

Liberation Lite

The Roots of Recolonization in Southern Africa

John S Saul

Based on his almost half century of immense political and intellectual contributions to African liberation struggles, John Saul once again shows that he is one of the few today who has the courage as well as the credentials to pose the sober question of 'what did "liberation" mean anyway'? What is more, John Saul also shows here that he is one of the few with the confidence as well as the capacity to answer the question by drawing inspirational and strategic socialist and revolutionary conclusions.

Recolonization Or Liberation Ecumenical Coalition for Economic Justice,1990-01-01      To Set the Captives Free

Oscar L. Arnal,1998 Oscar Cole Arnal is Professor of Church History at the Waterloo Lutheran Seminary      Religion and The Transformation of Capitalism Richard H. Roberts,2012-10-02 This book addresses from a socio scientific standpoint the interaction of religions and forms of contemporary capitalism Contributors explore a wide range of interactions between economic systems and their socio cultural contexts      Conflicts of Interest Jamie Swift,Brian Tomlinson,2011-04-30 Ten activists scholars and writers analyze contemporary development issues linking Canada and the Third World      Schooling and Education in Africa George Jerry Sefa Dei,2004 Using the Ghanaian schooling experience as a case study this book explores how research can contribute to the development of a body of knowledge for educational change in Africa Education in Africa is often said to be in a crisis caused in part by the colonial legacy but also due to inappropriate and uncontextualised current educational policies in relation to local human conditions and African realities This book offers a critical analysis of current educational reform strategies and the actual practice of reform in an African context      Essays on the Quality of Life Alex C. Michalos,2013-04-17 Since initiating the journal Social Indicators Research in 1974 Alex C Michalos has been a pioneer in social indicators and quality of life research This collection of nineteen articles provides an overview of nearly 30 years of work including papers drawn from diverse sources and papers never published before Topics range over quality of life investigations connected to the problems of combining social economic and environmental indicators measuring the status of women in Canada housing and migration health and human well being older peoples well being leisure activities and health impact of public services police services criminal victimization feminism and ethnic relations on the quality of life The final paper on multiple discrepancies theory MDT is the author s unique contribution to an empirically testable new foundation for theories of utility satisfaction and happiness      The Market Tells Them So John Mihevc,1995 Focuses on 1 theological dimensions of the structural adjustment vision promoted by the World Bank for Africa 2 criticism of structural adjustment from social scientific perspectives and 3 religious responses to this agenda that have emerged from churches and church based movements in Africa      In Service and Servitude Christine B. N. Chin,1998 Examining how the shared interests of state elites and the middle classes rationalize mistreatment of domestic workers the author argues that the premodern exploitation of migrant domestic workers is at odds with the global expansion of open markets and free trade      A Pragmatic Approach to Business Ethics Alex C. Michalos,1995-02-23 A pragmatic approach to business ethics is argued for in this volume which demonstrates the usefulness of the approach by applying it to a variety of issues These issues are broad and far reaching and include the relations between rational and moral ethical decision making the limits of loyalty to employers the impact of trust on business and the role of commercial public opinion polling during elections The author also covers advertising tobacco promotion manufacture and marketing of armaments concentration and taxation of wealth and the North American Free Trade Agreement      Free Trade and Faithful Globalization Amy Reynolds, 2015 Through an analysis of Christian communities in the United States Canada and Costa Rica this book analyzes how religious groups talk about the politics surrounding economic life Amy Reynolds examines how these Christian organizations speak about trade and the economy as moral and value laden spaces deserving ethical reflection and requiring political action She reveals the ways in which religious communities have asked people to engage in new approaches to thinking about the market and how they have worked to create alternative networks and policies governing economic and social life      Government-NGO

Relations in Asia Noeleen Heyzer, 1996-01-12 Governments and NGOs non governmental organizations in Asia face critical development challenges This volume examines ways to improve the policy environment for NGOs in Asia so that they may contribute more effectively to the development process The contributors identify the main factors which influence the policy environment for NGOs characterize and compare the political space for NGOs examine the roles that governments and international development agencies can play in supporting NGOs and propose possible strategies and policy guidelines for improving government NGO relations in Asia      Clothed in Integrity Barbara Paleczny, 2006-01-01 Barbara Paleczny herself a daughter of garment workers tugs at the threads of homeworking in the garment industry to reveal a low wage strategy that rends the fabric of social integrity and exposes global trends The resurgence of sweatshops affects the working poor in both first and third world countries Paleczny assesses the responsibility of transnational retailers for unacceptable wages and working conditions and describes historic shifts in the global context of garment production After exploring systemic causes of poverty relevant policy setting and ethical foundations Paleczny introduces both short and long range possibilities for transformation emphasizing the collaborative nature of work Clothed in Integrity draws on feminist studies alternative economics and the ethical foundations proposed by Bernard Lonergan to fashion a constructive work in which Paleczny connects issues of societal meanings and values moral imperatives and economic feasibility With candour she shares personal stories of engagement in coalition work Those who dwell on this text will find information challenges and inspiration to nurture their reflection research dialogue and action      ZWRCN Bibliographies: Women and structural adjustment , 1994

National Report and Plan of Action on Shelter and Human Settlements to the Second United Nations Conference on Human Settlements (Habitat II) , 1995      Toronto Journal of Theology , 1991      Canadian and international education , 1993      New Society Robert J. Brym, 1998      The Cancer Stage of Capitalism John McMurtry, 1998-12-10 In this bold new look at the recent uncontrolled spread of global capitalism John McMurtry professor of philosophy at the University of Guelph develops the metaphor of modern capitalism as a cancer Its invasive growth he argues threatens to break down our society s immune system and if not soon restrained could reverse all the progress that has been made toward social equity and stability On every continent in every state there are indicators of profound economic and environmental collapse From the lands of indigenous communities to the currency markets of Asia from the ocean floors to the ozone layer the collapse is all encompassing and deep reaching John McMurtry traces the causes of this global disorder back to the mutating assumptions of market theory that now govern the world s economy He diagnoses the malaise as a pathologist would a biological cancer tracking the delinked circuits of the global system s monetised growth as a carcinogenic disorder at the social level of life organization In the wide lensed tradition of Adam Smith Marx and Keynes McMurtry cuts across academic disciplines and boundaries to penetrate the inner logic of the system s problems Far from pessimistic he argues that the way out of the global crisis is to be found in an evolving substructure of history which provides a common ground of resolution across ethnic and national divisions Reaching beyond conventional textbooks this fascinating study offers a new paradigm which is accessible to intelligent citizens the world over
