Purity And Communal Boundaries Women And Social Change In A Bangladeshi Village:

Purity and Communal Boundaries Santi Rozario, 2001 Sexual Purity and Communal Boundaries Santi Rozario, 1988 Women and Domestic Violence in Bangladesh Laila Ashrafun, 2018-04-17 After the independence of Bangladesh in 1971 the country has experienced large scale transformations owing to national and international migration urbanization the development of many national and international non governmental organizations NGOs and economic dynamism Globalization and economic liberalization have created opportunities to develop sustainable social policies by strengthening the national economy of the country Major progress has been made in closing the gender gap and the Constitution of Bangladesh provides equality of status and opportunity to all its citizens irrespective of sex However domestic violence perpetuated against women is a common phenomenon in Bangladesh This book is a study about domestic violence against women in Bangladeshi society It delineates in particular why and how some women become the victims of domestic violence in the changing socio economic setting of Bangladesh The author explores the multiple contexts in which domestic violence occurs by focusing on the everyday experience of women subjected to this violence The book shows how changing socio economic setting urbanization and the growing demand for female labor influences the phenomenon and experience of domestic violence It demonstrates that domestic violence is entangled in a complex web of institutionalized social relations that necessitates a structural and contextual understanding of the production of such violence in family kinship and gender relations Finally it identifies factors that cause perpetuate and mitigate domestic violence or give strength to women to struggle and raise their voices or take shelter in the law against the perpetrators of domestic violence A novel contribution to our understanding of how gender relationships are differently constituted and contested in the everyday lives of Bangladeshi women both in natal and affinal families this book will be of interest to academics in the field of Sociology Gender and Law and South Asian Studies Biomedicine, Healing and Modernity in Rural Bangladesh Md. Faruk Shah, 2019-12-02 This book provides an ethnographic account of the ways in which biomedicine as a part of the modernization of healthcare has been localized and established as the culturally dominant medical system in rural Bangladesh Dr Faruk Shah offers an anthropological critique of biomedicine in rural Bangladesh that explains how the existing social inequalities and disparities in healthcare are intensified by the practices undertaken in biomedical health centres through the healthcare bureaucracy and local gendered politics This work of villagers healthcare practices leads to a fascinating analysis of the local healthcare bureaucracy corruption structural violence commodification of health pharmaceutical promotional strategies and gender discrimination in population control Shah argues that biomedicine has already achieved cultural authority and acceptability at almost all levels of the health sector in Bangladesh However in this system healthcare bureaucracy is shaped by social capital power relations and kin networks and corruption is a central element of daily care practices Reshaping the Holy Elora Shehabuddin, 2008 Through extensive field research Elora Shehabuddin explores the profound implications of women's political and social mobilization for reshaping Islam Specifically she examines the lives of Muslim women in Bangladesh who have become increasingly mobilized by the activities of predominantly secular NGOs yet who desire to retain reclaim and reshape rather than reject their faith In their employment and in their interactions with the legal system the state NGOs and political and religious groups women are changing state practices views of women in the public sphere and the nature of lived Islam itself In contrast to most work on Islam and Muslims which has focused on the Middle East and has privileged the study of religious and legal texts this book redirects our attention to South Asia home to one of the largest Muslim populations in the world and emphasizes the actual experiences of Muslims Women and gender as well as Bangladesh s formally democratic context are central to this inquiry and analysis Women and Labour Organizing in Asia Kaye Broadbent, Michele Ford, 2007-12-21 Providing a full account of the role of women in union activism in Asia covering all the major economies of the region this book successfully challenges the prevailing conception of women workers in Asia as passive and uninterested in industrial issues Women and Politics in Contemporary Japan Emma Dalton, 2015-02-11 This book looks at the gendering of the political system in Japan and the effects of that system on gender equality in national level politics specifically and wider society more generally It examines the approach taken by the long ruling Liberal Democratic Party LDP to issues of gender equality in Japan and the repercussions of that approach on women s political experiences and representation This book covers a range of themes including the role of the LDP and other major political parties in constructing the modern Japanese political system the under representation of women in Japanese politics women s experiences in party politics and the gendering of government policies Using in depth interviews with women members of the national Diet the book sheds light on how political women negotiate the male dominated world of Japanese politics The Women's Movement in Postcolonial Indonesia Elizabeth Martyn, 2004-11-10 This book examines women s activism in the early years of independent Indonesia when new attitudes to gender nationalism citizenship and democratization were forming It questions the meaning of democratization for women and their relationship to national sovereignty within the new Indonesian state and discusses women s organizations and their activities women s social and economic roles and the different cultural regional and ethnic attitudes towards women while showing the failure of political change to fully address women s gender interests and needs The author argues that both the role of nationalism in defining gender identity and the role of gender in defining national identity need equal recognition Voices from the Edge Reazul Haque, 2015 This book carries evidence of the plight and exploitation of floating sex workers in Dhaka Bangladesh The book contains an in depth account of injustices that these workers experience due to lacking agency and it instigates the debate whether prostitution is a form of work or exploitation It examines the effectiveness of various socio economic development programs that improve the socio economic status of these floating sex workers carried out by both national and international development actors Additionally the book looks at policy implications towards ensuring floating sex workers entitlements capabilities and human

Wilce, 2003-10-16 Eloquence in Trouble captures the articulation of several troubled lives in Bangladesh as well as the threats to the very genres of their expression lament in particular The first ethnography of one of the most spoken mother tongues on earth Bangla this study represents a new approach to troubles talk combining the rigor of discourse analysis with the interpretive depth of psychological anthropology Its careful transcriptions of Bangladeshi troubles talk will disturb some readers and move others beyond past academic discussion of personhood in South Asia To Be an Entrepreneur Julia Qermezi Huang, 2020-05-15 In To Be an Entrepreneur Julia Qermezi Huang focuses on Bangladesh s iAgent social enterprise model the set of economic processes that animate the delivery of this model and the implications for women s empowerment The book offers new ethnographic approaches that reincorporate relational economics into the study of social enterprise It details the tactics dilemmas compromises aspirations and unexpected possibilities that digital social enterprise opens up for women entrepreneurs and reveals the implications of policy models promoting women s empowerment the failure of focusing on individual autonomy and independence While describing the historical and incomplete transition of Bangladesh s development models from their roots in a patronage based moral economy to a market based social enterprise arrangement Huang concludes that market driven interventions fail to grasp the sociopolitical and cultural contexts in which poverty and gender inequality are embedded and sustained Perceptions of Self, Power, & Gender Among Muslim Women Sarwar Alam, 2018-02-15 This book analyzes perceptions of self power agency and gender of Muslim women in a rural community of Bangladesh Rural women s limited power and agency has been subsumed within the male dominated Islamic discourses on gender However many Muslim women have their own alternative discourses surrounding power and agency Sarwar Alam intertwines an exploration of these power dynamics with reading of the Qur an and Hadith and analyzes how Muslim women s perception of power and gender are linked to their relationship with religion Growing up Female in Multi-Ethnic Malaysia Cynthia Joseph, 2014-08-21 This book provides a rich detailed analysis of the experiences of young women growing up in post colonial rapidly modernizing Malaysia It considers the impact of ethnicity socio economic status and school experiences and achievement It discusses the effects of Malaysia s ethnic affirmative action programmes and of the country s Islamisation It sets out and compares the life trajectories of Malay Indian and Chinese young women making use of interview and questionnaire data gathered over a long period It thereby depicts individuals transformations as they experience maturing into adulthood against a background of social and economic changes and varying levels of inter racial tension Gender and Diversity: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2018-08-03 Today gender inequality and diversity are at the forefront of discussion as the issue has become an international concern for politicians government agencies social activists and the general public Consequently the need to foster and sustain diversity and inclusiveness in the interactions among various groups of people is relevant today more than ever Gender and Diversity Concepts Methodologies Tools and Applications provides a critical look at gender and modern day discrimination and solutions to creating sustainable diversity across numerous contexts and fields Highlighting a range of topics such as anti discrimination measures workforce diversity and gender inequality this multi volume book is designed for legislators and policy makers practitioners academicians gender studies researchers and graduate level students interested in all aspects of gender and diversity studies Towards a Southern Approach to Sex Work Habiba Sultana,2020-12-29 This book delves into this almost uncharted territory documenting the lived experiences of sex workers in Bangladesh considering the complex realities of their day to day lives and the ways they negotiate their working conditions and relationships Despite being the most common form of female deviance and criminality globally we know very little about sex work in Asia and the global south Drawing on feminist frameworks it shows that the experiences of sex workers vary widely depending on the ways they enter the sex trade their modes of operation and relationships with significant others Towards a Southern Approach to Sex Work contributes to feminist scholarship on sex work by offering a much needed southern perspective drawing on culturally specific data It argues that the lived experience of sex workers comprises both victimhood and agency deception and resilience and that it is the management of these relationships that enable sex workers to avoid social marginalization and alienation An accessible and compelling read this will appeal to students and scholars of criminology sociology gender studies south Asian studies cultural studies social theory and policy makers In addition it will engage all those interested in learning more about how the sex trade operates in Bangladesh Gender, Household and State in Post-Revolutionary Vietnam Jayne Werner,2009-01-21 Examining gender in post revolutionary Vietnam focusing in particular on gender relations in both the family and state since the onset of economic reform in 1986 this book argues that as in the socialist era current gender relations bear the imprint of state gender policies and discourses The Female Client and the Health-care Provider International Development Research Centre (Canada),1995 Female Client and the Health care Provider Young Muslim Women in India Kabita Chakraborty,2015-12-14 This book based on extensive original research details the changing lives of youth living in slum communities bustees in Kolkata formerly Calcutta Using young people s own photos art and narratives the book explores how Muslim girls and young women are contributing to and impacted by changing youth culture in India We are invited into the risky world of mixed sex dance taking place in clandestine spaces in the slums We join young people on their journeys to find premarital romance and witness their strategic and savvy risk taking when participating in transgressive aspects of consumer culture The book reveals how social changes in India including greater education and employment opportunities as well as powerful middle class Muslim reform discourses are impacting youth the very local level More than just fantasy we see that Bollywood is an important role model which young people consult By carefully negotiating risks and performing multiple identities inspired by modernity globalization and most of all Bollywood culture young people actively participate in a changing India and disrupt dominant discourses about slum youth as poor victims who are excluded from social change

The Politics of Maternity Rosemary Mander,Jo Murphy-Lawless,2013-04-12 The evidence surrounding the skills and approaches to support good birth has grown exponentially over the last two decades but so too have the obstacles facing women and midwives who strive to achieve good birth This new book critically explores the complex issues surrounding contemporary childbirth practices in a climate which is ever more medicalised amidst greater insecurity at broad social and political levels The authors offer a rigorous and thought provoking analysis of current clinical managerial and policy making environments and how they have prevented sustaining the kind of progress we need The Politics of Maternity explores the most hopeful developments such as the abundant evidence for one to one care for women and sets these accounts against the background of changes in health service organisation and provision that block these approaches from becoming an everyday occurrence for women giving birth The book sets out the case for renewed attention to the politics of childbirth and what this politics must entail if we are to give birth back to women Designed to help professionals cope with the transition from education to the reality of the system within which they learn and practise this inspiring book will help to assist them to function and care effectively in a changing health care environment

Production Politics and Migrant Labour Regimes Charanpal Singh Bal,2016-09-23 This book emphasizes the importance of production politics or struggles in the workplace between workers and their employers for understanding migrant labour regimes in Asia and the Gulf Drawing from a study of Bangladeshi construction workers in Singapore as well as on comparative material in the region Bal shows that migrant labour politics are significantly influenced by the specific form of production politics as well as their variable outcomes In contrast to contentious politics approaches this book sheds light on the extent to which migrant labour regimes can be contested by workers and civil society groups and explains the recent rise in migrant labour unrest in the region
