Reconstructing the Historical Discourse of Traditional Chinese Fiction Liang Shi, 2002 Reconstructing the Historical Discourse of Traditional Chinese Fiction Liang Shi, 2002 Liang Shi teaches Chinese language and literature at Miami University Ohio The Unworthy Scholar from Pingjiang John Christopher Hamm, 2019-08-27 Xiang Kairan who wrote under the pen name the Unworthy Scholar from Pingjiang is remembered as the father of modern Chinese martial arts fiction one of the most distinctive forms of twentieth century Chinese culture and the inspiration for China's globally popular martial arts cinema In this book John Christopher Hamm shows how Xiang Kairan's work and career offer a new lens on the transformations of fiction and popular culture in early twentieth century China The Unworthy Scholar from Pingjiang situates Xiang Kairan's career in the larger contexts of Republican era China's publishing industry literary debates and political and social history At a time when writers associated with the New Culture movement promoted an aggressively modernizing vision of literature Xiang Kairan consciously cultivated his debt to homegrown narrative traditions Through careful readings of Xiang Kairan's work Hamm demonstrates that his writings far from being the formally fossilized and ideologically regressive relics their critics denounced represent a creative engagement with contemporary social and political currents and the demands and possibilities of an emerging cultural marketplace Hamm takes martial arts fiction beyond the confines of genre studies to situate it within a broader reexamination of Chinese literary modernity The first monograph on Xiang Kairan's fiction in any language The Unworthy Scholar from Pingjiang rewrites the history of early twentieth century Chinese literature from the standpoints of genre fiction and commercial publishing The Routledge Companion to Literature and Class Gloria McMillan, 2021-09-01 The Routledge Companion to Literature and Class offers a comprehensive and fresh assessment of the cultural impact of class in literature analyzing various innovative interdisciplinary approaches of textual analysis and intersections of literature including class subjectivities mental health gender and queer studies critical race theory quantitative and scientific methods and transnational perspectives in literary analysis Utilizing these new methods and interdisciplinary maps from field defining essayists students will become aware of ways to bring these elusive texts into their own writing as one of the parallel perspectives through which to view literature This volume will provide students with an insight into the history of the intersections of class theory of class and invisibility in literature and new trends in exploring class in literature These multidimensional approaches to literature will be a crucial resource for undergraduate and graduate students becoming familiar with class analysis and will offer seasoned scholars the most significant critical approaches in class studies Classical Chinese Supernatural Fiction Xiaohuan Zhao, 2005 This is the first attempt ever made at a systematic analysis of classical Chinese supernatural fiction known as zhiguai under the morphological framework designed by Vladimir Propp 1928 and later developed by Alan Dundes 1964 The focus is on a synchronic presentation of textual features and structural patterns of zhiguai fiction but the book includes a general review of zhiguai literature from Sahnhai

Jin to Liao zhai Zhiyi A New Literary History of Modern China David Der-wei Wang, 2017-05-22 Featuring over 140 Chinese and non Chinese contributors this landmark volume edited by David Der wei Wang explores unconventional forms as well as traditional genres emphasizes Chinese authors influence on foreign writers as well as China s receptivity to outside literary influences and offers vibrant contrasting voices and points of view Sungkyun Journal of East Asian Studies, 2005 The Confucian Shi, Official Service, and the Confucian Analects Shirley Chan, 2004 The Confucian Lunyu The Analects is perhaps the most important text in the Confucian canon Scholars have studied it and written about it for two millennia but little careful historical analysis has been done on the text especially from the perspective of a particular social group In this work the Lunyu is interpreted from the perspective of the social group known as shi officers or potential officers Confucius and his disciples all living between the late Chunqiu or Spring and Autumn period 770 481 B C and the Zhanguo or Warring States period 481 221 B C were members of the shi class and the Lunyu records anecdotes about them as well as their conversations and statements said to have originated with them The contribution of this study to the field of scholarship is two fold It clarifies the meaning of the term shi variously translated as scholar man of service man of excellence and officer that has been rendered ambiguous in Chinese classical literature because its terms of reference have changed over time text by providing a historical context from the perspective of the shi as a social group and allows us to explain some of the inconsistencies in the text This work also addresses some controversial claims presented in the work of Robert Eno and Bruce and Taeko Brooks Given the central canonical status of the Lunyu this new analysis of the text will be of interest to scholars concerned with the history of Chinese thought Book Review Index, 2003 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation The Making and Remaking of China's "Red Classics" Rosemary Roberts, Li Li, 2017-10-19 The Making and Remaking of China s Red Classics is the first full length work to bring together research on the red classics across the entire Maoist period through to the reform era It covers a representative range of genres including novels short stories films TV series picture books animation and traditional style paintings Collectively the chapters offer a panoramic view of the production and reception of the original red classics and the adaptations and remakes of such works after the Cultural Revolution The contributors present fascinating stories of how a work came to be regarded as or failed to become a red classic There has never been a single answer to the question of what counts as a red classic artists had to negotiate the changing political circumstances and adopt the correct artistic technique to bring out the authentic image of the people while appealing to the taste of the mass audience at the same time A critical examination of these works reveals their sociopolitical and ideological import aesthetic significance and function as a mass cultural phenomenon at particular historical moments This volume marks a step forward in the growing field of the study of Maoist cultural products The Making and Remaking of China s Red Classics analyzes the creation of literature in the Maoist era as well as the way in which the revolutionary canon was rediscovered and imagined during the reform period This book is a timely and fascinating set of studies critically
