Domesticated Glory Gale Heide, 2010-09-01 Domesticated Glory critically examines the marriage between Evangelicalism and American politics The study begins by engaging popular political pundits who wish to transform Christianity into an arm of the state It then moves to examine some of the theological foundations proposed as support for the church's propping up of American political ideology Finally the study provides a more robust politics of the church by outlining how the church might act as a politics in itself Thus the church may gain a political voice as church in such a way as to make the world know it stands in need of redemption This is a far cry from the liberal attempt of the Social Gospel and many modern evangelicals to transform the world into a pseudo church by cultural or social control Unlike attempts to engage culture on its own terms in the political arena or to escape politics by avoiding any public testimony to the Gospel this study lays out a way for the church to act as church in the public square witnessing to a Gospel concerned primarily about the universe's King and His future Kingdom
