cutting edge edited collection examines the impact of political and social change upon the modern German family By analysing different family structures gender roles social class aspects and children's socialization The Family in Modern

Germany provides a comprehensive and well balanced overview of how different political systems have shaped modern conceptualizations of the family from the bourgeois family ideal right up to recent trends like cohabitation and same sex couples Beginning with an overview of the 19th century family each chapter goes on to examine changes in family type size and structure across the different decades of the 20th century with a focus on the relationship between the family and the state as well as the impact of family policies and laws on the German family Lisa Pine and her expert team of contributors draw on a wealth of primary sources including legal documents diaries letters and interviews and the most up to date secondary literature to shed new light on the continuities and changes in the history of the family in modern and contemporary Germany This book is a fantastic resource for scholars postgraduates and advanced undergraduates studying modern German history sociology and social policy

Family Constellations in Contemporary Ibero-American and Slavic Literatures Anna Artwińska,Ángela Calderón,Jobst Welge,2024-10-07 This volume examines Ibero American as well as Slavic literatures of the 21st century and studies how historical imaginaries in family narratives are functionalized for both individual and collective and post national identities The analysis proceeds along three conceptual axes What these narratives have in common is that they construct specific constellations of the historical imagination and of family whereby family is here conceived not so much as an organic micro unity but rather as changing multiple relations between individual members godparents first and second degree relatives non blood related family members present and absent members adopted children etc Furthermore these novels are often grounded in trans generational memories They are written by members of a generation that as a rule did not directly experience these historical events It is also significant that these narratives are no longer conceived as representing national identities but paradigmatically speak for a collective that defines itself in regional ethnic religious or ideological terms It seems therefore that these narratives of family constellations are in need of more flexible typological rubrics and interpretive frameworks Intended as a sustained comparative study of these family narratives this volume is a contribution in understanding how historical caesura experiences and their literary representation work on the self understanding of the present

The Social Reconstruction of the Feminine Character Sondra Farganis,1996-06-30 A classic in feminist theory The Social Reconstruction of the Feminine Character is a stimulating and thought provoking book that brings to light the ways in which views of women are shaped by concrete conditions It compares feminism to other contemporary social movements that are raising questions about advanced industrial society In this new edition Farganis includes chapters on feminist legal theory and queer theory and updates the chapters on science reason and morality

Postmodern Perspectives on Contemporary Counseling Issues Mark Scholl,James Hansen,2018-04-05 Postmodernism is one of the most revolutionary and transformative ideological movements to emerge in the history of counseling and psychotherapy However descriptions of postmodernism are often abstract and philosophical thereby making it difficult for practitioners to discern concrete ways that the ideology might enrich their ability to help clients In Postmodern

Perspectives on Contemporary Counseling Issues contributions from expert scholars and practitioners clearly detail the implications of postmodern ideology for counseling practice Contemporary issues such as trauma addiction social justice advocacy couples counseling and education are conceptualized within a postmodern context and creative treatment options are illustrated with numerous case examples Although the broad conceptual details of postmodernism are reviewed the primary focus of this text is on innovative ways to help clients with solution focused narrative and other postmodern approaches The rich descriptions of the implementation of postmodern approaches and techniques make it an invaluable training tool for supervisors and counselor educators The book is also ideal for counselors psychotherapists and other helping professionals who would like to bolster and enliven their practice with cutting edge methods tools and techniques derived from postmodern ideology

Modern Reconstruction of Classical Thought: Talcott Parsons Jeffrey Alexander, 2014-04-03 In this volume the author maintains that sociology must learn to combine the insights of both Durkheim and Marx and that it can only do so on the presuppositional ground that Weber set forth Alexander maintains that the idealist and materialist traditions must be transformed into analytic dimensions of multidimensional and synthetic theory This volume focusses on the writing of Talcott Parsons the only modern thinker who can be considered a true peer of the classical founders and examines his own profoundly ambivalent attempt to carry out this analytic transformation

The (Un)Making of the Modern Family Daniel Dagenais, 2009-05-01 The family institution is undergoing a radical transformation The modern meanings of kinship marriage parenthood gender and sexuality are now being questioned and debates on same sex marriages and parenthood or on divorce and blended families are reflective of these challenges The Un Making of the Modern Family is neither an indictment of the new family nor a rallying cry It is a classical exercise of family sociology that draws upon a range of disciplines history anthropology psychology and demography to provide an interpretive model for understanding contemporary changes in the family It explores traditional family forms in order to identify changes that gave birth to the ideal type of the modern family and it discusses how the modern family s constituent elements the family as institution conjugal and parent child relationships and gender and sexuality relate to modernity s central feature the concept of the individual By reconstructing an archetype of the modern family this book explains why individuals have experienced its deconstruction as a profound identity crisis It will appeal to anyone concerned with the future of the post modern family and society Published originally by Les Presses de l Universit Laval as La fin de la famille moderne this book was awarded the 2000 1 Prix Jean Charles Falardeau for the best book published in French in Canada in the field of social sciences

The Reconstruction of White Southern Womanhood, 1865-1895 Jane Turner Censer, 2003-09-30 This impressively researched book tells the important but little known story of elite southern white women s successful quest for a measure of self reliance and independence between antebellum strictures and the restored patriarchy of Jim Crow Profusely illustrated with the experiences of fascinating women in Virginia and North Carolina it presents a compelling new chapter in the history of American women and of the South As were many ideas notions of the ideal woman were in flux after the Civil War While poverty added a harder edge to the search for a good marriage among some southern belles other privileged white women forged identities that challenged the belle model altogether Their private and public writings from the 1870s and 1880s suggest a widespread ethic of autonomy Sometimes that meant increased domestic skills born of the new reality of fewer servants But women also owned and transmitted property worked for pay and even pursued long term careers Many found a voice in a plethora of new voluntary organizations and some southern women attained national celebrity in the literary world creating strong and capable heroines and mirroring an evolving view toward northern society Yet even as elite southern women experimented with their roles external forces and contradictions within their position were making their unprecedented attitudes and achievements socially untenable During the 1890s however virulent racism and pressures to re create a mythic South left these women caught between the revived image of the southern belle and the emerging emancipated woman Just as the memoirs of southern white women have been key to understanding life during the Civil War the writings of such women unlock the years of dramatic change that followed Informed by myriad primary documents Jane Turner Censer immerses us in the world of postwar southern women as they rethought and rebuilt themselves their families and their region during a brief but important period of relative freedom

Reconstruction of Social Work Through

Personalisation Felix. U. A Ugwumadu, 2011-03-15 The growing older people population and their increasing needs for care is now presenting significant difficulties to both national government and local authorities because of constriction of formal caregivers and family units Inevitably a change of this magnitude within the complex system in which older people services operate everywhere attracts a range of responses from the very enthusiastic to the very dismissive and hostile response Thus family directed support care system would provide the possibilities to bridge the gaps within health and social care and the delivery of personalisation for later care for older people in their own home Older people is no longer interested to be cared in an institutional settings but wish their care to be provided by those they know well and who are familiar with their needs and standards they are used to transformation of France but what form it should take remained a question Herrick Chapman charts the course of France's reconstruction from 1944 to 1962 offering insights into the ways the expansion of state power produced fierce controversies at home and unintended consequences abroad in France's crumbling empire Reconstructing the Household Peter W. Bardaglio, 1998-03-01 In Reconstructing the Household Peter Bardaglio examines the connections between race gender sexuality and the law in the nineteenth century South He focuses on miscegenation rape incest child custody and adoption laws to show how southerners struggled with the conflicts and stresses that surfaced within their households and in the larger society during the tumultuous Civil War era Slavery war emancipation and Reconstruction not only shaped relations between blacks and whites but also between women and men parents and children and rich and poor Based on literary as well as legal sources Bardaglio's analysis reveals how legal contests involving these groups led to a rethinking of families sexuality and the social order

People, Nations and Traditions in a Comparative Frame DMaris Coffman, Harold James, Nicholas Di Liberto, 2021-03-10 If the turn of the twenty first century was characterised by the history wars in which bitter internecine battles raged between different historical schools Jonathan Steinberg was noteworthy for his methodological pluralism His own historical work spanned diplomatic history military history the social history of war biography social history banking history political culture and genocide studies He often employed a comparative historical approach which teased out deep historical explanations by examining personalities nations and traditions simultaneously This book offers a critical appreciation of his contribution to modern historical practice with contributions by former students and colleagues whose own interests are as diverse as those of Steinberg himself Rupture and Reconstruction Haym Soloveitchik, 2021-09-10 The essay that forms the core of this book is an attempt to understand the developments that have occurred in Orthodox Jewry in America in the last seventy years and to analyse their implications The prime change is what is often described as the swing to the right a marked increase in ritual stringency a rupture in patterns of behaviour that has had major consequences not only for Jewish society but also for the nature of Jewish spirituality For Haym Soloveitchik the key feature at the root of this change is that as a result of migration to the New Worlds of England the US and Israel and acculturation to its new surroundings American Jewry indeed much of the Jewish world had to reconstruct religious practice from normative texts observance could no longer be transmitted mimetically on the basis of practices observed in home and street In consequence behaviour once governed by habit is now governed by rule This new edition allows the author to deal with criticisms raised since the essay long established as a classic in the field was originally published and enables readers to gain a fuller perspective on a topic central to today's Jewish world and its development

Photography, Reconstruction and the Cultural History of the Postwar European City Tom Allbeson, 2020-11-16 Examining imagery of urban space in Britain France and West Germany up to the early 1960s this book reveals how photography shaped individual architectural projects and national rebuilding efforts alike Exploring the impact of urban photography at a pivotal moment in contemporary European architecture and culture this book addresses case studies spanning the destruction of the war to the modernizing reconfiguration of city spaces including ruin photobooks about bombed cities architectural photography of housing projects and imagery of urban life from popular photomagazines as well as internationally renowned projects like UNESCO's Paris Headquarters Coventry Cathedral and Berlin's Gendarmenkirche This book reveals that the ways of seeing shaped in the postwar years by urban photography were a vital aspect of not only discourses on the postwar city but also debates central to popular culture from commemoration and modernization to democratization and Europeanization This book will be a fascinating read for researchers in the fields of photography and visual studies architectural and urban history and cultural memory and contemporary European history
