Reclaiming Identity Realist Theory:

Reclaiming Identity Paula M. L. Moya, Michael R. Hames-García, 2000-12-14 Identity is one of the most hotly debated topics in literary theory and cultural studies This bold and groundbreaking collection of ten essays argues that identity is not just socially constructed but has real epistemic and political consequences for how people experience the world Advocating a postpositivist realist approach to identity the essays examine the ways in which theory politics and activism clash with or complement each other providing an alternative to the widely influential postmodernist understandings of identity Although theoretical in orientation this dynamic collection deals with specific social groups Chicanas/os African Americans gay men and lesbians Asian Americans and others and concrete social issues directly related to race ethnicity sexuality epistemology and political resistance Satya Mohanty's brilliant exegesis of Toni Morrison's Beloved serves as a launching pad for the collection The essays that follow written by prominent and up and coming scholars address a range of topics from the writings of Cherrie Moraga Franz Fanon Joy Kogawa and Michael Nava to the controversy surrounding racial program housing on college campuses and work toward a truly interdisciplinary approach to identity

Reclaiming Identity: Realist Theory and the Predicament of Postmodernism Moya, Paula M. L. (ed.), 2001 Identities has become very important in today's world in which globalisation tends to wipe out differences between groups It is one of the most hotly debated topics in many disciplines including literary theory and cultural studies This bold and groundbreaking collection of essays argues that identity is not just socially constructed but has real epistemic and political consequences for how people experience the world

Identity Politics Reconsidered L. Alcoff, M. Hames-García, S. Mohanty, Michael Hames-García, Paula M.L. Moya, 2006-01-09 Based on the ongoing work of the agenda setting Future of Minority Studies national research project Identity Politics Reconsidered reconceptualizes the scholarly and political significance of social identity It focuses on the deployment of identity within ethnic women's disability and gay and lesbian studies in order to stimulate discussion about issues that are simultaneously theoretical and practical ranging from ethics and epistemology to political theory and pedagogical practice This collection of powerful essays by both well known and emerging scholars offers original answers to questions concerning the analytical legitimacy of identity and experience and the relationships among cultural autonomy moral universalism and progressive politics

Identity Politics in Deconstruction Carolyn D'Cruz, 2016-05-13 Identity politics dominates the organisation of liberation movements today This is the case whether fighting over one's birthright to a nation such as in the Palestinian Israeli conflict lobbying for civil rights such as in gay and lesbian campaigns for marriage or struggling for citizenry recognition as currently experienced by asylum seekers In this book Carolyn D'Cruz investigates the nexus between what David Birch describes as the seemingly impossible of high theory and the seemingly accessible possibilities of popular discourse as encountered in liberation movements based on identity D'Cruz reworks the logic of such movements through the unique combination of Derridean deconstruction Foucauldian discourse and Levinasian ethics

Moving both within and between the domains of philosophy politics and postmodern culture this book offers both a clear explication of complex philosophical issues and an understanding of how they relate to the political practicalities of everyday life Identity in Education S. Sánchez-Casal, 2009-05-25 This volume explores the impact of social identity on teaching and learning The contributors argue from the perspective of diverse disciplinary and educational contexts that mobilizing identities in the classroom is a necessary part of progressive educators efforts to transform knowledge making and to create a more just and democratic society Metamodernism Robin van den Akker, Alison Gibbons,, Timotheus

Vermeulen, 2017-11-29 Metamodernism Historicity Affect Depth brings together many of the most influential voices in the scholarly and critical debate about post postmodernism and twenty first century aesthetics arts and culture By relating cutting edge analyses of contemporary literature the visual arts and film and television to recent social technological and economic developments the volume provides both a map and an itinerary of today s metamodern cultural landscape As its organising principle the book takes Fredric Jameson s canonical arguments about the waning of historicity affect and depth in the postmodern culture of western capitalist societies in the twentieth century and re evaluates and reconceptualises these notions in a twenty first century context In doing so it shows that the contemporary moment should be regarded as a transitional period from the postmodern and into the metamodern cultural moment Ethnic Studies Research Timothy P. Fong, 2008 Ethnic Studies Research synthesizes and benchmarks ethnic studies methodologies as interdisciplinary modes of inquiry providing state of the art summary chapters on key methods and issues extensive bibliographies and promising new directions for the future The study of ethnic groups and race relations has always existed in academia primarily in the areas of sociology and anthropology However grassroots movements for ethnic studies programs and departments developed with very different agendas for the study of these groups It is surprising then that relatively few books devoted to these methods exist to document and promote this innovation among succeeding generations of graduate students as well as current academics and professional practitioners Ethnic Studies Research is a step toward ending that void Book jacket

Psychologized Language in Education Zvi Bekerman, Michalinos Zembylas, 2017-10-02 This book explores how psychologized language has come to dominate education and schooling Taking a critical lens to some major constructs in education e g the mind the self identity emotion emotional intelligence motivation culture language and meaning and their grounding in psychologized discourses the authors suggest possible ways to overcome these psychologized discourses and remedy their consequences The book invites readers to move away from static reified conceptualizations to a more active social understanding of what education is all about The SAGE Handbook of Identities Margaret Wetherell, Chandra Talpade Mohanty, 2010-04-14 Increasingly identities are the site for interdisciplinary initiatives and identity research is at the heart of many transdisciplinary research centres around the world No single social science discipline owns identity research which makes it a difficult topic to categorize The SAGE Handbook of Identities systematizes this complex field by incorporating its interdisciplinary character to provide a comprehensive overview of its themes in contemporary research while still acknowledging the historical and philosophical significance of the concept of identity Drawing on a global scholarship the Handbook has four parts Part 1 Frameworks presents the main theoretical and methodological perspectives in identities research Part 2 Formations covers the major formative forces for identities such as culture globalisation migratory patterns biology and so on Part 3 Categories reviews research on the core social categories which are central to identity such as ethnicity gender sexuality disability and social class and intersections between these Part 4 Sites and Context develops a series of case studies of crucial sites and contexts where identity is at stake such as social movements relationships and family life work places and environments and citizenship

Twenty-First-Century Feminist Classrooms S. Sánchez-Casal, A. MacDonald, 2002-09-13 This book is centrally concerned with crucial theoretical and practical aspects of teaching in the national and global borderlands of gender race and sexuality studies The cross cultural feminist focus of this anthology allows the contributors to consider the various ways in which global and national frameworks intersect in the classroom and in students thinking and also the ways in which power and authority are developed directed and deployed in the feminist classroom This volume provides a critical elaboration of provocative self reflexive questions for feminist cultural and intellectual practice for the 21st century In doing so the volume provides a site for engaged feminist self criticism for the specific purpose of reinvigorating a critical pedagogical practice grounded in multicultural feminist identities

The Promise of Integrated Multicultural and Bilingual Education Zvi Bekerman, 2016-01-07 The Promise of Integrated and Multicultural Bilingual Education presents the results of a long term ethnographic study of the integrated bilingual Palestinian Jewish schools in Israel that offer a new educational option to two groups of Israelis Palestinians and Jews who have been in conflict for the last one hundred years Their goal is to create egalitarian bilingual multicultural environments to facilitate the growth of youth who can acknowledge and respect others while maintaining loyalty to their respective cultural traditions In this book Bekerman reveals the complex school practices implemented while negotiating identity and culture in contexts of enduring conflict Data gathered from interviews with teachers students parents and state officials are presented and analyzed to explore the potential and limitations of peace education given the cultural resources ethnic religious affiliations political beliefs and historical narratives of the various interactants The book concludes with critique of Western positivist paradigmatic perspectives that currently guide peace education maintaining that one of the primary weaknesses of current bilingual and multicultural approaches to peace education is their failure to account for the primacy of the political framework of the nation state and the psychologized educational perspectives that guide their educational work Change it is argued will only occur after these perspectives are abandoned which entails critically reviewing present understandings of the individual of identity and culture and of the learning process

Identities on the Move Silvia Pilar Castro-Borrego, Maria Isabel Romero-Ruiz, 2014-12-24 The development of new sexualities and gender identities has become a crucial issue in the field of literary and cultural studies in the first years of the twenty first century The roles of gender and sexual identities in the struggle for equality have become a major concern in both fields The legacy of this process has its origins in the last decades of the nineteenth century and the twentieth century The Victorian preoccupation about the female body and sexual promiscuity was focused on the regulation of deviant elements in society and the control of venereal disease homosexuals lesbians and prostitutes identities were considered out of the norm and against the moral values of the time The relationship between sexuality and gender identity has attracted wide ranging discussion amongst feminist theorists during the last few decades The methodologies of cultural studies and in particular of post structuralism and post colonialism urges us to read and interpret different cultures and different texts in ways that enhance personal and collective views of identity which are culturally grounded These readings question the postmodernist concept of identity by looking into more progressive views of identity and difference addressing post positivist interpretations of key identity markers such as sex gender race and agency As a consequence an individual s identity is recognized as culturally constructed and the result of power relations Identities on the Move Contemporary Representations of New Sexualities and Gender Identities offers creative insights on pressing issues and engages in productive dialogue Identities on the Move to addresses the topic of new sexualities and gender identities and their representation in post colonial and contemporary Anglophone literary historical and cultural productions from a trans national trans cultural and anti essentialist perspective The authors include the views and concerns of people of color of women in the diaspora in our evermore multiethnic and multicultural societies and their representation in the media films popular culture subcultures and the arts

Cultural Migrations and Gendered Subjects Silvia Castro-Borrego, Maria Isabel Romero Ruiz, 2011-01-18 The present volume explores through cultural and literary representations the contributions of women to the construction of knowledge in an ever changing global world as migrant subjects The essays contained in this book also focus on the female body as a site of physical violence and abuse fighting prevalent stereotypes about women s representations and identities This collection intends to enter a forum of discussion in which the colonial past serves as a point of reference for the analysis of contemporary issues Women s strategies for building possible identities are seen to be based on their own experiences seeking the ways in which the public marking and marketing of the female body within the western male imaginary contributes to the making of women s social and personal identities The different articles contained in this volume examine issues of gender and boundaries the realities of women as colonial and postcolonial subjects and darker realities such as alienation and discrimination as a result of migration racism and colonization analysed through a variety of critical perspectives The gendered raced classed dimensions and mixed heritages not only of white women but also of women of the African Diaspora these are important issues for the construction of knowledge and identity in our present multicultural societies and can potentially change the ways we conceptualize situate and engage the humanities in our scholarly work and in our social and cultural policies These women their presumed sexuality and their capacity to produce hybrid subjects as well as their supposed irrationality make them a singularly disruptive figure in our contemporary world this interpretation has its roots in the treatment of women in colonial times especially when they were out of the margins of respectable society The volume is addressed to a wide readership both scholarly and those interested in investigating the dynamics of the social and cultural conceptualizations of our multicultural and multiethnic contemporary societies marked by the intercultural exchanges of migratory subjects from a gender perspective Latin American Identities After 1980 Gordana Yovanovich, Amy Huras, 2010-04-23 Latin American Identities After 1980 takes an interdisciplinary approach to Latin

American social and cultural identities With broad regional coverage and an emphasis on Canadian perspectives it focuses on Latin American contact with other cultures and nations Its sound scholarship combines evidence based case studies with the Latin American tradition of the essay particularly in areas where the discourse of the establishment does not match political social and cultural realities and where it is difficult to uncover the purposely covert This study of the cultural and social Latin America begins with an interpretation of the new Pax Americana designed in the 1980s by the North in agreement with the Southern elites As the agreement ties the hands of national governments and establishes new regional and global strategies a pan Latin American identity is emphasized over individual national identities The multi faceted impacts and effects of globalization in Bolivia Ecuador Mexico Cuba Brazil Chile Argentina and the Caribbean are examined with an emphasis on social change the transnationalization and commodification of Latin American and Caribbean arts and the adaptation of cultural identities in a globalized context as understood by Latin American authors writing from transnational perspectives

Minority Reports M. Borgstrom, 2010-07-05 Through close readings of texts by African American and women authors Minority Reports offers a theoretical defense of the use of identity categories in American studies by examining how early American literature not only responds to the social stratification of the nineteenth century but also challenges modern historical conceptions of this era Religion without Belief Jeanne Ellen Petrolle, 2008-06-05 In our present cultural moment when God is supposed to be dead and metaphysical speculation unfashionable why does postmodern fiction in a variety of genres make such frequent use of the ancient rhetorical form of allegory In Religion without Belief Jean Ellen Petrolle argues that contrary to popular understandings of postmodernism as an irreligious and amoral climate postmodern allegory remains deeply engaged in the quest for religious insight Examining a range of films and novels this book shows that postmodern fiction despite its posturing about the unverifiable nature of truth and reality routinely offers theological and cosmological speculation Works considered include virtual reality films such as The Matrix and The Truman Show avant garde films and Amerindian and feminist novels
