Victorian Theatricals Sara Hudson, 2014-01-03 A captivating study of the plays literature and writings about private and public theatrical spectacle during the Victorian Age By the 1890s the British theatre had transformed itself into a world where spectacles and public shows were aimed at the widest audience possible The theatre had become big business This anthology brings together a variety of plays and prose which sets this phenomenon in perspective and traces the development of Victorian theatricals from private home events in the late Georgian period to full scale Gilbert and Sullivan operettas in the 1890s The section Theatrical Behaviour looks at the world of the audience and includes extracts from Jane Austen's novel Mansfield Park Thackeray's Vanity Fair an anonymous playlet called Acting Proverbs and an extract from Marie Corelli's novel Sorrows of Satan In Fun and Freaks we explore the world of popular sensationalist entertainment through the eyes of Dickens Thomas Hardy Dion Boucicault and others In the final section Society we have the scripts for four principal melodramas and serious plays of the age The Factory Lad by John Walker Society by T W Robertson The Mikado by W S Gilbert and The Second Mrs Tanqueray by Arthur Wing Pinero

The Victorian Era in Twenty-First Century Children's and Adolescent Literature and Culture Sonya Sawyer Fritz, Sara K. Day, 2018-01-19 Victorian literature for audiences of all ages provides a broad foundation upon which to explore complex and evolving ideas about young people In turn this collection argues contemporary works for young people that draw on Victorian literature and culture ultimately reflect our own disruptions and upheavals particularly as they relate to child and adolescent readers and our experiences of them The essays therein suggest that we struggle now as the Victorians did then to assert a cohesive understanding of young readers and that this lack of cohesion is a result of or a parallel to the disruptions taking place on a larger even global scale

Victorian Murders Arthur Griffiths, 2010-03-23 Victorian Murders contains all the most shocking cases of murder from Victorian true crime classic Mysteries of Police Crime The author Major Arthur Griffiths 1838-1908 was Inspector of Her Majesty's Prisons and deputy governor of Millbank and Wormwood Scrubs and was most famous for his association with the Whitechapel case He knew many of the greatest detectives of the day and as a result was the first to describe in print the three men Kosminski Ostrog and Druitt that the police suspected of being Jack the Ripper This fascinating volume also includes every other case of note in the annals of Victorian crime From Elizabeth Brownrigg who whipped her domestic into an early grave to the horrific tale of Henry Wainwright who attempted to transport the dismembered body of his lover across London it is not for the faint of heart Richly illustrated including early sketches by Arthur Rackham and filled with countless tales of poisoners sadists serial killers and cases that have never been solved this is a book that no true crime fan should be without

Sounding 1 BEFORE 1840 The notes journals and characters of Aboriginal Protectors William Thomas and his Chief George Robinson form the backbone of this compilation With this ethnographic material we learn something of the Kulin worldview into this mostly white fella history Sounding 1 Before 1840 describes the initial British and European experiences events observations intentions self serving judgements ignorance naivete treachery and so on when they found Oz and proclaimed the continent theirs by the now obvious fiction of terra nullius Latin legalese for land belonging to no people The reader may enjoy separating the grains of truth from the chaff propaganda of Empire capitalism or racist sectarian Christian bible dogma that was the self serving mindset of the white land takers Batman and Fawcner's land hunting deals with local Koori's along with the re emergence of the remarkable wild white castaway Buckley made their mark on the first settlement at Melbourne The focus widens in 1836 with Surveyor General Major Mitchell's and his Wuradjuri guides conquering the interior from the Murray near Mildura to the Western District at Portland and then back north east across the state to the Murray upstream at Albury His wheel tracks opened up Victoria from the north First contact race interactions at Port Phillip and the notion of cultural coexistence during the first five years leads to the role of successful battler and publican Fawcner in the colonial invasion process from Kulin country to sheep run to city Sounding 1 then winds up with Melbourne's first executions and descriptions of Port Phillip as the money melting pot forming the Melbourne hub of world capitalism Twentieth century academic studies now identify native religion language zones tribal locations and clan heads at the time of dispossession by pirate capitalism In describing the Australian land rush the chapter echoes oscillate between history sociology race theory trade and class wars whaling and sealing imperialism and the monopoly East India Company army mates all pitted against the vanishing race of hunter gathering savages The dispossession was virtually complete in Victoria before the 1850's gold rushes transformed the sheep runs into banker's dividend wealth for the winners

Sounding 2 DISPOSSESSION AT MELBOURNE Sounding 2 unfolds gently with a wistful early Melbourne memoir involving Batman's lost lawyer Gellibrand in 1836 but then we confront the frontier kill or be killed point of necessity The violent life times and fate of mass murderer Fred Taylor who was first employed as overseer for banker Swanston's Bellarine peninsula land grab sets the local dispossession tone Taylor's repeated atrocities today exposes a credibility gap in Oz between civilized progress and slaughter that now looms over all else in Victoria's birth as an independent state in 1851 The winter of 1837 saw the first violent death of a white squatter and his servant by savage natives north west of Williamstown at Mt Cotterell Town leaders such as Fawcner and police chief Henry Batman formed a posse that also included clan heads from both the Melbourne and Geelong tribal areas Buckley refused to take part in the vigilante party and its punitive actions belied the humanitarian standards expressed in Batman's treaty deed This revenge slaughter and destruction of villages by the white invaders forced the Sydney government to investigate and so began administering law and order at Port Phillip By 1838

Sydney trumped Batman's land grab and the penal government of NSW on the one hand executing eight whites for killing what the newspapers called savages while on the other hand providing sufficient speedy cavalry to tackle black resistance in Victoria at places such as west of Colac and near Benalla after the Faithfull massacre. The arrival in 1839 of first governor La Trobe and the Aboriginal Protectorate plan then unfolds the development of town civic structures while tribal life disintegrates. Government and private measures to tame the naked Melbourne natives culminated with the dawn Merri Creek round up in October 1840 of hundreds of Kulin by Major Lettsom's redcoats and townsmen. This appears as the death blow to tribal life and with the first shiploads of migrating British colonists arriving in 1841 near genocide for the Kulin, Mara Kurnai and Murray River first peoples. Victorian Poetry Clarence Edward Andrews, Milton Oswin Percival, 1924
