Inside the Artist's Studio Joe Fig, 2015-10-06 What was your earliest childhood artwork that received recognition When did you first consider yourself a professional artist How has your studio s location influenced your work How do you choose titles Do you have a favorite color Joe Fig asked a wide range of celebrated artists these and many other questions during the illuminating studio visits documented in Inside the Artist's Studio the follow up to his acclaimed 2009 book Inside the Painter s Studio In this remarkable collection twenty four painters video and mixed media artists sculptors and photographers reveal highly idiosyncratic production tools and techniques as well as quotidian habits and strategies for getting work done the music they listen to the hours they keep and the relationships with gallerists and curators friends family and fellow artists that sustain them outside the studio Recollections The Detroit Years Jack Ryan, 2011-11-04 Includes updates on many of the performers My Recollections Sayid Ashraf Shah, 2021-11-27 The book covers the incidents in the life of the author from his childhood till date spanning about eight decades These incidents were recalled during his stay in UAE in 2014 and were subsequently update to present date 2021 at Srinagar Many of the incidents were hair raising witnessing narrow escape from death It is bound to make an interesting reading for all sections of people Bulletin Detroit Public Quarterly Bulletin ,1910 An Englishman in Paris (notes and Recollections) ... Albert Dresden Library, 1910 Vandam, 1892 Marathi Cinema, Cultural Space, and Liminality Hrishikesh Sudhakar Ingle, 2022-08-01 This book is a critical history of Marathi cinema from its formative years in the 1920s till the end of 1990s It is the first work to explore the industrial and aesthetic dynamics of Marathi cinema and elaborate on the idea of region as performance using the framework of critical socio spatial analysis Against the dominance of Hindi cinema the Marathi film industry as a regional film practice in India has developed within a cultural and spatial liminality This historical situation of the Marathi film industry is formulated here as the shaping and dispersal of a vernacular cultural space and is traced over a period of seven decades across genres like the saint film social melodramas and the tamasha film as well as in urban and mofussil sites of film circulation The book aims to be a useful resource for students researchers and general readers while attending to a lack of scholarly inquiries on this important regional film culture Quarterly Bulletin Detroit Public Library, 1910

Recollections of Francis Boott Francis Boott,1912 My Recollections and Reflections Yoshio Makino,1913 A Gambler's Instinct Milly S. Barranger,2010-07-01 Broadway producer Cheryl Crawford 1902 1986 declared in her 1977 autobiography The theatre has been my life Crawford was notoriously circumspect about her private life and only now with Milly S Barranger's insightful biography is her full story revealed A major Broadway producer in an era when women producers were exceedingly rare Crawford found unprecedented success with the plays of Tennessee Williams including The Rose Tattoo and Sweet Bird of Youth but her enduring legend is as a musical producer having brought Kurt Weill's One Touch of Venus Lerner and Loewe's Brigadoon and Paint Your Wagon to the stage Her commercial success though was balanced with the founding of studios that would enable actors to explore their art outside the strictures of commercial theater She cofounded the Group Theatre with Harold Clurman and Lee Strasberg the American Repertory Theatre with Margaret Webster and Eva Le Gallienne and the Actors Studio with Elia Kazan and Robert Lewis but her idealism was constantly frustrated by unfulfilled artistic promises from her male counterparts and by the chronic shortage of funding for the nonprofit enterprises As Barranger traces Crawford's career as an independent producer she tells the parallel story of American theater in the mid twentieth century making A Gambler's Instinct both an enjoyable and informative biography of a Falling Through Dance and Life remarkable woman and an important addition to the literature of the modern theater Emilyn Claid, 2021-01-14 This is a book about falling as a means of reconfiguring our relationship with living and dying Dancer choreographer educator and therapist Emilyn Claid draws inspiration from her personal and professional experiences to explore alternative approaches to being present in the world Contemporary movement based performers ground their practices in understanding the interplay of gravity and the body Somatic intentional falling provides them a creative resource for developing both self and environmental support The physical metaphorical and psychological impact of these practices informs the theories and perspectives presented in this book As falling can be dangerous and painful encouraging people to do so willingly might be considered a provocative premise Western culture generally resists falling because it provokes fear and represents failure Out of this tension a paradox emerges falling we are both powerless subjects and agents of change a dynamic distinction that enlivens discussions throughout the writing Emilyn engages with different dance genres live performance and therapeutic interactions to form her ideas and interlaces her arguments with issues of gender and race She describes how surrender to gravity can transform our perceptions and facilitate ways of being that are relational and life enhancing Woven throughout autobiographical poetic philosophical descriptive and theoretical voices combine to question the fixation of Western culture on uprightness and supremacy A simple act of falling builds momentum through eclectic discussions uncovering connections to shame laughter trauma ageing and the thrill of release Memories Constance Frederica Gordon Cumming, 1904 Edwardian London Through Japanese Eyes Yoshio Markino, 2011-12-23 The Japanese artist Yoshio Markino enjoyed a successful career in early twentieth century London as an artist and author This book examines his uniquely Asian perspective on British society and culture at a time when Japan eagerly sought engagement with Memories William James Linton, 1895 The Hidden White House Robert Klara, 2013-10-22 In 1948 Harry the West Truman President of the United States almost fell through the ceiling of the Blue Room in a bathtub into a meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution A team of the nation s top architects was hastily assembled to inspect the White House and upon seeing the state the old mansion was in insisted the First Family be evicted immediately What followed was the biggest home improvement job the nation had ever seen Cinema Memories Melvyn Stokes, Matthew Jones, Emma Pett, 2022-03-10 Cinema Memories brings together and analyses the memories of almost a thousand people of going to the cinema in Britain during the 1960s It offers a fresh perspective on the social cultural and film history of what has come to be seen as an iconic decade with the release of films such as A Taste of Honey The Sound of Music Darling Blow Up Alfie The Graduate and Bonnie and Clyde Drawing on first hand accounts authors Melvyn Stokes Matthew Jones and Emma Pett explore how cinema goers constructed meanings from the films they watched through a complex process of negotiation between the films concerned their own social and cultural identities and their awareness of changes in British society Their analysis helps the reader see what light the cultural memory of 1960s cinema going sheds on how the Sixties in Britain is remembered and interpreted Positioning their study within debates about memory 1960s cinema and the seemingly transformative nature of this decade of British history the authors reflect on the methodologies deployed the use of memories as historical sources and the various ways in which cinema and cinema going came to mean something to their audiences

Musical Memories George Putnam Upton,1908 Remembering British Television Kristyn Gorton, Joanne Garde-Hansen, 2019-03-21 This original book asks how in an age of convergence when television no longer means a box in the corner of the living room that we sit and watch together do we remember television of the past How do we gather and archive our memories Kristyn Gordon and Joanne Garde Hansen explore these questions through first person interviews with tv producers curators and archivists and case studies of popular television series and fan communities such as Cold Feet and Doctor Who Their discussion takes in museum exhibitions popular television nostalgia programming and vintage tv websites

Architectural Possibilities in the Work of Eisenman Michael Jasper, 2022-11-11 This book examines the central decades of Peter Eisenman's work through a formal and thematic analysis of key architectural projects and writings revealing underlying characteristics and arguing for their productive continuity and transformative role. The book explores Eisenman's approach to architectural form generation and thinking It does this through a thematic and formal analysis of projects and writings from the mid 1970s to the mid 1990s Following an introductory chapter addressing the theme of potentialities the book is organised in two parts. The first part focuses on key period writings of Eisenman framing the close reading around a practice of resistance the architect's approach to history as analysis and the transformative conceptualisation of time. In the second part, the book undertakes an analysis of select projects from the 1980s and 1990s. Three formal preoccupations and conceptual orientations ground manipulations figuration and spatial events organise this part of the book Previously unpublished material from the Peter Eisenman fonds Canadian Centre for Architecture Montr al provides primary source material A concluding chapter addresses Eisenman's teaching its relation to his larger project and possible legacies for educators practitioners scholars and theorists
