Recollections Of Gran Apacheria:

Recollections of Gran Apacheria MR Pete Hamill, Edward Dorn, 1975      Recollections of Gran Apachería Edward Dorn, 1974      Ed Dorn Live Edward Dorn, 2007 Collects the commentary of the later years and last days of one of America's most powerful and unique poets      Hembrillo, an Apache Battlefield of the Victorio War Karl W. Laumbach, 2000      The Modern Percussion Revolution Kevin Lewis, Gustavo Aguilar, 2014-07-17 More than eighty years have passed since Edgard Varèse's catalytic work for percussion ensemble Ionisation was heard in its New York premiere. A flurry of pieces for this new medium dawned soon after challenging the established truths and preferences of the European musical tradition while setting the stage for percussion to become one of the most significant musical advances of the twentieth century. This revolution, as John Cage termed it, was a quintessentially modernist movement: an exploration of previously undiscovered sounds, forms, textures, and styles. However, as percussion music has progressed and become woven into the fabric of Western musical culture, several divergent paths comprised of various traditions and a multiplicity of aesthetic sensibilities have since emerged for the percussionist to pursue. This edited collection highlights the progressive developments that continue to investigate uncharted musical grounds. Using historical studies, philosophical insights, analyses of performance practice, and anecdotal reflections authored by some of today's most engaged performers, composers, and scholars, this book aims to illuminate the unique destinations found in the artistic journey of the modern percussionist.

Makers of Modern Culture Justin Wintle, 2002 This volume provides lively and clearly written expositions of those figures who have done most to shape our views in the period since 1914. Music, cinema, drama, art, fiction, poetry, and philosophy are just some of the fields covered.

The Review, 1974      St. Andrews Review, 1974      The Science Fiction of Poetics and the Avant-Garde Imagination Michael Golston, 2023-11-19 How the tropes of science fiction infuse and inform avant-garde poetics and many other kindred arts. This insightful, playful monograph from Golston does exactly what it advertises: modeling poetics based on how poetry and some parallel artistic endeavors have filtered through a century-plus of science fiction. This is not a book about science fiction in and of itself, but it is a book about the resonances of science fiction tropes and ideas in poetic language The germ of Golston's project is a throwaway line in Robert Smithson's Entropy and the New Monuments about how cinema supplanted nature as inspiration for many of his fellow artists The movies give a ritual pattern to the lives of many artists and this induces a kind of low budget mysticism which keeps them in a perpetual trance Golston charts how the demotic appeal of sci fi much like that of the B movie cross pollinated into poetry and other branches of the avant garde Golston creates what he calls a regular Rube Goldberg machine of a critical apparatus drawing on Walter Benjamin Roman Jakobson and Gilles Deleuze He starts by acknowledging that per the important work of Darko Suvin to situate science fiction critically the genre is premised on cognitive estrangement But he is not interested in the specific nuts and bolts of science fiction as it exists but rather how science fiction has created a model not only for other poets but also for musicians and landscape artists Golston's critical lens moves around quite a bit but he begins with familiar enough subjects Edgar Rice Burroughs Mina Loy William S Burroughs From there he moves into more alien terrain Ed Dorn's long poem Gunslinger the discombobulated work of Clark Coolidge Sun Ra Ornette Coleman and Jimi Hendrix all come under consideration The result of Golston's restless rich scholarship is the first substantial monograph on science fiction and avant garde poetics using Russian Formalism Frankfurt School dialectics and Deleuzian theory to show how the avant garde inherently follows the parameters of sci fi in both theme and form

New Wests and Post-Wests Paul S. Varner, 2013-10-03 The writers of these chapters are often working with changing assumptions about literary and media interpretations of an American West Here we see critical approaches to a West that never was a West of myth so enduring that the myth dominates nearly all artistic representation about this place that never was In this collection we see critical approaches to a New West a West that is a state of mind not a geographical place but a mythic space with no boundaries and no political inevitabilities These New Western studies accept the idea of a West that includes Canada Mexico Alaska and in the case of the US every geographic and historical point west of the historic founding settlements The West we study today is a post West an idea of the West past the traditional views of an old West dominated by white US nationalism and gendered as uncompromisingly masculine The idea itself of a single West no longer holds validity We now understand that all renderings of the West are renderings of multiple Wests Wests constructed by American nationalists Wests constructed by EuroAmerican writers and filmmakers Wests constructed by native peoples or Wests constructed outside the geographical boundaries of the US This collection presents an eclectic array of new scholarship ranging freely over the New Wests and Post Wests dealing with issues such as the literature of a 1950s California West eco crime genre fiction the West of Edward Dorn and the Beat Movement images of prostitution in California Gold Rush literature European perspectives on film representations of the first peoples the six shooter and the American West German Westerns and Italian Westerns The Authentic Death of Hendry Jones by Charles Neider and films such as The Treasure of Sierra Madre Into the Wild There Will Be Blood and The Last Picture Show A unique aspect of this collection is the range of writers interpreting the American West in film and literature besides those writing from within the United States five of the writers provide international perspectives from the United Kingdom and the Universities of Tunis Vienna and Rome Each chapter includes a review of scholarship on its subject and an extended bibliography for further research      Zephyrus Image Alastair Johnston,2003 Cultural Writing This bibliography tells the story of ZEPHYRUS IMAGE a Northern California press operated through the nineteen seventies that was the brainchild of Holbrook Teter and Michael Myers With their own idiosyncratic methods they produced subversive anarchic works of great wit and elegance that lampooned the foolish Poets Ed Dorn and Tom Raworth were strongly allied with them and they published a varied and eclectic range of work from such authors as Robert Creeley Joanne Kyger Fielding Dawson Robert Bly Lucia Berlin Gary Snyder Stan Brakhage and William T Wiley      The Cambridge Guide to Literature in English Dominic Head,2006-01-26 This illustrated and fully updated Third Edition of The Cambridge Guide to Literature in English is the most authoritative and international survey of world literature in English available The Guide covers everything from Old English to contemporary writing from all over the English speaking world There are entries on writers from Britain and Ireland the USA Canada India Africa South Africa New Zealand the South Pacific and Australia as well as on many important poems novels literary journals and plays This new edition has been brought completely up to date with more than 280 new author entries most of them for living authors The general reader will find it fascinating to browse and to discover many new writers and works while students will find it an invaluable resource for daily use This is a unique work of reference for the twenty first century that no reader or library should be without      Freeman's: Love John Freeman,2020-10-13 New work from Tommy Orange Anne Carson Louise Erdrich and others propels this tribute to love from Freeman s a powerful force in the literary world Los Angeles Times In a time of contentiousness and flagrant abuse it often feels as if our world is run on hate Invective Cruelty and sadism But is it possible the greatest and most powerful force is love In the newest issue of this acclaimed series Freeman s Love asks this question bringing together literary heavyweights like Tommy Orange Anne Carson Louise Erdrich and Nobel Prize winner Olga Tokarczuk alongside emerging writers such as Gunnhild yehaug and Semezdin Mehmedinovic Mehmedinovic contributes a breathtaking book length essay on the aftermath of his wife s stroke describing how the two reassembled their lives outside their home country of Bosnia Richard Russo s charming and painful Good People introduces us to two sets of married professors who have been together for decades and for whom love still exists but between the wrong pair Haruki Murakami tells the tale of a one night stand that feels like a dying sun Together the pieces comprise a stunning exploration of the complexities of love tracing it from its earliest stirrings to the forbidden places where it emerges against reason to loss so deep it changes the color of perception In a time when we need it the most this issue promises what only love can bring a solace of complexity and warmth The anthology packs an emotional wallop from the start Shelf Awareness      Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Twentieth Century Eric L. Haralson,2014-01-21 The Encyclopedia of American Poetry The Twentieth Century contains over 400 entries that treat a broad range of individual poets and poems along with many articles devoted to topics schools or periods of American verse in the century Entries fall into three main categories poet entries which provide biographical and cultural contexts for the author s career entries on individual works which offer closer explication of the most resonant poems in the 20th century canon and topical entries which offer analyses of a given period of literary production school thematically constructed category or other verse tradition that historically has been in dialogue with the poetry of the United States
