Ecclesiology and Postmodernity Gerard Mannion, 2017-01-13 What in the world is postmodernity Is it the dominant reality today If it is what does it mean to be a church in a postmodern world It seems that the church had a difficult time coming to terms with a modern world an era ruled by the claims of scientific certainty Having done so more or less it is now confronted by the claims of postmodernity which seem to reverse the whole equation to say that certainty and objectivity are chimeras What is truth Pilate asked and postmodernity at least as caricatured by its opponents responds There s no such thing Gerard Mannion in Ecclesiology and Postmodernity addresses the situation of the church in a postmodern world The fundamental changes in human society and culture wrought by the twentieth century require the church to consider its response in the twenty first century What is the church s moral Vision how does its practice look what is the nature of its aspiration toward holiness in our times Mannion believes that since Vatican II the Catholic Church has been in a kind of limbo awaiting a Vision of its own life for the future Rather than focusing on specific controversies Mannion offers concrete suggestions about how the church can create a better harmony between its own self understanding its ecclesiological Vision and its day to day life its ecclesial practice Gerard Mannion PhD educated at King s College Cambridge University and New College Oxford University is Associate Professor of Ecclesiology and Ethics in the Department of Theology and Religious Studies at Liverpool Hope University UK He is also the director of Church In Our Times Centre for the Study of Contemporary Ecclesiology co director of the Applied Ethics Initiative at Liverpool Hope co chair of the AAR American Academy of Religion Ecclesiological Investigations Program Unit and co ordinator of the Ecclesiological Investigations International Research Network Mannion is the author of Schopenhauer Religion and Morality and co editor of Readings in Church Authority Gifts and Challenges for

Navigating Postmodern Theology Michael J. McGrahey, 2023-07-03 Theology in the postmodern era has encountered various cultural and narrative shifts which have helped shape the Roman Catholic Church and Christianity at large Negatively the Church has been affected by external factors e.g. globalization immigration emigration increased access to technology etc and internal struggles e.g. reduced church attendance an aging population etc Positively postmodernity has ushered in a return to religion through new philosophical and theological ideas e.g. phenomenology existentialism post metaphysics etc This book aims to contribute to the ongoing postmodern concerns addressed in the cultural and narrative shifts by focusing on the work of Jean Luc Marion and Gianni Vattimo The emphasis of this project focuses on the use of metaphysics as the foundational tool of theology and its corresponding limitations while also addressing the Christian virtue of caritas Addressing this attribute of Christianity this project observes the possibility of a return to religion one that reflects the postmodern exploration of religion by the several philosophers addressed herein While Michael J McGrahey avoids offering a reconstruction of theology or more specifically ecclesiology he aims to re establish the importance of philosophy metaphysics and caritas in the postmodern context

Critical Essays on Edward Schillebeeckx's Theology Cornelius C. Simut, 2010-02-18 This book presents the main teachings of Edward Schillebeeckx widely considered one of the most important Catholic thinkers of the twentieth century Schillebeeckx is known for his radical departure from traditional theology which he saw as no longer relevant to the modern world Because today's world has been shaped by a process of secularization heavily based on reason and progress in science technology economics urbanism etc modern people seek relevant answers to their deep existential questions that can be explained rationally In his quest to foster relevant and meaningful answers for today's world Schillebeeckx changed the traditional metaphysical content of Christian theology into explanations that radically reinterpret traditional Christian doctrines Primarily the supernatural essence of Christianity is given up as irrelevant and is replaced by a natural perspective on the world In Schillebeeckx's thoroughly historical and truly immanent theology God is man's terrestrial future Christ the symbol of universal human values and the Church is identified with the world as those communities which share these universal human values Schillebeeckx is convinced that these explanations emptied of metaphysical content can help today's people understand their existence in a new relevant and meaningful way

Drawn from Shadows Into Truth Ray Ryland, 2013 Autobiographical narrative of the author's spiritual pilgrimage from an Oklahoma farm boy to a naval officer to a Protestant minister to a married Catholic priest

Towards a Truly Catholic Church Thomas P. Rausch, 2005 Ecclesiology which takes into account the Second Vatican Council ecumenism and globalization Provided by publisher From Maintenance to Mission Robert S. Rivers, 2005 Evangelization contrary to what many people believe is not just a Protestant concern in fact writes Robert Rivers it is Catholic to the core In this practical approachable work he suggests that the Catholic parish is a wonderful setting to carry out the evangelizing work of the church He makes the case that evangelization holds the key to the future of the church because it was in fact the centerpiece of post Vatican Council reform Drawing from the USCCB document Go and Make Disciples which offers a comprehensive plan and strategy for evangelization he explores ways to challenge us to become Catholic evangelizers And he proposes ways to move from maintenance to mission oriented parishes My purpose affirms the author is to try to place before the reader a compelling vision of Catholic evangelization and share some strategic thinking that might enable us to implement the great vision to which we have been called He attains that goal convincingly practically and hopefully

The Crisis of Authority in Catholic Modernity Michael J. Lacey, Francis Oakley, 2011-04-06 One deep problem facing the Catholic church is the question of how its teaching authority is understood today It is fairly clear that while Rome continues to teach as if its authority were unchanged from the days before Vatican II 1962-65 the majority of Catholics within the first world church at least take a far more independent line and increasingly understand themselves rather than the church as the final arbiters of decision making especially on ethical questions This collection of essays explores the historical background and present ecclesial situation explaining the dramatic shift in attitude on the part of contemporary Catholics in the U S and Europe The overall purpose is neither to justify nor to repudiate the authority of the church's hierarchy but to cast some light on the context within which it operates the complexities and ambiguities of the historical tradition of belief and behavior it speaks for and the kinds of limits it confronts consciously or otherwise The authors do not hope to fix problems although some of the essays make suggestions but to contribute to a badly needed intra Catholic dialogue without which they believe problems will continue to fester and solutions will remain elusive

Evangelization Ronald D. Witherup, 2013-09-01 To some the New Evangelization seems to mean warmed over and outdated apologetics that rarely resonate with people today But that approach fails to do justice to what evangelization is really all about In Saint Paul and the New Evangelization one of today's most respected Scripture scholars offers a far richer more deeply biblical approach Ronald D Witherup SS analyzes the techniques of one of the church's best evangelists Paul of Tarsus to show how we can help reinvigorate the faith of friends and loved ones You don't need to know a lot about the Bible or theology Just follow St Paul's inspiring example and discover how to talk about your faith in ways that change hearts and minds Who is Jesus? Thomas P. De Mey, 2003 This collection of articles presents the main contributions to the third LEST Louvain Encounters in Systematic Theology conference held at the KU Leuven's Faculty of Theology November 2001 Its theme Theology and Conversation Towards a Relational Theology continues the explorations in contemporary theology as set out in the 1997 LEST I conference on The Myriad Christ BETL 152 and in the 1999 LEST II conference on Sacramental Presence in Postmodern Context BETL 160 In LEST III also the plurality and diversity of theological approaches play a major role and the question is raised whether the contemporary theological endeavour in a global world contains in itself the tools to respectfully and constructively approach this diversity The ideas of relation and conversation as found in the theologies of the Trinity and of creation as presupposed in ecclesial praxis and as articulated in reflections that take their bearings from spiritual experience provide a powerful means for renewed theological reflection capable of confronting plurality and diversity

Ryan, 2020-08-10 In Hermeneutics of Doctrine in a Learning Church Gregory A Ryan offers an account of the dynamic multi dimensional task of interpreting Christian tradition He integrates doctrinal hermeneutics the pastorality of doctrine exemplified by Pope Francis and a systematic appraisal of Receptive Ecumenism to provide an original perspective on this task The book focuses on three contemporary Catholic theologians Francis Sch ssler Fiorenza Ormond Rush and Paul D Murray highlighting how each recognises the dynamic interaction of multiple perspectives involved in authentic ecclesial interpretation Christian tradition whether passed on in teaching scripture practices or structures needs to be continually received and interpreted This book offers theologians ecumenists and church workers a fresh model for receptive ecclesial learning in which doctrinal hermeneutics and pastoral realities are dynamically integrated
