Records Management For An Information Age

Terry D. Lundgren, Carol A. Lundgren

Records Management For An Information Age:

Records Management for an Information Age Joseph V. Arn, Paula H. Titlow, 1991 Public Sector Records Management Kelvin Smith, 2016-04-15 Records management has undergone significant change in recent years owing to the introduction of freedom of information legislation as well as the development of e government and e business and the need to manage records effectively in both the private and public sector There are very few purely practical texts for records managers and this book aims to fill that gap The author has spent his entire career in public sector records management and has contributed to records management standards for governments around the world The text is wholly practical and written at an accessible level Although the author discusses legislation and examples from the UK the book is relevant to public sector records management at an international level It will be essential reading for professionals in record management posts as well as anyone who is responsible for record keeping as part of their operational duties Encyclopedia of Archival Science Luciana Duranti, Patricia C. Franks, 2015-06-17 Here is the first ever comprehensive guide to archival concepts principles and practices Encyclopedia of Archival Science features 154 entries which address every aspect of archival professional knowledge These entries range from traditional ideas like appraisal and provenance to today's challenges digitization and digital preservation They present the thoughts of leading luminaries like Ernst Posner Margaret Cross Norton and Philip Brooks as well as those of contemporary authors and rising scholars Historical and ethical components of practice are infused throughout the work Edited by Luciana Duranti from the University of British Columbia and Patricia C Franks from San Jose State University this landmark work was overseen by an editorial board comprised of leading archivists and archival educators from every continent Adrian Cunningham Queensland State Archives Australia Fiorella Foscarini University of Toronto and University of Amsterdam Pat Galloway University of Texas at Austin Shadrack Katuu International Atomic Energy Agency Giovanni Michetti University of Rome La Sapienza Ken Thibodeau National Archives and Records Administration US and Geoffrey Yeo University College London UK Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science Allen Kent, 2002-03-26 This supplement examines achieving synergy between computer power and human reason to the unified medical language system UMLS The First Generation of Electronic Records Archivists in the United States Richard Cox, 2020-07-26 This book helps readers understand the current status of archivists in the United States It addresses issues of professionalization by re-examining two major aspects of the archival community institutional forms and structures and the basic educational foundations that are important to any profession While United States archivists now seem poised to develop new approaches to the management of electronic records including research and education venues this profession's long journey to reach this point is an interesting step on the continuing road to professionalization The First Generation of Electronic Records Archivists in the United States represents the first major study of how and why American archivists have struggled to contend with the management of electronic records The book provides a framework for studying this issue includes suggestions for additional research and serves as a basis for discussion about the continued strengthening of the archival profession Despite more than thirty years of striving to manage electronic records American archivists have not developed an effective infrastructure for this purpose The First Generation of Electronic Records Archivists in the United States considers the evidence for this failure by evaluating archival literature on the topic of electronic records management It examines how position descriptions in state government archives and job advertisements across the discipline have reflected a bias toward paper based formats and the failure of graduate and continuing archival education programs to deal effectively with electronic records The book details state government archives and position descriptions trends and practices in the Information Age 1976 1990 graduate archival education and electronic records an analysis of current approaches and their strengths and weaknesses the effectiveness of the NAGARA Institute as a form of advanced archival education problems challenges opportunities and needs for additional research The First Generation of Electronic Records Archivists in the United States is an enlightening study for library and information science educators archival graduate students and archivists themselves as they work toward the professionalization of their field
