Sugirtharajah Elsa Tamez Mark Lewis Taylor Emilie M Townes Desmond Tutu Bernd Wannenwetsch Graham Ward George Weigel Delores S Williams Rowan Williams Walter Wink John Howard Yoder Kim Yong Bock What About Me? Women and the Catholic Church Sharon Tighe-Mooney, 2018-03-09 One woman's investigation of the role of women in the Christian Church since its inception as she counters the Roman Catholic church's argument for excluding them from the priesthood Details the gradual exclusion of women from positions of power as the Roman Catholic Church evolved Accessible account from the viewpoint of an ordinary woman in the Church Cover quotes from Mary McAleese Fr Tony Flannery and Mary T Malone What About Me Women and the Catholic Church is an exploration by an ordinary woman born into the Catholic faith of the arguments given to exclude her from ministry Using her research skills Sharon examines the New Testament Christian writings and Papal documents It is a personal quest to shed light on the story of women in the Christian movement from its earliest days to the present The objective of the book is to explore inform speculate and question and it should appeal to a general audience The context of the book is the 2010 move by Pope Benedict XVI to elevate the crime of ordaining women to Catholic ministry and the subsequent censoring of religious personnel who questioned this edict This book details a quest to find out where the strong antipathy towards women in the Roman Catholic Church's institutional mindset comes from No Future Without Forgiveness Desmond Tutu, 2009-02-04 The establishment of South Africa's Truth and Reconciliation Commission was a pioneering international event Never had any country sought to move forward from despotism to democracy both by exposing the atrocities committed in the past and achieving reconciliation with its former oppressors At the center of this unprecedented attempt at healing a nation has been Archbishop Desmond Tutu whom President Nelson Mandela named as Chairman of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission With the final report of the Commission just published Archbishop Tutu offers his reflections on the profound wisdom he has gained by helping usher South Africa through this painful experience In No Future Without Forgiveness Tutu argues that true reconciliation cannot be achieved by denying the past But nor is it easy to reconcile when a nation looks the beast in the eye Rather than repeat platitudes about forgiveness he presents a bold spirituality that recognizes the horrors people can inflict upon one another and yet retains a sense of idealism about reconciliation With a clarity of pitch born out of decades of experience Tutu shows readers how to move forward with honesty and compassion to build a newer and more humane world The Spirituality of Married Life John Cogavin, 2014-07-01 We all know that the perfect family does not exist nor a perfect husband or wife Pope Francis Feb 2014 In his thought provoking book John Cogavin sets out to demonstrate how every wife and husband despite imperfections can deepen and develop their relationship through their spirituality Reflecting on personal Christian and married spirituality the book goes on to delve into the timeless question What is Love It facilitates the couple as they journey together on their special path exploring each other's individual uniqueness as human and spiritual beings Tracing the history and significance of marriage in society the book unfolds the fundamentals of the commitment of love involving the totality of each person

Showing how as a couple grow in friendship fun and freedom they become what it is they wish to be in their own space time and place A place where each can be vulnerable feel like they belong and in a communion of hearts surrender to the other in the intimacy of love The Spirituality of Married Life can give a once in a life time opportunity to step back from the hectic pace of life to reflect on your own spirituality from a holistic and married perspective The book will help those preparing for marriage others setting out on the journey and those couples seeking added spiritual richness within their relationships John writes from his own life experience He is married to Elaine and they have three adult sons The book reflects their search together as a couple supporting each other in finding real meaning and purpose in their married life Listening to Your Life Julia Mourant,2017-04-12 For those exploring a sense of call to ordained ministry another vocation or a change of direction spiritual director Julia Mourant provides thirty simple spiritual exercises for exploration and discernment each one rooted in intuitive understanding and God given inner wisdom The Moral Heart of Public Service Claire Foster-Gilbert,2017-06-21 One year after Brexit a stellar cast of eminent contributors from politics public service and religion explore why now more than ever public servants must consider and reassess how to keep moral courage in public life alive

The Cost of Certainty Jeremy Young,2006-01-25 This book critically explores the Christian teaching of God's unconditional love The author argues for the recovery of a spirituality of uncertainty and unconditional love as a basis for a renewal of contemporary Christian faith and practice Us Versus Us Andrew Marin,2016 Would you believe that 86 percent of LGBT people from the proud marcher at the Pride Parade to the quiet closeted teen spent their childhood in church More than half of them left those religious communities as adults three out of four would be happy to come back For decades now we have found our selves caught up in a culture war us versus them Good news there is no them Our culture war has been a civil war Us versus Us And there is a path toward meaningful peace Andrew Marin brings the startling findings of his largest ever scientific survey of the religious history practices and beliefs of the LGBT community Marin's findings offer clear direction for both sides of a long cultural battle to meet in the middle sacrificing neither conviction nor integrity as they rediscover the things they have in common and the hope found in Christ alone Original groundbreaking research into the religious lives and beliefs of the LGBT community Self/Same/Other Heather Walton,Andrew W. Hass,2000-03-01 This collection of essays explores the way our notions of self other subjectivity gender and the sacred text are being re-visioned within contemporary theory These new ways of conceiving create upheavals and radical shifts that rework our understanding of philosophical psychological political sexual and spiritual identity allowing us to trace the fault lines regulatory forces exclusions and unmarked spaces both within our selves and within the discourses that attend these selves As such revisionings break down borders and the encounter of literature and theology becomes a crucial focus for these explorations as the self learns to resituate its own being creatively vis a vis others and ultimately the Other Church Dogmatics The Doctrine of Reconciliation, Volume 4, Part 2 Karl Barth,Thomas Forsyth Torrance,2004-01-30 Described by

Pope Pius XII as the most important theologian since Thomas Aquinas the Swiss pastor and theologian Karl Barth continues to be a major influence on students scholars and preachers today Barth s theology found its expression mainly through his closely reasoned fourteen part magnum opus Die Kirchliche Dogmatik Having taken over 30 years to write the Church Dogmatics is regarded as one of the most important theological works of all time and represents the pinnacle of Barth s achievement as a theologian T T Clark International is now proud to be publishing the only complete English translation of the Church Dogmatics in paperback

By One Spirit Lorraine Cavanagh,2009 This is a book for anyone seeking a way out of deadlock in Church conflict situations In employing a contemplative approach to the conflict in the Anglican Communion it shows how relationships can be rebuilt with affection leading to trust The author argues for reconciliation which comes with a renewed awareness of the dynamic activity of the Holy Spirit in the Church s life of communion The present conflict has blocked this activity stifling the Church s intellectual life by reducing it to a matter of issue driven politics which have seriously undermined its relationships The book offers the Anglican Communion the possibility of renewing its life together in a deeper and more apophatic encounter with God in which the certainties which divide it are set aside while the Church rediscovers the genuine bonds of affection which until now have held it together This it argues is the work which needs to be undertaken before a Covenant is put in place if the Anglican Communion is to continue to reveal the Gospel in ways which are meaningful for a constantly changing and fragmented world

The Road from Ardoyne Ray Mac Mánaís,2004 Mary McAleese Ireland s President has a longstanding interest in many issues concerned with justice equality social inclusion anti sectarianism and reconciliation She was a member of the Catholic Church Episcopal Delegation to the New Ireland Forum in 1984 and she was a founder member of the Irish Commission for the Prisoners Overseas on 11 November 1997 she became the first President to come from Northern Ireland and has enjoyed a remarkably high approval rating in opinion polls
