Recovering A Journal:

Recovering May Sarton, 1980 Recovering May Sarton, 2014-12-16 An affecting diary of one year's hardships and healing by one of the twentieth century's most extraordinary memoirists. For decades readers have celebrated May Sarton's journals for their candid look at relationships, success and failure, communion with nature and the curious stages of aging. In Recovering, Sarton focuses on her sixty-sixth year, one marked by the turmoil of a mastectomy, the end of a treasured relationship and the loneliness that visits a life of chosen solitude. Each deeply felt entry in the journal, written between 1978 and 1979, is laced with poignancy and honesty as she grapples with a cold reception for her latest novel, the sad descent of a close friend into senility and other struggles. Despite the trials of this one painful year, Sarton writes of her progression toward a hard-won renewal achieved through good friendships, the levity provided by her cherished dog and peaceful days in her garden. A candid account of Sarton's revival from personal darkness back into light, Recovering is another stunning entry in the author's irrepressible oeuvre.

The Hidden Writer Alexandra Johnson, 2010-07-07 Whom do I tell when I tell a blank page? Virginia Woolf's question is one that generations of readers and writers, searching to map a creative life, have asked of their own diaries. No other document quite compares with the intimacies and yearnings, the confessions and desires revealed in the pages of a diary. Presenting seven portraits of literary and creative lives, Alexandra Johnson illuminates the secret world of writers and their diaries and shows how, over generations, these writers have used the diary to solve a common set of creative and life questions. In Sonya Tolstoy's diary we witness the conflict between love and vocation; in Katherine Mansfield and Virginia Woolf's friendship, the nettle of rivalry among writing equals is revealed; and in Alice James's diary, begun at age forty, the feelings of competition within a creative family are explored. The Hidden Writer shows how the diaries of Marjory Fleming, Sonya Tolstoy, Alice James, Katherine Mansfield, Virginia Woolf, Anaïs Nin and May Sarton negotiated the obstacle course of silence, ambition, envy and fame. Destined to become a classic on writing and the diary as literary form, this is an essential book for anyone interested in the evolution of creative life.
