

The background of the book cover is a photograph of the interior of a large Gothic cathedral. The view is looking down a long nave, with high, ribbed vaulted ceilings and tall, slender columns on either side. At the far end of the nave, there is a large, bright window with multiple panes, through which light is streaming. In the foreground, near the base of the columns, there are several dark, arched niches or doorways.

Reclaiming Faith Essays On Orthodoxy In The Episcopal Church And The Baltimore Declaration:

Reclaiming Faith Ephraim Radner, George R. Sumner, 1993 These essays contributed by a scholarly group of postliberal theologians commend the usefulness of traditional Christian language and doctrine for articulating the gospel today and are pertinent to many mainline Protestant denominations and to the Roman Catholic Church indeed to all churches struggling with current revisionary challenges to traditional doctrine

Richard Hooker and Anglican Moral Theology A. J. Joyce, 2012-02-23 Richard Hooker 1554-1600 is often credited with being the founding father of Anglican moral theology This book is the first major study to examine in depth the extent to which this claim is justified and to evaluate the nature of Hooker's contribution to this aspect of Anglican tradition The study roots Hooker firmly within his own historical context and considers his text principally on its own terms thus it avoids many of the problems that have bedevilled modern Hooker scholarship particularly where attempts have been made to claim him for one particular theological tradition over another or to approach his work primarily with an eye to its continued relevance to contemporary debate within Anglicanism both of which can lead to significant distortions in the way in which Hooker is read and interpreted What emerges amounts to a significant re-evaluation of much of the conventional wisdom about Hooker's place within Anglicanism as well as a range of original insights into the nature content and style of his work and its wider significance

Called Out of Darkness Into Marvelous Light Jeremy Bonner, 2009-01-23 In the conflicted world that is today's Episcopal Church the diocese of Pittsburgh stands both as a symbol of dissent and schism to the liberal majority within the American Church and as a beacon of light and hope to conservative Anglicans across the United States Set in the unlikely surroundings of America's Rust Belt Pittsburgh's Episcopalians have over the past half century undergone a dramatic reordering of priorities to embrace a novel though hardly unprecedented vision of Anglican confessionalism Called out of Darkness into Marvelous Light traces the development of an Anglican presence in western Pennsylvania from the missionary activity of the late eighteenth century through the triumphs of post-Civil War Anglo-Catholicism and the first stirrings of the Social Gospel to the unprecedented religious revival of the 1950s Championed by such men as Bishop Austin Pardue and Samuel Moor Shoemaker the founder of the Pittsburgh Experiment a prayer-centered spirituality developed in the Pittsburgh diocese and brought a generation of active evangelicals to the region during the 1960s and 1970s The founding of Trinity Episcopal School for Ministry in the mid-1970s consolidated the evangelical presence in the diocese and provoked a commitment to spiritual renewal that sat uneasily with many in the wider Episcopal Church Grounded in local research this study seeks to explore the process by which Pittsburgh acquired its present evangelical identity and to reveal the increasingly intricate web of relationships that it now enjoys beyond America's borders

The Living Church, 1993-07

Consulting the Faithful Richard J. Mouw, 1994 The president of Pasadena's Fuller Theological Seminary carefully assesses the relationship or lack thereof between popular religion and intellectual orthodoxy Mouw argues that therapeutic and managerial revolutions can bring beneficial new sensitivities to Christian thought and practice      Tithing Douglas Leblanc, 2010-12-27 Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse that there may be food in my house Test me in this says the Lord Almighty and see if I will not throw open the floodgates of heaven and pour out so much blessing that you will not have room enough for it Malachi 3 1 0 In these uncertain economic times does it really make sense to tithe Douglas LeBlanc thinks the answer is clear enough in Malachi 3 10 where God goes so far as to tell us Test me in this The people profiled in this book have done exactly that and the effect on their lives has been dramatic In these intimate journalistic portraits LeBlanc shows us true tithing in action From members of the clergy to best selling authors to social activists both conservative and liberal these are the lives of real people who tithe in joy and plenty in the face of poverty and natural disaster in community and missionally and as a spiritual practice commanded by God They come from different backgrounds and live in varying degrees of financial comfort but they all tithe and wouldn't have it any other way Through their eyes we come to understand this ancient practice as God's call to a life of generosity compassion and joy THE ANCIENT PRACTICES There is a hunger in every human heart for connection primitive and raw to God To satisfy it many are beginning to explore traditional spiritual disciplines used for centuries everything from fixed hour prayer to fasting to sincere observance of the Sabbath Compelling and readable the Ancient Practices series is for every spiritual sojourner for every Christian seeker who wants more      Mysteries of Faith Mark McIntosh, 2000-01-25 In this volume of The New Church's Teaching Series Mark McIntosh introduces the great mysteries of the Christian faith the doctrines of creation revelation incarnation salvation and eschatology which are all held together by the doctrine of the Trinity To explain these beliefs for Christians today particularly the Trinity McIntosh begins with what we know the language of relationship and mutuality of friendship and family ties The central theme of the book is our relationship with Jesus and our relationship with our neighbor for such mutuality lies at the heart of every doctrine McIntosh's starting point is the fact that every one of us is a theologian for we are all drawn to approach the mysteries of faith with attention and love By drawing on our common experiences as members of a community of faith particularly through the sacraments of baptism and eucharist he helps us to explore these mysteries for ourselves and to see how we might live them in our daily lives As with each book in The New Church's Teaching Series recommended resources for further reading and questions for discussion are included      The Lure of the Transcendent Dwayne Huebner, 2012-12-06 In 1969 Bill Pinar was privileged to study with Dwayne Huebner at Teachers College In a large room with 70 others he watched an extraordinary figure in the distance speaking a tongue few of them grasped whom they all found compelling They knew they were in the presence of a most remarkable and learned man Huebner helped create the world which contemporary curriculum scholars now inhabit and labor to recreate as educators and theoreticians His generative influence has been evident in many discourses including the political the phenomenological the aesthetic and the theological This volume situates Huebner's work historically emphasizing the ways it foreshadowed the reconceptualization of the field in the 1970s      Religion Index One ,1995

God's Human Speech Charles L. Bartow, 1997 Charles Bartow's stated purpose in this practical theology of preaching is to encourage confidence in the Bible read and the sermon delivered as a means of grace in an age of radical criticism of Scripture, creed and confession

The Liberative Cross Hye Kyung Heo, 2015-03-24 The Liberative Cross offers a theological grounding of the orthopraxy that calls North American Korean women to live as imago Dei mirroring the perichoretic fellowship of the triune God in contemporary social relations through living in imitatio crucis and imitatio relationis In so doing this book emphasizes three elements First an appropriate theology of the cross meets the challenges or concerns of developing reality Second it is a feminist theology in the sense that it seeks to retrieve a theology of the cross that is life giving and liberating for women Third it is a social trinitarian approach to the theology of the cross that can reveal the essence of God to be in relation, mutuality and community in diversity The constructive work achieved in this book makes a great contribution to pastoral and ecclesial praxis and imagination

Can Evangelicals Learn from World Religions? Gerald R. McDermott, 2000-08-15 More than ever before Christians need to explain why they follow Jesus and not the Buddha or Confucius or Krishna or Muhammed This evangelical theology of religions addresses the problem of truth and revelation and takes seriously the normative claims of other traditions McDermott shows readers what Christians can learn from world religions without sacrificing the finality of Christ

The Shape of Anglican Theology Scott MacDougall, 2022-05-16 There are numerous books that offer an historical account of Anglican theology or that detail the lives and work of particular Anglican theologians Books that focus on the nature and character of Anglican theology itself however are hard to find This volume fills that gap In The Shape of Anglican Theology Scott MacDougall examines what it is that makes Anglican theology Anglican Beginning with a treatment of the ways in which Anglican theology is and is not distinct from other types of Christian theology he describes the theological features that mark the general boundaries of Anglican theologizing before turning to consider a set of eight interconnected characteristics that provide Anglican theology with its distinctive profile MacDougall argues that by setting its boundaries as widely as possible and requiring subscription to specific theological propositions as little as possible Anglican theology is in essence a wisdom theology that seeks to build the capacity for faithful Christian discernment in belief and practice

The Evangelistic Love of God & Neighbor Bishop Scott J. Jones, 2010-08-01 There are it seems as many definitions of the term evangelism as there are people doing the defining For some it means proclaiming the gospel to those who have not heard it To others it means making disciples of Jesus Christ To others it means working for the transformation of the world into the kingdom of God For still others it has principally to do with building vibrant healthy congregations Underlying this confusion is a fundamental inability to locate the practice of evangelism within one's overall theological convictions We will never understand the part that proclamation, disciple making, kingdom building and church growth play in evangelism until we first ask a more important question What does evangelism have to do with who God is What is it we know about God that makes evangelism a central part of what it means to be

Christian In this comprehensive theology of evangelism Scott J Jones proposes to ground the practice of evangelism in an understanding of God's love for the world specifically as seen in the incarnation of God in Christ In Jesus God took on all of what it means to be human Because of this evangelism must be a ministry to the whole person The typical distinctions between soul winning social action and church growth evaporate individual conversion and acts of mercy are part of the same ministry of bringing persons more fully into the reign of a loving God A Sacred Argument Christopher M. Leighton,2024-01-26 Our society is sharply divided along political racial and religious lines People of faith often feel debilitated in the face of these divisions understanding neither their nature nor how best to respond As these divisions become more intense the need to get at their roots becomes more urgent A Sacred Argument addresses this need equipping readers with practical and theoretical resources to engage problems that all too often break down trust shut down honest conversations and disrupt collaborative action This story aims to renew within each reader the sense of compassion and the deep yearning for understandings that can come from the encounter with those who see the world differently A Plague on Both Their Houses Christopher Craig Brittain,2015-07-30 Christopher Craig Brittain offers a wide ranging examination of specific events within The Episcopal Church TEC by drawing upon an analysis of theological debates within the church field interviews in church congregations and sociological literature on church conflict The discussion demonstrates that interpretations describing the situation in TEC as a culture war between liberals and conservatives are deeply flawed Moreover the book shows that the splits that are occurring within the national church are not so much schisms in the technical sociological sense but are more accurately described as a familial divorce with all the ongoing messy entwinement that this term evokes The interpretation of the dispute offered by the book also counters prominent accounts offered by leaders within The Episcopal Church The Presiding Bishop Katharine Jefferts Schori has portrayed some opponents of her theological positions and her approach to ethical issues as being fundamentalist while other Progressives liken their opponents to the Tea Party movement The Kenotic Trajectory of the Church in Donald MacKinnon's Theology Timothy G. Connor,2011-09-29 The book explores those aspects of Donald MacKinnon's theological writings which challenge the claim of the liberal Catholic tradition in the Church of England to have forged an ecclesiological consensus namely that the Church is the extension of the incarnation MacKinnon destabilized this claim by exposing the wide gulf between theory and practice in that church especially in his own Anglo Catholic tradition within it For him the collapse of Christendom is the occasion for a dialectical reconstruction of the relation of the Church to Jesus Christ and to the world on the basis of the gospel His basic claim is that authentic ecclesial existence must correspond with what was revealed and effected by Jesus along his way from Galilee to Jerusalem to Galilee Reflection on the Church thus takes the form of a lived response shaped by a Christocentric grammar of faith the submission of the church to Jesus contemporaneous interrogation a sustained attentiveness to him and the willing embrace of his hour Mainline Christianity Jason S Lantzer,2023-11-21 Since the

Revolutionary War Mainline Christianity has been comprised of the Seven Sisters of American Protestantism the Congregational Church the Episcopal Church the Evangelical Lutheran Church the Presbyterian Church the United Methodist Church the American Baptist Convention and the Disciples of Christ These denominations have been the dominant cultural representatives since the nineteenth century of how and where the majority of American Christians worship Today however the Seven Sisters no longer represent most American Christians The Mainline has been shrinking while evangelical and fundamentalist churches as well as non denominational congregations and mega churches have been attracting more and more members In this comprehensive and accessible book Jason S Lantzer chronicles the rise and fall of the Seven Sisters documenting the ways in which they stopped shaping American culture and began to be shaped by it After reviewing and critiquing the standard decline narrative of the Mainline he argues for a reconceptualization of the Mainline for the twenty first century a new grouping of Seven Sisters that seeks to recognize the vibrancy of American Christianity

Praise Seeking Understanding Jason Byassee, 2007-11-08 Praise Seeking Understanding sits at the intersection of three important fields in theology theological exegesis Augustinian studies and contemporary church practice Jason Byassee deftly brings the three together revealing an important symbiotic relationship between them a relationship hitherto largely ignored Though current exegetical methods have swung away from a Christological reading of the Old Testament rejecting in particular Augustine's treatment of the text Byassee believes that is a mistake we must remedy Using a recent translation of Augustine's Enarrationes in Psalmos Byassee describes in depth Augustine's psalm hermeneutic and his approach to scripture generally offering a defense of these views in conversation with recent work in theological exegesis

Sin and Politics Jeong Kii Min, 2009 Sin and Politics Issues in Reformed Theology is an overview of the relationship between sin and politics from the reformational point of view This short theological history is comprised of three parts politics without sin creational politics politics with sin fallen politics and politics beyond sin redeemed politics As a creation of human culture politics have been tainted with sinful distortion in this world but will be recovered in the future Kingdom by the eternal kingship of the Lord of Lords Sin and Politics includes a summary and commentary on political discussions by various Reformed theologians It uncovers the Reformed tradition's positive regard for politics and the profound theological root of politics
