Israel in Egypt: The Land of Egypt as Concept and Reality for Jews in Antiquity and the Early Medieval Period, 2020-10-26 In Israel in Egypt scholars in different fields explore what can be known of the experiences of the many and varied Jewish communities in Egypt from biblical sources to the medieval world For generations of Jews from antiquity to the medieval period the land of Egypt represented both a place of danger to their communal religious identity and also a haven with opportunities for prosperity and growth A volume of collected essays from scholars in fields ranging from biblical studies and classics to papyrology and archaeology Israel in Egypt explores what can be known of the experiences of the many and varied Jewish communities in Egypt from biblical sources to the medieval world China's Agricultural Investment in Australia Michaela Boehme, 2024-10-25 This book critically examines the driving forces discourses and conflicts surrounding Chinese investments in overseas farmland with a specific focus on Australia With growing amounts of finance channeled into the purchase of overseas food and farming assets China has become a frontrunner in the global land rush Unlike much of the existing literature that focuses on emerging economies such as Brazil or Africa this book examines Chinese farmland purchases in the developed country context of Australia Based on four years of extensive field work in Australia and China it traces the encounters and interactions between investors regulators deal brokers farmers and eaters that shape the ways in which individual Chinese investment projects materialize in the Australian countryside In contrast to conventional wisdom portraying China s overseas land rush as a state led strategy to feed the Chinese population this book reveals that Chinese investments in Australian farmland have been propelled by the intersecting interests of international finance and business elites looking to cash in on booming Chinese demand for high quality Western food products This book provides a unique transnational perspective on China s overseas farmland purchases and shows how Chinese farmland investments produce uneven geographies of agri food globalization that cut across national borders Through the lens of

China's agri engagement in Australia this book advances our theoretical understanding of the new types of power relations and dynamics shaping an increasingly multi polar agri food system This book will be useful to students and scholars of agri food studies Chinese studies and globalization with an interest in the global land rush and the shifting contours of the global agri food system

Modernist Aesthetics in Taiwanese Poetry since the 1950s Chung-to Au, 2008-05-31 Much of the previous scholarship on Taiwanese modernist poetry easily falls into ideological arguments This book participates in the development of an alternative approach to understanding Taiwanese modernist poetry Dr Au's approach emphasizes the diversity and intensity of experiences of place and placelessness in the work of five poets Lomen Luo Fu Rong Zi Yu Guangzhong and Zheng Chouyu The phenomenon of placelessness is a problem in all modernity and so modern aesthetics is an outgrowth of modern society's sense of placelessness This book not only shows how place becomes placelessness but also analyses Taiwanese modernist poets responses to the phenomenon of placelessness Four kinds of places are examined namely the house the city homeland and an imagined literary community in this work The result is both refreshing and original
