Recognizing Islam Religion And Society In The Modern Arab World:

Recognizing Islam Michael Gilson, 1982 The recent crises in the Arab world have flooded the media with sensationalist portraits of Islam as a threatening and irrational presence that moves whole societies to cultural assertiveness political intransigence and economic frenzy In Recognizing Islam Michael Gilson a historian and anthropologist offers an original and much needed understanding of the complex role of religion in the turbulent Middle East a powerful challenge to the Western view of Islam as monolithic and all determining the key to the Arab mind and to a whole series of otherwise inexplicable events and institutions Drawing extensively on twenty years of fieldwork in cities villages and tribal communities in the Middle East Gilson explores a variety of social worlds that all claim Islamic affiliation the feudal aristocracy of northern Lebanon the working class Sufi brotherhoods of Egypt the new bourgeoisie of Algeria and Morocco In each he shows how Islam evolves in relation to shifting social political economic and class structures even as it helps to shape them Gilson restores to Islam and Islamic societies the variation and breadth of a living tradition that we grant as a matter of course to Christian religion and Christian society At once evocative and informative his work provides the nuanced portrait of Islam that is now more indispensable than ever Recognizing Islam Michael Gilson, 1982 Recognizing Islam Michael Gilson, 1990 Drawing on his own work in cities villages and tribal communities of the region Gilson provides an analysis of the role of religion in the Middle East He explores religious activity in various of settings considers the effect of colonialism and examines Islamic responses to the modern world Recognizing Islam Michael Gilson, 2013-06-03 Islam is more than a set of laws rites and beliefs presented as a religious and social totality As a word it covers a multitude of everyday forms and practices that are interwoven in complex sometimes almost invisible ways in daily existence Drawing exclusively on his own fieldwork in Egypt South Arabia and the Lebanon the author explores the nature of Islam and its impact on the daily lives of its followers he shows that all the Western stereotypes of Islam and its practitioners need to be treated with considerable scepticism He demonstrates also that the understanding of Islam is dependent on recognizing a variety of class tensions and oppositions within an Islamic society These have become all the more crucial in recent years with the growth of a capitalist economy in which the forms and functions of the state have expanded considerably This study focuses on the social and cultural divisions between very different groups and classes ranging from the working masses of Cairo to the new bourgeoisie of Algeria and Morocco The accent of the book is on the forms and transformations of Islam within these different societies The impact of colonialism is discussed in this context and reformist and radical Islamic movements are analyzed in relation to shifting structures in class and society at large First published in 1982

Recognizing Islam Michael Gilson, 2015-05-21 Islam is more than a set of laws rites and beliefs presented as a religious and social totality As a word it covers a multitude of everyday forms and practices that are interwoven in complex sometimes almost invisible ways in daily existence Drawing exclusively on his own fieldwork in Egypt South Arabia and the Lebanon the author explores the nature of Islam and its impact on the daily lives of its followers he shows that all the Western stereotypes of Islam and its practitioners need to be treated with considerable scepticism He demonstrates also that the understanding of Islam is dependent on recognizing a variety of class tensions and oppositions within an Islamic society These have become all the more crucial in recent years with the growth of a capitalist economy in which the forms and functions of the state have expanded considerably This study focuses on the social and cultural divisions between very different groups and classes ranging from the working masses of Cairo to the new bourgeoisie of Algeria and Morocco The accent of the book is on the forms and transformations of Islam within these different societies The impact of colonialism is discussed in this context and reformist and radical Islamic movements are analyzed in relation to shifting structures in class and society at large First published in 1982     The Arab World Halim Barakat,1993-10-14 This book will become a classic Barbara Aswad President Middle Eastern Studies Association     Social Anthropology in the Arab World Abdullah Alajmi,Daniele Cantini,Irene Maffi,Imed Melliti,2025 There are ongoing efforts in anthropology to decolonise its history and give fairer space to marginalised traditions This book examines the history and institutionalisation of anthropology in the Maghreb the Mashreq and the Gulf in an open and collaborative manner and from various perspectives Its primary focus is two fold first to reorient the anthropological focus towards studies conducted in the region particularly on the conditions conducive to the institutionalisation of anthropological knowledge second to shed light on anthropological studies in languages other than English offering different theoretical and epistemological perspectives Provided by publisher     Intellectual Origins of Islamic Resurgence in the Modern Arab World Ibrahim M. the Middle East perhaps in any culture It is a sensitive intellectually challenging indeed a courageous investigation of the psychological ontological and ethical assumptions that lie behind dreams visions and dream visitations in contemporary Egypt where the dream is a vibrant site of political religious and interpretive contest Dreams That Matter will rank among the most important contributions to the anthropology of the imagination for years to come Vincent Crapanzano author of The Harkis The Wound That Never Heals Ibn Khaldun and Islamic Ideology Lawrence,2022-05-09 Conceptualizing Islam Frank Peter,Paula Schrode,Ricarda Stegmann,2025-03-31 In recent decades academic debates on how to conceptualize Islam as an object of study and how to approach it theoretically have been revitalized Not only has research on Islam grown enormously and become much more differentiated but Islam is also being discussed more intensively in society and politics than ever before This reader which brings together the perspectives of various disciplines provides an overview of academic approaches to Islam against the backdrop of these in some cases tense entanglements Through two contributions from scholars working on Buddhism and Hinduism these debates are situated in the context of broader trajectories of research history In sum this book does not only offer its readers entry points to a more complex and refined understanding of Islam but also to research processes within the study of Islam as well as religion in general Turko-Persia in Historical Perspective Robert L. Canfield,Robert Leroy Canfield,2002-04-30 The first book length study to examine Turko Persian culture as an entity Arab Youth Samir Khalaf,Roseanne Saad Khalaf,2012-01-30 In 2011 Arab youth took to the streets in their thousands to demand their freedom Although it is too early to speculate on the ultimate outcome of the uprisings one auspicious feature stands out they reveal the genesis of a new generation sparked by the desire for civil liberties advocacy for human rights and participatory democracy This unique volume explores some of the antecedents of the upheavals and anticipates alternative venues of resistance that marginalized youth from Lebanon Syria and Palestine to Saudi Arabia Morocco and Iran can mobilize to realize their emancipatory expectations Themes covered include the forging of meaningful collective identities in times of risk and uncertainty youth militancy neighborhood violence and youth gangs the surge of youthful activism and youths expressive outlets through popular arts and street music A Christian-Muslim Comparative Theology of Saints Hans A. Harmakaputra,2022-09-19 In A Christian Muslim Comparative Theology of Saints The Community of God's Friends Hans A Harmakaputra focuses on a question that emerges from today's multi faith context Is it possible for Christians to recognize non Christians as saints To answer affirmatively he offers a Christian perspective on an inclusive theology of saints through the lens of comparative theology that is based on the thought of Catholic Protestant and Muslim theologians Karl Rahner Jean Luc Marion Elizabeth Johnson Dietrich Bonhoeffer Paul Tillich and Ibn Arab As a result of this interreligious comparison three theological constructs emerge 1 saints as manifestations and revealers of God's self communication 2 the hiddenness of saints and 3 saints as companions These theological constructs redefine and reconfigure Christian understanding of saints on one hand and on the other hand provide theological reasoning to include non Christians in the Christian notion of the communion of saints      The Prophet's Pulpit Patrick D. Gaffney,1994-12-05 Muslim preaching has been central in forming public opinion building grassroots organizations and developing leadership cadres for the wider Islamist agenda Based on in depth field research in Egypt Patrick Gaffney focuses on the preacher and the sermon as the single most important medium for propounding the message of Islam He draws on social history political commentary and theological sources to reveal the subtle connections between religious rhetoric and political dissent Many of the sermons discussed were given during the rise of Islamic fundamentalism and Gaffney attempts to describe this militant movement and to compare it with official Islam Finally Gaffney presents examples of the sermons so readers can better understand the full range of contemporary Islamic expression      Infidels Andrew Wheatcroft,2005-05-03 Here is the first panoptic history of the long struggle between the Christian West and Islam In this dazzlingly written acutely nuanced account Andrew Wheatcroft tracks a deep fault line of animosity between civilizations He begins with a stunning account of the Battle of Lepanto in 1571 then turns to the main zones of conflict Spain from which the descendants of the Moors were eventually expelled the Middle East where Crusaders and Muslims clashed for years and the Balkans where distant memories spurred atrocities even into the twentieth century Throughout Wheatcroft delves beneath stereotypes looking incisively at how images ideas language and technology from the printing press to the Internet as well as politics religion and conquest have allowed each side to demonize the other revive old grievances and fuel across centuries a seemingly unquenchable enmity Finally Wheatcroft tells how this fraught history led to our present maelstrom We cannot he argues come to terms with today s perplexing animosities without confronting this dark past      Cultivating the Past, Living the Modern Amal Sachedina,2021-09-15 Cultivating the Past Living the Modern explores how and why heritage has emerged as a prevalent force in building the modern nation state of Oman Amal Sachedina analyses the relations with the past that undergird the shift in Oman from an Ibadi shari a Imamate 1913 1958 to a modern nation state from 1970 onwards Since its inception as a nation state material forms in the Sultanate of Oman such as old mosques and shari a manuscripts restored forts national symbols such as the coffee pot or the dagger khanjar and archaeological sites have saturated the landscape becoming increasingly ubiquitous as part of a standardized public and visual memorialization of the past Oman s expanding heritage industry exemplified by the boom in museums exhibitions street montages and cultural festivals shapes a distinctly national geography and territorialized narrative But Cultivating the Past Living the Modern demonstrates there are consequences to this celebration of heritage As the national narrative conditions the way people ethically work on themselves through evoking forms of heritage it also generates anxieties and emotional sensibilities that seek to address the erasures and occlusions of the past      Politics of Piety Saba Mahmood,2012 An analysis of Islamist cultural politics through the ethnography of a thriving grassroots women s piety movement in the mosques of Cairo Egypt Unlike those organized Islamist activities that seek to seize or transform the state this is a moral reform movement whose orthodox practices are commonly viewed as inconsequential to Egypt's political landscape. The author's exposition of these practices challenges this assumption by showing how the ethical and the political are linked within the context of such movements. Culture and Customs of Egypt Molefi K. Asante Ph.D., 2002-09-30. Modern Egypt blends African history and geography with Arab culture and religion. With its position at the crossroads of Africa, its status as a major Islamic nation, and continuing interest in its ancient monuments, Egypt makes for fascinating study. This volume provides an accessible up-to-date overview of a society that greatly evolved yet retains traces of attitudes and behaviors from the days of the Pharaohs. This volume's insights into everyday life, sociopolitical structures, and cultural institutions transcend ordinary guide books. Asante, a noted Africanist, authoritatively presents the richness of Egypt from the Nile to the Nubian influence, to Cairo congestion and carpet schools. Chapters describe the land, people, history, education, tourism, religion, art, and architecture, food, social customs, and lifestyles, literature, media, cinema, and performing arts. A chronology, glossary, and numerous photos enhance the text. A Learned Society in a Period of Transition Daphna Ephrat, 2000-08-03. Addresses the social significance of orthodox Islam during the medieval period in Baghdad.
