Denham,2017-03-07 Helen Kemp Frye 1910 1986 was an accomplished artist and musician and she was also the wife of the distinguished Canadian literary critic Northrop Frye During the 1940s and 1950s she played an important role in art education particularly with the programs at the Art Gallery of Toronto and even more particularly with art education for children Her writings on art collected in this volume give voice to a very creative individual whose contributions to the cultural life of Ontario are in danger of being forgotten Postcolonial Modernism Chika Okeke-Agulu,2015-04-06 Written by one of the foremost scholars of African art and featuring 129 color images Postcolonial Modernism chronicles the emergence of artistic modernism in Nigeria in the heady years surrounding political independence in 1960 before the outbreak of civil war in 1967 Chika Okeke Agulu traces the artistic intellectual and critical networks in several Nigerian cities Zaria is particularly important because it was there at the Nigerian College of Arts Science and Technology that a group of students formed the Art Society and inaugurated postcolonial modernism in Nigeria As Okeke Agulu explains their works show both a deep connection with local artistic traditions and the stylistic sophistication that we have come to associate with twentieth century modernist practices He explores how these young Nigerian artists were inspired by the rhetoric and ideologies of decolonization and nationalism in the early and mid twentieth century and later by advocates of negritude and pan Africanism They translated the experiences of decolonization into a distinctive postcolonial modernism that has continued to inform the work of major Nigerian artists Art and Form Sam Rose,2019-03-25 This important new study reevaluates British art writing and the rise of formalism in the visual arts from 1900 to 1939 Taking Roger Fry as his starting point Sam Rose rethinks how ideas about form influenced modernist culture and the movement's significance to art history today In the context of modernism formalist critics are often thought to be interested in art rather than life a stance exemplified in their support for abstract works that exclude the world outside But through careful attention to early twentieth century connoisseurship aesthetics art education design and art in colonial Nigeria and India Rose builds an expanded account of form based on its engagement with the social world Art and Form thus opens discussions on a range of urgent topics in art writing from its history and the constructions of high and low culture to the idea of global modernism Rose demonstrates the true breadth of formalism and shows how it lends a new richness to thought about art and visual culture in the early to mid twentieth century Accessibly written and analytically sophisticated Art and Form opens exciting new paths of inquiry into the meaning and lasting importance of formalism and its ties to modernism It will be invaluable for scholars and enthusiasts of art history and visual culture The Rotarian ,1936-05 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19
