Martin James, 2011-05-05 The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Angola is a thorough examination of Angola It includes a chronology bibliography maps appendixes and over 600 cross referenced dictionary entries This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Angola

Norway and National Liberation in Southern Africa Tore Linné Eriksen, Nordiska Afrikainstitutet, 2000 This book documents and analyses the involvement of Norway in the liberation struggle in Southern Africa Apart from focussing on the formulation of official policies and the extensive cooperation with the liberation movements in the field of humanitarian assistance mainly based on the Ministry of Foreign Affairs records the study highlights the popular involvement and commitment to the struggle Separate chapters are concerned with the churches trade unions and solidarity movements such as the Norwegian Council for Southern Africa and the Namibia Committee The book also includes a case study on the battle for sanctions The Study forms part of the Nordic Africa Institute's research and documentation project National Liberation in Southern Africa The Role of the Nordic Countries

Sweden and National Liberation in Southern Africa: Formation of a popular opinion (1950-1970) Tor Sellström, 1999 In 1969 the Swedish parliament endorsed a policy of direct assistance to the liberation movements in Southern Africa Sweden thus became the first Western country to enter into a relationship with organizations that elsewhere in the West were shunned as Communist or terrorist This book the first in a two volume study on Sweden the regional struggles for majority rule national independence traces the background to the relationship Presenting the actors factors behind the support to MPLA of Angola FRELIMO of Mozambique SWAPO of Namibia ZANU ZAPU of Zimbabwe ANC of South Africa it addresses the question why Sweden established close relations with the very movements that eventually would assume state power in their respective countries The second volume later this year will discuss how the support was expressed covering the period from 1970 until the democratic elections in South Africa in 1994

The State Against the Peasantry Merle L. Bowen, 2000 Bowen refuses to treat the peasantry as a homogeneous mass

The Pitfalls of Liberal Democracy and Late Nationalism in South Africa M. Muiu, 2008-12-08 This book compares African and Afrikaner nationalisms to demonstrate that the transition from apartheid to liberal democracy in South Africa was a neo colonial settlement that left the economy and the military and security sectors under the control of the white minority while increasing wide socioeconomic disparities between rich and poor

Marxisms in the 21st Century Michelle Williams, Vishwas Satgar, 2013-12-01 The current resurgence of Marxism is based on new sources of inspiration and creativity from movements that seek democratic egalitarian and ecological alternatives to capitalism The Marxism of many of these movements is neither dogmatic nor prescriptive but rather open searching utopian It revolves around four primary factors the importance of democracy for an emancipatory project the ecological limits of capitalism the crisis of global capitalism and the learning of lessons from the failures of Marxist inspired experiments Marxisms in the Twenty First Century challenges vanguardist Marxism featured in South Africa and beyond Featuring leading thinkers from the Left the book offers provocative ideas on interpreting our current world and serves as an excellent introduction to new ways of thinking about Marxism to students and scholars in the field Many anti capitalist traditions and themes including democracy globalisation feminism critique and ecology inform and shape the contributions in this volume

Cuba, Africa, and Apartheid's End Isaac Saney, 2023-01-09 Cuba Africa and Apartheid's End Africa's Children Return examines the history and impressive dimensions of the Cuban Revolution's solidarity with Africa Cuba's role in the southern African national liberation and anti colonial struggle was the largest and most consequential manifestation of the island's commitment to Africa A key moment was the 1987 1988 battle of Cuito Cuanavale which involved Cuba and Angola on one side and South Africa and its allies on the other Cuito Cuanavale contributed the end of apartheid and has assumed legendary status within the Cuban Revolution and the southern African liberation movement

Southern Africa Report, 1993 Decolonisation David Boucher, Ayesha Omar, Christopher Allsobrook, Camilla Boisen, Ndumiso Dladla, Sule Emmanuel Egga, Michael Elliott, Steven Friedman, Amber Murrey, Paul Patton, Chris Saunders, Ian S Spears, 2023-10 Multidisciplinary scholars showcase their search for decolonial strategies from within their disciplinary focus covering ideas such as the different layers at which colonialism operates strategies for a decolonisation that does not recolonise and the importance of preserving and publishing in indigenous languages Decolonisation explores questions of justice injustice and inhumanity that have geographically and intellectually shaped the course of history through overlapping colonial decolonial and postcolonial eras This multidisciplinary collection uses the lenses of history philosophy literature and education to examine aspects of colonialism and decolonisation and their revolutionary and evolutionary manifestations which contributors argue occurred simultaneously in the historical and epistemological record The problems that come into focus have a kaleidoscopic effect on how we come to understand fraught issues from the invention of blacks to the formulation of the ideology of trusteeship and the obligations to lower civilisations Decolonisation brings together an internationally renowned group of scholars to showcase their search for decolonial strategies within their disciplinary focus covering ideas such as the different layers at which colonialism operates strategies for a decolonisation that does not recolonise and the importance of preserving and publishing in indigenous languages This is a much needed book for students and scholars in the field of decolonisation history philosophy and pedagogy The introductory offers a clear and concise primer to this complex subject covering colonialism imperialism decoloniality and the various actors involved Publisher's description The South African Communist Party Thomas Stanley

Kolasa,2016-01-11 Since the collapse of communism in Eastern Europe in the early 1990s communist parties are widely regarded as passe or irrelevant But these parties still exist act and sometimes thrive in various corners of the world This comprehensive history describes how the South African Communist Party has not only survived but flourished in a harsh political environment Formed in 1921 as an umbrella organization of leftist groups the SACP for decades fought against the racist Apartheid regime ascending to power in 1994 with its senior alliance partner the African National Congress

Approaching its centennial the SACP now faces possibly its greatest challenge working towards a socialist future for South Africa while governing a diverse and complex capitalist country Twentieth-Century Marxism Daryl Glaser,David M. Walker,2007-09-12 Divided into three parts examining Marxism historically geographically and thematically this book outlines and assesses the Marxist tradition as it developed in the twentieth century and considers its place and standing as we move into the twenty first century Sweden and National Liberation in Southern Africa Tor Sellström,1999 In 1969 the Swedish parliament endorsed a policy of direct assistance to the liberation movements in Southern Africa Sweden thus became the first Western country to enter into a relationship with organizations that elsewhere in the West were shunned as Communist or terrorist This book the first in a two volume study on Sweden the regional struggles for majority rule national independence traces the background to the relationship Presenting the actors factors behind the support to MPLA of Angola FRELIMO of Mozambique SWAPO of Namibia ZANU ZAPU of Zimbabwe ANC of South Africa it addresses the question why Sweden established close relations with the very movements that eventually would assume state power in their respective countries The second volume later this year will discuss how the support was expressed covering the period from 1970 until the democratic elections in South Africa in 1994 Laws and Societies in Global Contexts Eve

Darian-Smith,2013-01-31 This text promotes a more global sociolegal perspective that engages with multiple laws and societies and diverse sociolegal systems based on very different historical and cultural traditions interacting on multiple local national and global levels The approach to global legal pluralism seeks to provide a framework for envisioning new global governance regimes that move beyond state based solutions to deal with trenchant transnational challenges Dams,

Displacement, and the Delusion of Development Allen F. Isaacman,Barbara S. Isaacman,2013-04-10 Cahora Bassa Dam on the Zambezi River built in the early 1970s during the final years of Portuguese rule was the last major infrastructure project constructed in Africa during the turbulent era of decolonization Engineers and hydrologists praised the dam for its technical complexity and the skills required to construct what was then the world's fifth largest mega dam Portuguese colonial officials cited benefits they expected from the dam from expansion of irrigated farming and European settlement to improved transportation throughout the Zambezi River Valley to reduced flooding in this area of unpredictable rainfall The project however actually resulted in cascading layers of human displacement violence and environmental destruction Its electricity benefited few Mozambicans even after the former guerrillas of FRELIMO Frente de Libertação de Moambique came to power instead it fed industrialization in apartheid South Africa Richard Roberts This in depth study of the region examines the dominant developmentalist narrative that has surrounded the dam chronicles the continual violence that has accompanied its existence and gives voice to previously unheard narratives of forced labor displacement and historical and contemporary life in the dam's shadow Culture and Customs of Mozambique George Ndege, 2006-11-30 The decades long civil war ended in 1992 in Mozambique a southeastern African nation once ruled by the Portuguese The country now attracts foreign investment and has one of the fastest growing economies in Africa Culture and Customs of Mozambique is a timely overview of an important nation as it rebuilds The thorough narrative is the most up date and authoritative source on Mozambique's society Ndege covers the land and history and especially clarifies the multiethnic society which comprises sixteen ethnic groups most of which are of Bantu origin Each group speaks its own language and some clans within each group speak different dialects of the same language He discusses the migration of these groups into Mozambique from southern Africa and their absorption of disparate and small communities as well as their diverse cultural customs and practices Most important the Zambezi valley which has for centuries been a meeting place of many different societies is significant in understanding the nature and pattern of settlement of various ethnic communities in modern day Mozambique Readers will learn about the young population and the migration to cities today The importance of the family and the changes to the family and gender roles brought on by education urbanization migration and religion are discussed Other coverage includes the role of Islam and Christianity the importance of art indigenous oral and modern literature and media a wide range of celebrations and leisure activities ceremonies and cuisine unique music and dance and more Encyclopedia of Conflicts Since World War II James Ciment, 2015-03-27 Thoroughly revised to include 25 conflicts not covered in the previous edition as well as expanded and updated information on previous coverage this illustrated reference presents descriptions and analyses of more than 170 significant post World War II conflicts around the globe Organized by region for ease of access Encyclopedia of Conflicts Since World War II Second Edition provides clear in depth explanations of events not covered in such detail in any other reference source Including more than 180 detailed maps and 150 photos the set highlights the conflicts that dominate today's headlines and the events that changed the course of late twentieth century history Exile Identity, Agency and Belonging in South Africa Zosa De Sas Kropiwnicki, 2017-07-13 This book examines the experiences of 49 second generation exiles from South Africa Using generation as an analytical concept it investigates the relational temporal and embodied nature of their childhoods in terms of kinship relations life cycle cohort development and memory making It reveals how child agents exploited the liminal nature of exile to negotiate their sense of identity home and belonging while also struggling over their position and power in formal Politics and informal politics of the everyday It also reflects upon their political consciousness identity and sense of civic duty on return to post apartheid South Africa and how this has led to the emergence of the Masupatsela generational cohort concerned with driving social and political change in South Africa
