Pure Language Of The Heart Sentimentalism In The Netherlands 1775-1800:

The Pure Language of the Heart Annemieke Meijer, 1998 This is the first book length study of Sentimentalism in the Netherlands Taking for its starting point the polemic between Rhijnvis Feith the champion of the Dutch Sentimental vogue and his chief opponent Willem Emmery de Perponcher a polemic that lasted from 1786 to 1789 the author places the Dutch debate over Sentimentalism in a wider socio cultural context The Dutch had their own version of Sentimentalism Its specific nature and the themes that were touched upon in the debate which it evoked are here described and analysed against the European background of English Sensibility and German Empfindsamkeit The Pure Language of the Heart also discusses authors such as Elisabeth Maria Post and Jacob Eduard de Witte It traces the vocabulary of eighteenth century Dutch sentimental discourse and contains an extensive bibliography of contemporary material relating to the Sentimental

Oriental Prospects ,2022-07-04 A great deal of stimulating and valuable discussion as well as some indignation and hot air has been stimulated by Edward Said whose provocative study of Orientalism Western Conceptions of the Orient appeared twenty years ago This present book will we believe be recognized as a worthy addition to the many attempts that have since been made to sift the intrinsic and ingrained attitudes of West to East The fifteen articles in Oriental Prospects Western Literature and the Lure of the East cover literature from the Renaissance through the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries to the modern period some in pragmatic accounts of responses to and uses of experiences of the Orient and its cultural attitudes and artefacts others contending more theoretically with issues that Edward Said has raised Despite all the misunderstanding prejudice and propaganda in the scholarly and literary depiction of the Orient still today as in the past what emerges from this wide range of articles is that no species of literary text or academic study can appear without risking the accusation of escapist exoticism or cultural and economic exploitation and thus regrettably masking the essential and vital significance of the political and the real and imaginative trading between East and West Preaching, Sermon and Cultural Change in the Long Eighteenth Century Joris van Eijnatten, 2009-01-31 The fourth volume in Brill's series A New History of the Sermon this study examines the sermon during the long eighteenth century the era between Bossuet and Schleiermacher It offers a broad outline of the history of preaching in this period an overview of the research over the past three decades and suggestions for new approaches to the subject Thematically the book includes chapters on such topics as the theology of the eighteenth century sermon preachers instructions the sermon in daily life delivery as a means of reaching congregations and audience reception of preaching It also pays ample attention to the three important religious and intellectual currents of the long eighteenth century Neo classicism Pietism and the Enlightenment Contributors are Alexander Bitzel Fran oise Deconinck Brossard O C Edwards Joris van Eijnatten Sabine Holtz Pasi Ihalainen Herman Roodenburg Jonathan Strom and Thomas Worcester The Cambridge History of European Romantic Literature Patrick Vincent, 2023-11-09 This wide ranging new history of European Romantic Literature presents a pan European phenomenon which transcended national borders and contributed to a new sense of European cultural identity across the continent Conceived in the same spirit as Madame de Sta l s cultural and political agenda at a time when her generous idea of Europe is being challenged on all sides the volume pays close attention to the period s circulation of people ideas and texts It proposes to rethink the period comparatively focusing on various forms of cultural mediation and transfer and on productive tensions synchronicities and interactions within and across borders Organized chronologically its twenty chapters address over five hundred works proposing a coherent historical narrative without completely erasing individual nations specificities By showcasing in particular the place of Britain within continental culture the volume hopes to reactivate critical examinations of Romanticism from a historicised European perspective

Trials of the self Elwin Hofman,2021-04-27 This highly original study brings together the disparate histories of murder and enlightenment prostitution and the cult of nature sodomy and sentimentalism in order to retell the story of the making of the modern self It suggests that the history of the self needs to attend more to its class dimensions and puts this insight into practice by examining the influence of the criminal courts in spreading and negotiating changing ideas of the self Using criminal interrogations and witness statements Trials of the self shows that an increasing stress on psychological depth in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries was not only important for elites but also for common and illiterate people sometimes even more so

Sea-Changes Cornelis W. Schoneveld,2023-11-20 These ten studies provide a view of the extent to which intellectual and literary life in Holland has been influenced by English ideas The book concludes with an overview of Anglo Dutch cultural transfer from the early seventeenth century to the late nineteenth century concentrating on what between Sir Thomas Browne s stay in Leiden in 1633 and L A J Burgersdijk s complete translation of Shakespeare in the 1880s was transmitted what sea changes occurred during the voyage and in how far these resulted in something rich and strange The emphasis in some of the essays is on intellectual or scholarly contacts with Holland mostly on the receiving end but by no means exclusively so In the field of literature proper given the continuing prestige of French letters there lies a special interest in watching the gradually increasing appreciation of English non fiction fiction poetry and drama This was brought about by translations and by the growing familiarity of Dutch cultural leaders with the English language itself in spite of long standing aversions to its composition and sound continuing far into the nineteenth century The analysis of translation strategies and adaptations often made to suit the target culture also contributes to the history of translation a branch of Translation Studies now coming into its own

Passionate Views Carl Plantinga, Greg M. Smith, 1999-04-23 The movie theater has always been a place where people come together to share powerful emotional experiences from the fear generated by horror films and the anxiety induced by thrillers to the laughter elicited by screwball comedies and the tears precipitated by melodramas Indeed the dependability of movies to provide such experiences lies at the center of the medium's appeal and power Yet cinema's ability to influence even manipulate the emotions of the spectator is one of the least explored topics in film theory today In Passionate Views thirteen internationally recognized scholars of film studies philosophy and psychology explore the emotional appeal of the cinema Employing a novel cognitive perspective the volume investigates the relationship between genre and emotion explores how film narrative music and cinematic techniques such as the close up are used to elicit emotion and examines the spectator's identification with and response to film characters An impressive range of films and topics is brought together by Carl Plantinga and Greg M Smith including the success of Stella Dallas and An Affair to Remember as tearjerkers the power of Night of the Living Dead to inspire fear and disgust the sublime evoked in The Passion of Joan of Arc Aguirre the Wrath of God and The Children of Paradise the emotional basis of film comedy as seen in When Harry Met Sally the use of cinematic cues in Raiders of the Lost Ark and Local Hero to arouse emotions the relationship between narrative flow and emotion in Once Upon a Time in the West and E.T. the emotive use of music in The Elephant Man and A Clockwork Orange Stranger than Paradise's sense of timing desire and resolution in Casablanca audience identification with the main characters in Groundhog Day and The Crying Game portrayal of perversity in The Silence of the Lambs Flaming Creatures and Shivers and empathy elicited through closeups of actors' faces in Yankee Doodle Dandy and Blade Runner Passionate Views offers a new approach to our understanding of film and will be of interest to anyone fascinated by the emotional power of motion pictures and their relationship to the central concerns of our lives as well as by the techniques filmmakers use to move an audience

Beyond Pug's Tour, 2022-06-08 At a time when the world Europe especially is once more threatened by murderous conflicts between groups of people claiming ethnic and national identity as a basis for sovereignty over specific territories it is timely to consider the part that literature has played and is playing in the creation of ethnic and national stereotypes What role do such stereotypes have in literature How are they created From what materials are they constructed What purpose do ethnic and national stereotypes serve Can it ever be a useful one Are they avoidable Can we live without them What can be done about the deleterious effects they may be thought to produce Stereotyping is worldwide is there a tribe race and nation in existence which escapes being stereotyped by its neighbours In what sense are these stereotypes accurate How are these stereotypes reflected in and reinforced by literature Should and can literature do anything about them In Beyond Pugs Tour National and Ethnic Stereotyping in Theory and Literary Practice literary scholars as well as academics engaged in sociological and psychological research consider these and other questions by examining the work of specific authors and the circumstances in which stereotyping plays such a crucial part The Reception of Laurence Sterne in Europe Peter de Voogd, John

Entwisted Tongues George Lang, 2023-12-18 Cultural creolization, m(t)issage, hybridity and the in-between spaces of postcolonial thought are now fundamental terms of reference within contemporary critical thought Entwisted Tongues explores the sociohistorical and cultural basis for writing in creole languages from a comparative framework The rise of self-defining literatures in Atlantic creoles offers parallels with the development of national literatures elsewhere but the status of creole languages imposes particular conditions for literary creation After an introduction to the history of the term creole Entwisted Tongues surveys the history of the languages which are its focus the Crioulo of Cape Verde Sierra Leone Krio Surinamese Sranan Papiamentu spoken in the Netherlands Antilles and the varieties of French-based Kreyol in the Caribbean The chapter Deep Speech turns around a trope ubiquitous in creoles, one conveying the sense that their authentic registers are at the furthest remove from the high cultures with which they are in contact Diglossic Dilemma explores the contradictions inherent in this trope The remaining analysis explores numerous nooks and crannies of these marginal but fascinating literatures, submitting that creoles and literature in them are prima facie evidence of the human will to articulate speech and verbal art even in the face of slavery, oppression and penury The Final Curtain Harry Garlick, 2023-11-20

Death is the one subject about which our culture is still reticent Consequently many ceremonies about death are not examined in an open, enquiring and direct way The state funeral, that large public ritualized statement about death, is accepted in our society while its deeper significances remain unexamined because it is seen as something of an historical curiosity, a survival from an earlier age associated with the traditions of that society This well-illustrated study of a number of state funerals of the Medicis and the Habsburgs in the Renaissance of the Duke of Albemarle in the seventeenth century of the Duke of Wellington and Abraham Lincoln in the nineteenth century and of President Kennedy and Diana, Princess of Wales in the twentieth century and the mythical structures and traditions they represent examines two aspects in particular: the strongly political undertones of the public statements and the theatrical elements of the public ritual States of
