Voss, 2015-03-31 This pioneering work of historical archaeology sheds light on the genesis of the Californios a community of military settlers who forged a new identity on the northwest edge of Spanish North America The revised edition includes a new preface from the author looking at the development of ethnogenesis theory since the first edition of this book Advances in Signal Processing and Intelligent Recognition Systems Sabu M. Thampi, Oge Marques, Sri Krishnan, Kuan-Ching Li, Domenico Ciuonzo, Maheshkumar H. Kolekar, 2019-01-05 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 4th International Symposium on Advances in Signal Processing and Intelligent Recognition Systems SIRS 2018 held in Bangalore India in September 2018 The 28 revised full papers and 11 revised short papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 92 submissions The papers cover wide research fields including information retrieval human computer interaction HCI information extraction speech recognition Rethinking the Andes–Amazonia Divide Adrian J. Pearce, David G. Beresford-Jones, Paul Heggarty, 2020-10-21 Nowhere on Earth is there an ecological transformation so swift and so extreme as between the snow line of the high Andes and the tropical rainforest of Amazonia The different disciplines that research the human past in South America have long tended to treat these two great subzones of the continent as self contained enough to be taken independently of each other Objections have repeatedly been raised however to warn against imagining too sharp a divide between the people and societies of the Andes and Amazonia when there are also clear indications of significant connections and transitions between them Rethinking the Andes Amazonia Divide brings together archaeologists linguists geneticists anthropologists ethnohistorians and historians to explore both correlations and contrasts in how the various disciplines see the relationship between the Andes and Amazonia from deepest prehistory up to the European colonial period The volume emerges from an innovative programme of conferences and symposia conceived explicitly to foster awareness discussion and co operation across the divides between disciplines Underway since 2008 this programme has already yielded major publications on the Andean past including History and Language in the Andes 2011 and Archaeology and Language in the Andes 2012 Reconstructing Past Monastic Life: Volume 2: Diet, Landscape and Monastic Space Lluís Lloveras, Carme Rissech, Jordi Nadal, Philip Banks, 2025-07-31 Explores the organization of diet food practices water management and spatial use within historical monastic complexes and landscapes Monasticism is a form of religious life in which participants renounce worldly activities to dedicate themselves primarily to spiritual matters living in small communities subject to a set of rules and isolated from the secular world Christian monasticism which originated at the end of the 3rd century in Egypt and North Africa spread to different parts of Europe in the 6th century However it was not until the Middle Ages that monastic communities became one of the most powerful institutions in Europe Monasteries and convents played a very important role not only as centers of spirituality but also as focal points of economic technological and cultural activity This multiplicity of activities carried out alongside their religious social and political roles make monasteries spaces that can be studied from very different perspectives and that unfailingly provide essential information about our history This second of two titles originates from an international conference that took place in Barcelona in January 2024 which sought to examine different aspects related to monastic life in the past and to promote and disseminate the results obtained in the latest studies undertaken within the framework of monastic complexes and their environments These include contributions and multidisciplinary studies from archaeological bioanthropological and or documentary perspectives Specialists from different disciplines present developments on the topic of monasticism from different fields of study such as zooarchaeology bioanthropology palaeopathology archaeology history documentary disciplines archives cultural heritage etc Volume 2 focuses on diet food practices water management and the organization and use of space within monastic complexes and landscapes Archaeology in Practice Jane Balme, Alistair Paterson, 2009-02-09 Archaeology in Practice A Student Guide to Archaeological Analyses offers students in archaeology laboratory courses a detailed and invaluable how to manual of archaeological methods and provides insight into the breadth of modern archaeology Written by specialists of material analyses whose expertise represents a broad geographic range Includes numerous examples of applications of archaeological techniques Organized by material types such as animal bones ceramics stone artifacts and documentary sources or by themes such as dating ethics and report writing Written accessibly and amply referenced to provide readers with a guide to further resources on techniques and their applications Enlivened by a range of boxed case studies throughout the main text The Ashgate Research Companion to Anthropology Andrew J. Strathern, 2016-03-03 This companion provides an indispensable overview of contemporary and classical issues in social and cultural anthropology Although anthropology has expanded greatly over time in terms of the diversity of topics in which its practitioners engage many of the broad themes and topics at the heart of anthropological thought remain perennially vital such as understanding order and change diversity and continuity and conflict and co operation in the reproduction of social life Bringing together leading scholars in the field the contributors to this volume provide us with thoughtful and fruitful ways of thinking about a number of contemporary and long standing arenas of work where both established and more recent researchers are engaged The companion begins by exploring classic topics such as Religion Rituals Language and Culture Violence and Gender This is followed by a focus on current developments within the discipline including Human Rights Globalization and Diasporas and Cosmopolitanism It provides an interesting and challenging look at the state of current thinking in anthropology serving as a rich resource for scholars and students alike

Silviculture Fernando Allende Álvarez, Gillian Gomez-Mediavilla, Nieves López-Estébanez, 2019-06-05 The history and past management of trees within woodlands are the main objectives of this book The authors show four points of view about one theme silviculture Wood pasture systems of South East England and Northern Italy Spanish pollard forests and Portuguese montado are great examples of European ancient forests Reconstruction of forest ecology management protection and the understanding of these silviculture from different perspectives are the main values of this monograph The authors would like to make all readers aware of the value of ancient forests as cultural and socioecosystem services
