Records Management Violet S. Thomas, Dexter R. Schubert, Jo Ann Lee, 1983 Records Management Patricia E. Wallace, 1987 This newest edition of a practical text provides an understanding of the scope and problems of the administrative management of records Changes in this edition include expanded coverage of all components of records management more detailed information on careers in records management rewritten chapters on technology and extensive updating of the appendixes Focus is placed on systems approach to managing information recorded in any form and useful guidelines for everything from establishing a records management system to handling paper and electronic media The book also emphasizes managing and controlling documents from the time of their creation until their disposition and prepares the reader to deal with the integration of paper microfilm and digital records Current and future records managers are shown how to create a system that incorporates both paper and electronics Implementing Electronic Document and Record Management Systems Azad Adam, 2007-08-24 The global shift toward delivering services online requires organizations to evolve from using traditional paper files and storage to more modern electronic methods There has however been very little information on just how to navigate this change until now Implementing Electronic Document and Record Management Systems explains how to efficiently Recent Research in Control Engineering and Decision Making Olga Dolinina, Alexander Brovko, Vitaly Pechenkin, Alexey Lvov, Vadim Zhmud, Vladik Kreinovich, 2019-01-28 This book constitutes the full papers and short monographs developed on the base of the refereed proceedings of the International Conference on Information Technologies Information and Communication Technologies for Research and Industry ICIT 2019 held in Saratov Russia in February 2019 The book brings accepted papers which present new approaches and methods of solving problems in the sphere of control engineering and decision making for the various fields of studies industry and research ontology based data simulation smart city technologies theory and use of digital signal processing cognitive systems robotics cybernetics automation control theory image recognition technologies and computer vision Particular emphasis is laid on modern trends new approaches algorithms and methods in selected fields of interest The presented papers were accepted after careful reviews made by at least three independent reviewers in a double blind way The acceptance level was about 60% The chapters are organized thematically in several areas within the following tracks Models Methods Approaches in Decision Making Systems Mathematical Modelling for Industry Research Smart City Technologies The conference is focused on development and globalization of information and communication technologies ICT methods of control engineering and decision making along with innovations and networking ICT for sustainable development and technological change and global challenges Moreover the ICIT 2019 served as a discussion area for the actual above mentioned topics The editors believe that the readers will find the proceedings interesting and useful for their own research work Records management National Archives and Records Administration's acquisition of major system faces risks. , Records

Management Handbook Ira A. Penn, Gail B. Pennix, 2017-03-02 Records Management Handbook is a complete guide to the practice of records and information management. Written from a multi-media perspective and with a comprehensive systems design orientation, the authors present proven management strategies for developing, implementing, and operating a 21st-century records management programme. Where most available titles are biased toward dealing with inactive records, this book gives a balanced treatment for all phases of the record's life cycle from creation or receipt through to ultimate disposition. The Records Management Handbook is a practical reference for use by records managers, analysts, and other information management professionals which will aid decision making, improve job performance, stimulate ideas, help avoid legal problems, minimize risk and error, save time, and reduce expense. Special features of the second edition include new chapters on record media, active records systems, and records disposition; new information on management strategies and programme implementation; revised guidance and material on records appraisal and record inventorying; expanded and increased information on retention scheduling, records storage, and electronic forms.

Cases on Electronic Record Management in the ESARBICA Region Keakopa, Segomotso Masegonyana, Mosweu, Tshepho Lydia, 2020-02-28 The Eastern and Southern African Regional Branch of the International Council of Archives (ESARBICA) is dedicated to keeping and preserving records and documents so they may be accessible to the public. Constant research and re-examination of current record-keeping methods such as the Electronic Document and Records Management System (EDRMS) is necessary to ensure the preservation and dissemination of information. Cases on Electronic Record Management in the ESARBICA Region is an essential reference source that shares case studies on the development and implementation of records management strategies, including the procurement and implementation of EDRMS. Covering topics such as record management strategy development, e-records readiness, and legal frameworks, this book is ideally designed for archivists, librarians, records specialists, knowledge managers, ICT professionals, policymakers, system analysts, project managers, legal officers, academicians, researchers, and students.

Handbook of Research on ICTs and Management Systems for Improving Efficiency in Healthcare and Social Care Cruz-Cunha, Maria Manuela, Miranda, Isabel Maria, Gonçalves, Patricia, 2013-04-30 Through the use of ICT tools such as the internet portals and telecommunication devices, the quality of healthcare has improved in local and global health, aiding in the development of a sustainable economy. Handbook of Research on ICTs and Management Systems for Improving Efficiency in Healthcare and Social Care brings together a valuable research collection on ICT elements needed to improve communication and collaboration between global health institutes, public and private organizations, and foundations. Highlighting the adoption and success factors in the development of technologies for healthcare, this book is essential for IT professionals, technology solution providers, researchers, and students interested in technology and its relationship with healthcare and social services.

The First Generation of Electronic Records Archivists in the United States Richard Cox, 2020-07-26 This book helps readers understand the current status of archivists in the United States It addresses issues of professionalization by re-examining two major aspects of the archival community institutional forms and structures and the basic educational foundations that are important to any profession While United States archivists now seem poised to develop new approaches to the management of electronic records including research and education venues this profession's long journey to reach this point is an interesting step on the continuing road to professionalization The First Generation of Electronic Records Archivists in the United States represents the first major study of how and why American archivists have struggled to contend with the management of electronic records The book provides a framework for studying this issue includes suggestions for additional research and serves as a basis for discussion about the continued strengthening of the archival profession Despite more than thirty years of striving to manage electronic records American archivists have not developed an effective infrastructure for this purpose The First Generation of Electronic Records Archivists in the United States considers the evidence for this failure by evaluating archival literature on the topic of electronic records management It examines how position descriptions in state government archives and job advertisements across the discipline have reflected a bias toward paper based formats and the failure of graduate and continuing archival education programs to deal effectively with electronic records The book details state government archives and position descriptions trends and practices in the Information Age 1976 1990 graduate archival education and electronic records an analysis of current approaches and their strengths and weaknesses the effectiveness of the NAGARA Institute as a form of advanced archival education problems challenges opportunities and needs for additional research The First Generation of Electronic Records Archivists in the United States is an enlightening study for library and information science educators archival graduate students and archivists themselves as they work toward the professionalization of their field Electronic records : Clinton administration's management of Executive Office of the President's email system : report to the Chairman, Committee on Government Reform, House of Representatives ,2001
