Islam and Ideology in the Emerging Indonesian State: The Persatuan Islam (Persis), 1923 to 1957 Howard Federspiel,2001-06-11 The Persatuan Islam Islamic Union was a small group of Indonesian Muslim activists during the period from 1923 1957 Their efforts involved them in the great disputes of the time namely the shape of the emerging Indonesian state as the region broke loose from colonial control and the direction of Islamic discourse in that new nation Deeply ideological these activists called themselves radical revolutionaries Their outlook starting as a manifestation of Islamic Modernism later became a form of Islamic Neo Fundamentalism The views raised by the group were not generally accepted as elites with other outlooks gained control of the nationalist agenda and the direction of the Indonesian Muslim community The story of these activists however tells us much about the context of both Indonesian nationalism and Indonesian Islam as both developed during the first half of the twentieth century

Religion, Politics and Gender in Indonesia Sonja van Wichelen,2010-06-10 The political downfall of the Suharto administration in 1998 marked the end of the New Order in Indonesia a period characterized by 32 years of authoritarian rule It opened the way for democracy but also for the proliferation of political Islam which the New Order had discouraged or banned Many of the issues raised by Muslim groups concerned matters pertaining to gender and the body They triggered heated debates about women s rights female political participation sexuality pornography veiling and polygamy The author argues that public debates on Islam and Gender in contemporary Indonesia only partially concern religion and more often refer to shifting moral conceptions of the masculine and feminine body in its intersection with new class dynamics national identity and global consumerism By approaching the contentious debates from a cultural sociological perspective the book links the theoretical domains of body politics the mediated public sphere and citizenship Placing the issue of gender and Islam in the context of Indonesia the biggest Muslim majority country in the world this book is an important contribution to the existing literature on the topic As such it will be of great interest to scholars of anthropology sociology and gender studies

Christianity, Islam and Nationalism in Indonesia Charles E. Farhadian, 2005-11-17 Although over eighty percent of the country is Muslim Indonesia is marked by an extraordinary diversity in language ancestry culture religion and ways of life This book focuses on the Christian Dani of West Papua providing a social and ethnographic history of the most important indigenous population in the troubled province It presents a fascinating overview of the Dani's conversion to Christianity examining the social religious and political uses to which they have put their new religion Based on independent research carried out over many years among the Dani people the book provides an abundance of new material on religious and political events in West Papua Underlining the heart of Christian Muslim rivalries the book questions the fate of religion in late modern times

A New Day Akinade Akintunde E. (ed.), 2010 The unprecedented resurgence renewal and rebirth of twenty first century Christianity in postcolonial societies such as Asia Africa and Latin America calls for new insights methodologies and paradigms since the West can no longer be regarded as the sole citadel and cradle of the Christian faith The Christian message has been reshaped and reappropriated in different contexts and cultures and through this cross cultural transmission and transformation it has become a world religion Contextualizing the Christian faith also entails decolonizing its theology precepts and dogma These efforts continue to engender new initiatives and efforts in the intercultural interconfessional intercontinental and interreligious dimensions of world Christianity A New Day is a collection of essays in honor of Lamin Sanneh one of the most adamant advocates and apostles of the radical change in the face of Christianity in the twenty first century The essays in this book by recognized scholars deal with issues themes and perspectives that are important for understanding Christianity as a world religious movement

Women Entrepreneurs and Business Empowerment in Muslim Countries Minako Sakai, Amelia Fauzia, 2022-09-26 This book analyzes women entrepreneurs in Muslim countries who are using Islamic values to develop and run small businesses As a core case study the authors are using Indonesia as it is the largest Muslim country in the world by population The project examines supportive policies and economic programs in detail and considers their effects on the businesses of several women entrepreneurs Additionally the authors argue that this work life balance is critical for the definition of a successful female Muslim entrepreneur The monograph considers whether this new phenomenon indicates a change in the conception of ideal Muslim womanhood or whether it is a limited phenomenon with few impacts beyond Indonesia The book will appeal to academic and practitioner audience interested in Islam gender studies Middle Eastern and South Asian politics development anthropology and social policy

Contemporary Developments in Indonesian Islam Martin van Bruinessen, 2013 Once celebrated in the Western media as a shining example of a liberal and tolerant Islam Indonesia since the end of the Soeharto regime May 1998 has witnessed a variety of developments that bespeak a conservative turn in the country's Muslim politics In this timely collection of original essays Martin van Bruinessen our most distinguished senior Western scholar of Indonesian Islam and four leading Indonesian Muslim scholars explore and explain these developments Each chapter examines recent trends from a strategic institutional perch the Council of Indonesian Muslim scholars the reformist Muhammadiyah South Sulawesi's Committee for the Implementation of Islamic Shari'a and radical Islamism in Solo With van Bruinessen's brilliantly synthetic introduction and conclusion these essays shed a bright light on what Indonesian Muslim politics was and where it seems to be going The analysis is complex and by no means uniformly dire For readers interested in Indonesian Muslim politics and for analysts interested in the dialectical interplay of progressive and conservative Islam this book is fascinating and essential reading Robert Hefner Director Institute on Culture Religion and World Affairs Boston University The Encoded Cirebon Mask Laurie Margot Ross, 2016-08-29 In The Encoded Cirebon Mask Materiality Flow and Meaning along Java's Islamic Northwest Coast Laurie Margot Ross situates masks and masked dancing in the Cirebon region of Java Indonesia as an original expression of Islam This is a different view from that of many scholars who argue that canonical prohibitions on fashioning idols and imagery prove that masks are mere relics of indigenous beliefs that Muslim travelers could not eradicate Making use of archives oral histories and the performing objects themselves Ross traces the mask's trajectory from a popular entertainment in Cirebon once a portal of global exchange to a stimulus for establishing a deeper connection to God in late colonial Java and eventual links to nationalism in post independence Indonesia Religion, Conflict and Reconciliation Jerald D. Gort, Henry Jansen, Hendrik M. Vroom, 2002 Religion plays a part in many conflicts in the world But what role Is conflict usually economic and or ethnic at root with religion becoming a part of it only secondarily Or does the very formation of a religious community itself lead to isolation exclusion and conflict Reconciliation often has religious roots through religion people often come to understand that they are part of a greater whole and to realize that they must work at restoring good relationships with others in situations of deep conflict and especially after direct conflict has ended Religion Conflict and Reconciliation Multifaith Ideals and Realities the authors of which represent five religious traditions provides the reader with broad perspectives on the role of religion in conflict and reconciliation with regard to both the actual processes involved and the central insights of the major religious traditions of the world Aligning Religious Law and State Law Muhammad Latif Fauzi, 2023-07-03 In Aligning Religious Law and State Law Negotiating Legal Muslim Marriage in Pasuruan East Java Muhammad Latif Fauzi investigates the extent to which the Indonesian state has regulated Muslim marriage how a local community in Pasuruan East Java practices and negotiates the regulation and how local officials deal with their practices Instead of reforming the Marriage Law which would only stir up controversies the Indonesian government has used a citizens rights approach to control marriage and to guide people towards compliance with the state legal framework In everyday practice of marriage bureaucracy the state agency in charge of Muslim marriage registration needs to maintain its image as a body capable of maintaining the proper balance between religious tradition and modern administration of a marriage The practice of Muslim marriage registration has still left some leeway in which informality can function This informality is important as it offers the capacity to make a compromise between people s deep interest in religious law and state law The state officials in charge of marriage administration on the frontier levels are amenable to adopting lenient approach towards marriage registrations which is the key to securing the functioning of state law
