptive management of wildlife sanctuaries ground water scarcity flood hazards and flood plain management non conventional energy resources community forestry and management and land use and land cover change The significance of these topics lie in the pace and volume of change as is reflected through continued development within established fields of inquiry and the introduction of significantly new approaches during the last decade Readers are invited to consider the dynamics of spatial expansion of urban areas and economic development and to explore conceptual discussion of the innovations in and challenges on urbanization processes urban spaces themselves and both resource management and environmental management Together the two volumes contribute to the interdisciplinary literature on regional resources and urban development by collating recent research with geography at its core Scholars of urban geography human geography urbanism and sustainable development will be particularly interested in this book
