Music for Children with Hearing Loss Lyn E. Schraer-Joiner,2014 Music for Children With Hearing Loss A Resource for Parents and Teachers is a comprehensive and hands on guide to working with deaf and hard of hearing children within and outside of the music classroom balancing a technical overview of hearing loss with relevant music lessons teaching practices resources and research promoting musical experiences for children who are deaf and hard of hearing Frank Leslie's Sunday Magazine ,1886 Includes music Children, Dogs and Education Mary Renck Jalongo,2018-05-08 This book brings together authoritative information about the child dog bond as it is manifested with family dogs visiting therapy dogs and service dogs trained to assist children with disabilities Despite the widely accepted view that participating in a dog s care and interacting with dogs in behaviorally healthy ways is a route to becoming responsible and compassionate research on this complex dynamic is difficult to design time consuming to collect and challenging to analyze This volume synthesizes theory research and practice bringing all to bear upon child dog interactions in homes schools libraries and the community at large Children Dogs and Education serves as a handbook for a diverse group of adults who seek to build positive relationships between children and dogs parents families professional dog trainers teachers librarians mental health professionals health care professionals and university faculty The study of interactions between human and nonhuman animals has captured the imagination of an international community of researchers from many different fields and professions Even though dogs are ubiquitous in the lives of most children studies of children s interactions with dogs in families and communities are lacking Most of the previous research on the human canine bond has focused on adolescents and adults or even when younger children are the focus it has tended to rely on parents to speak for children There are three features of this book that make it unique First it goes beyond exploring the child dog bond to examine additional important issues including children s concepts of responsible care their ability to interpret dogs behavioral cues and their ideas about canine behavioral issues training Second unlike most other work to date it represents children s voices through cases interviews and drawings Finally the contributors to this edited work use their collective wisdom to draw educational implications and suggest direction in preparing the next generation of dog guardians American Sign Language is more than just an assortment of gestures. It is a full fledged unique language with all the characteristics of such. This helpful and user friendly guide for librarians and other library personnel involved in library programming demonstrates everything from how to set up programming involving sign language for all ages to dealing with and paying interpreters. The book also discusses how to publicize programs to the public and within the deaf community and how to evaluate and improve the library's sign language collection. Kathy MacMillan's impressive understanding and knowledge of the deaf community and the importance of sign language, as well as her exceptional handling of the numerous erroneous myths about deafness and sign language that are unfortunately still often current, make this handbook an indispensable tool for all library personnel looking to reach out to the deaf and hard of hearing community.

Victorian

Theatricals Sara Hudston, 2014-01-03 A captivating study of the plays, literature and writings about private and public theatrical spectacle during the Victorian Age. By the 1890s the British theatre had transformed itself into a world where spectacles and public shows were aimed at the widest audience possible. The theatre had become big business. This anthology brings together a variety of plays and prose which sets this phenomenon in perspective and traces the development of Victorian theatricals from private home events in the late Georgian period to full scale Gilbert and Sullivan operettas in the 1890s. The section Theatrical Behaviour looks at the world of the audience and includes extracts from Jane Austen's novel Mansfield Park, Thackeray's Vanity Fair, an anonymous playlet called Acting Proverbs and an extract from Marie Corelli's novel Sorrows of Satan. In Fun and Freaks we explore the world of popular sensationalist entertainment through the eyes of Dickens, Thomas Hardy, Dion Boucicault and others. In the final section Society we have the scripts for four principal melodramas and serious plays of the age: The Factory Lad by John Walker, Society by T. W. Robertson, The Mikado by W. S. Gilbert and The Second Mrs Tanqueray by Arthur Wing Pinero.
