Scott, 2018-09-14 In today's church use of the term transformation has become commonplace Various perspectives are offered on what a Christian view of transformation is and on how it may be achieved These often conflicting views suggest an ecclesial landscape characterized by pluralism division fragmentation confusion relativism individualism pragmatism and subjectivism Despite the current interest in transformational theology the absence of a common coherent and integrated vision and the lack of transformation is often accepted and affirmed Re Envisioning Transformation looks at the possibility of moving toward a vision of transformational theology that is cohesive unified broad effectual and distinctly Christian In this book the contributions of two radically different theologians of the Christian life are examined This provides the basis from which to develop a comprehensive and integrated framework of transformational theology pointing God's people toward the need to express and live out a distinctly Christian vision Thomas F. Torrance and the Church Fathers Jason Robert Radcliff, 2015-04-30 In this volume Jason Radcliff examines T F Torrance's reading of the church fathers Radcliff explores how Torrance reconstructs the patristic tradition producing a Reformed evangelical and ecumenical version of the Consensus Patrum Consensus of the Fathers This book investigates how Torrance uniquely understands the Fathers and the Reformers to be mutually informing and how as such his approach involves significant changes to both standard readings of the Fathers and Torrance's own Reformed evangelical tradition Torrance's approach is distinctive in its Christocentric rootedness in the primary theme of the Nicene homoousion of one essence with the Father and its champion Athanasius of Alexandria The book explores Torrance's inherently broad ecclesiology and constructive achievements both of which contribute to his ongoing ecumenical relevance Every Branch In Me: Essays On The Meanin Barry McDonald, 2010-08-01 Every Branch in Me Essays on the Meaning of Man is a collection of articles by leading perennialist authors that are unified by a single theme nothing that is properly human can be separated from the intrinsically spiritual nature of man The Cappadocian Mothers Carla D. Williams,1999 A learned and uniquely constructive book that gently urges suspicious Christians to reclaim the patristic roots of their faith This is the first book of its kind meant to help Protestant Christians recognize the early church fathers as an essential part of their faith Writing primarily to the evangelical independent and free church communities who remain largely suspicious of church history and the relationship between Scripture and tradition D H Williams clearly explains why every branch of today s church owes its heritage to the doctrinal foundation laid by postapostolic Christianity Based on solid historical scholarship this volume shows that embracing the catholic roots of the faith will not lead to the loss of Protestant distinctiveness but is essential for preserving the Christian vision in our rapidly changing world Towards a Theology of Church Growth David Goodhew,2016-03-03 Concern about church growth and decline is widespread and contentious yet theological reflection on church growth is scarce Reflecting on the Bible dogmatic theology and church history this book situates the numerical growth of the church within wider Christian theology Leading international scholars including Alister McGrath Benedicta Ward and C Kavin Rowe contribute a spectrum of voices from evangelical charismatic liberal and anglo catholic perspectives All contributors unite around the importance of seeking church growth provided this is situated within a nuanced theological framework This book offers a critique of decline theology which has been influential amongst theologians and churches and which assumes church growth is impossible and or unnecessary The contributors provide rich resources from scripture doctrine and tradition to underpin action to promote church growth and to stimulate further theological reflection on the subject The Archbishop of Canterbury provides the Foreword
