Recovering From Civil Conflict Reconciliation Peace And Development:

Recovering from Civil Conflict Edward Newman, Albrecht Schnabel, 2014-04-04 A number of international contributors emphasize the conceptual and practical challenges facing post conflict societies and the international community in the management of the transition from civil conflict to peaceful coexistence

Recovering from Civil Conflict Edward Newman, Albrecht Schnabel, 2002 This volume highlights some of the major conceptual and practical challenges facing post conflict societies and the international community in managing transition

Conflict Prevention and Peace-building in Post-War Societies T. David Mason, James D. Meernik, 2006-05-02 This volume provides an overview of the costs benefits consequences and prospects for rebuilding nations emerging from violent conflict The rationale for this comes from the growing realization that in the post Cold War era and in the aftermath of 9 11 our understanding of conflict and conflict resolution has to include consideration of the conditions conducive to sustaining the peace in nations torn by civil war or interstate conflict The chapters analyze the prospects for building a sustainable peace from a number of different perspectives examining the role of economic development democratization respect for human rights the potential for renewal of conflict the United Nations and other critical topics In an age when nation building is once again on the international agenda and scholars as well as policy makers realize both the tremendous costs and benefits in fostering developed democratic peaceful and secure nations the time has truly come for a book that integrates all the facets of this important subject Conflict Prevention and Peace building in Post War Societies will appeal to students and scholars of peace studies international relations security studies and conflict resolution as well as policy makers and analysts

Transforming conflict through social and economic development Sandra Buchanan, 2016-05-16 Transforming conflict through social and economic development examines lessons learned from the Northern Ireland and Border Counties conflict transformation process through social and economic development and their consequent impacts and implications for practice and policymaking with a range of functional recommendations produced for other regions emerging from and seeking to transform violent conflict It provides for the first time a comprehensive assessment of the region's transformation activity largely amongst grassroots actors enabled by a number of specific funding programmes namely the International Fund for Ireland Peace I II and III and INTERREG I II and IIIA These programmes have been responsible for a huge increase in grassroots practice which to date has attracted virtually no academic analysis this book seeks to fill this gap In focusing on the politics of the socioeconomic activities that underpinned the elite negotiations of the peace process key theoretical transformation concepts are firstly explored followed by an examination of the social and economic context of Northern Ireland and the border counties The three programmes and their impacts are then assessed before considering what policy lessons can be learned and what recommendations can be made for practice This is underpinned by a range of semi structured interviews and the author's own experience as a project promoter through these programmes in the border counties for more than a decade The book will be essential reading for students practitioners and policymakers in the fields of peace and conflict studies conflict transformation peacebuilding post agreement reconstruction and the political economy of conflict and those interested in contemporary developments in the Northern Ireland peace process Genocide at the Millennium Samuel Totten,2017-12-02 Genocide at the Millennium is the fifth volume in the acclaimed series Genocide A Critical Bibliographical Review This latest volume s focus is both the genocidal activity that has taken place over the past fourteen years including that in Rwanda and the former Yugoslavia as well as a critique of the international community s response to genocide and potential genocidal situations including those of the United Nations and nongovernmental organizations Genocide at the Millennium is divided into ten chapters The opening chapter treats the Yugoslav genocide discussing the causes of the conflict the violence that ensued the reaction of the international community and the ramifications that are still being felt in that part of the world today Chapter 2 provides a detailed and thought provoking examination of the causes results and ramifications of the 1994 Rwandan genocide Chapter 3 examines the conflict in Kosovo and the events surrounding the controversial intervention by NATO Chapter 4 discusses the remarkable efforts and successes that various non governmental agencies have had in addressing a wide variety of issues related to genocide Chapter 5 examines the United Nations efforts to address the issue of genocide at the turn of the century The role of individual states confronting issues and cases of genocide is analyzed in chapter 6 Chapter 7 gives a solid overview of the evolution of international law as it pertains to the crime of genocide and how and why major changes in such law have begun to take place in the 1990s and early 2000s The international criminal tribunals for Rwanda and the former Yugoslavia are considered in chapters 8 and 9 The concluding chapter provides an extremely detailed and highly informative overview of key aspects of the International Criminal Court In keeping with the multidisciplinary approach of previous volumes in the series each of the essays and accompanying annotated NATO and Peace Support Operations, 1991-1999 Henning Frantzen,2004-12-17 This new book addresses the key question of how NATO and three of its member states are configuring their policies and military doctrines in order to handle the new strategic environment This environment is increasingly dominated by new wars more precisely civil wars within states and peacekeeping as the strategy devised by outside actors for dealing with them The book seeks to explain how this new strategic environment has been interpreted and how the new conflicts and peacekeeping have been fitted into defence and war key concepts in the field of security studies Peace without Politics? Ten Years of State-Building in Bosnia David Chandler,2013-09-13 Ten years on from the signing of the Dayton Peace Agreement in November 1995 the legacy of the Bosnian war still shapes every aspect of the political social and economic environment of the tiny state This state of affairs is highlighted by the fact that Bosnia is still under international control with the Office of the International High Representative regularly using its powers to dismiss elected presidents prime ministers and MPs and to impose legislation over the resistance of elected legislatures at national regional and local level What has changed in the ten years since Dayton Is international regulation helping to establish a sustainable peace in Bosnia What lessons can be learned for nation building in Bosnia This volume was previously published as a special issue of the leading journal International Peacekeeping Peacebuilding and Ex-Combatants Johanna Söderström, 2014-12-17 The book examines how ex combatants in post war and peacebuilding settings engage in politics as seen in the case of Liberia The political mobilization of former combatants after war is often perceived as a threat ultimately undermining the security and stability of the state This book questions this simplified view and argues that understanding the political voice of former combatants is imperative Their post war role is not black and white they are not just bad or good citizens but rather engage in multiple political roles spoilers victims disengaged beneficiaries as well as motivated and active citizens By looking at the political attitudes and values of former combatants and their understanding of how politics functions the book sheds new light on the political reintegration of ex combatants It argues that political reintegration needs to be given serious attention at the micro level but also needs to be scrutinized in two ways first through the level of political involvement which reflects the extent and width of the ex combatants voice Second in order to make sense of political reintegration we also need to uncover what values and norms inform their political involvement The content of their political voice is captured through a comparison with democratic ideals Based on interviews with over 100 Liberian ex combatants the book highlights that their relationship with politics overall should be characterized as an expression of a politics of affection This book will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding African politics democratization political sociology conflict resolution and IR Security Studies in general The Politics of Peacekeeping in the Post-cold War Era David S. Sorenson, Pia Christina Wood, 2005 This book focuses on explaining peacekeeping commitment decisions at the nation state level filling a gap in the peacekeeping scholarly literature on the political dynamics of peacekeeping decisions Confronting Past Human Rights Violations Chandra Lekha Sriram, 2004-08-12 This book examines what makes accountability for previous violations more or less possible for transitional regimes to achieve It closely examines the other vital goals of such regimes against which accountability is often balanced The options available are not simply prosecution or pardon as the most heated polemics of the debate over transitional justice suggest but a range of options from complete amnesty through truth commissions and lustration or purification to prosecutions The question then is not whether or not accountability can be achieved but what degree of accountability can be achieved by a given country The focus of the book is on the politics of transition what makes accountability more or less feasible and what strategies are deployed by regimes to achieve greater accountability or alternatively greater reform The result is a more nuanced understanding of the different conditions and possibilities that countries face and the lesson that there is no one size fits all prescription that can be handed to transitional regimes

United Nations Peacekeeping in the Post-Cold War Era John Terence O'Neill, Nick Rees, 2005-10-05 This new study questions whether peacekeeping fundamentally changed between the Cold War and Post Cold War periods Focusing on contrasting case studies of the Congo Cyprus Somalia and Angola as well as more recent operations in Sierra Leone and East Timor it probes new evidence with clarity and rigour The authors conclude that most peacekeeping operations whether in the Cold War or Post Cold War periods were flawed due to the failure of the UN member states to agree upon achievable objectives the precise nature of the operations and provision of the necessary resources and unrealistic post 1989 expectations that UN peacekeeping operations could be adapted to the changed international circumstances The study concludes by looking at the Brahimi reforms questions whether these are realistically achievable and looks at their impact on contemporary peace operations in Sierra Leone East Timor and elsewhere

A UN 'Legion' , Kosovo Between War and Peace Tonny Brems Knudsen, Carsten Bagge Laustsen, 2006-08-21 A major contribution to the debate about the reconstruction of Kosovo and to the general discussion surrounding the revived trusteeship institution model in the context of the UN internationalism of the 1990s and the War on Terror following 9 11 Bringing together leading international scholars this book presents the latest empirical research alongside detailed theoretical analysis Examining the key questions local parties and the international community have encountered in Kosovo including how to develop effective and inclusive local government how to counter crime and the dysfunctional aspects of liberal economic reform how to unite the partly opposed goals of reconstructing the province while avoiding renewed ethnic and international strife and how to handle the specific challenge of Kosovo's future status The contributors also re-examine the background factors that continue to influence and hamper the attempt to administrate and reconstruct the province first of all the nationalist ideologies and the record of ethnic violence This book will be of great interest to all students of Balkan politics peacekeeping international relations and security studies in general

Culture, Development and Social Theory John Clammer, 2013-10-10 This important book places culture back at the centre of debates in development studies It introduces new ways of conceptualizing culture in relation to development by linking development studies to cultural studies studies of social movements religion and the notion of social suffering The author expertly argues that in the current world crises it is necessary to recover a more holistic vision of development that creates a vocabulary linking more technical and predominantly economic aspects of development with more humanistic and ecological goals Any conception of post capitalist society he argues requires cultural as well as economic and political dimensions

The Prevention and Intervention of Genocide Samuel Totten, 2008-03-31 This volume is comprised of over 2 300 annotations on a wide array of issues and topics germane to the subject of preventing the atrocities of genocide and managing these conflicts when they do arise Samuel Totten brings together in one comprehensive collection the research and findings in various fields such as political science sociology history and psychology to enable specialists in genocide studies peace studies and conflict resolution to benefit from the insights of a diverse range of scholars and foster an understanding of how the various components of genocide studies connect Among the topics included are key conventions international treaties and covenants genocide early warning signals and forecasting risk data bases sanctions peacekeeping missions conflict resolution the International Criminal Court realpolitik vis vis the issue of genocide prevention and intervention key non governmental agencies key governmental and UN bodies working on these important issues In addition to the annotations Totten frames the bibliography with a major essay that introduces the reader to the subject of prevention and intervention of genocide raising a host of critical issues regarding the strengths weaknesses and limitations of various approaches germane to issues of managing these conflicts Peace Operations After 11 September 2001 Thierry Tardy, 2004-07-31 This book explores the possible consequences of the events of 11 September 2001 and of the fight against terrorism the way peace operations are perceived and conducted and the way that states international organizations such as NATO or the EU and non state actors consider these operations The 11 September attacks illustrate the widening of the security agenda the persistence of instability and the need to deal with it in both a preventive and a curative way The events have had a major impact on US foreign and defence policies on security policies on the hierarchy of priorities and US views of peace operations around the world This book shows that these different elements mean that the international environment of peace operations is likely to be modified while the local environment has remained largely unchanged Political Economy of Statebuilding Mats Berdal, 2017-07-05 This volume examines and evaluates the impact of international statebuilding interventions on the political economy of post conflict countries over the past 20 years While statebuilding today is typically discussed in the context of peacebuilding and stabilisation operations the current phase of interest in external interventions to re build and strengthen governmental institutions can be traced back to the good governance policies of the International Financial Institutions IFIs in the early 1990s These sought political changes and improvements in the quality of governance in countries that were subject to or were seeking support under IFI designed structural adjustment programmes The focus of this book is specifically on state building efforts in conflict affected countries countries that are emerging or have recently emerged from periods of war and violent conflict The interventions covered in the present volume fall into three broad and overlapping categories International administrations and transformative occupations East Timor Iraq and Kosovo Complex peace operations Afghanistan Burundi Haiti and Sudan Governance and state building programmes conducted in the context of economic assistance Georgia and Macedonia This book will be of much interest to students of statebuilding humanitarian intervention post conflict reconstruction political economy international organisations and IR Security Studies in general Truth Recovery and Transitional Justice Iosif Kovras, 2014-05-16 This book investigates why some societies defer transitional justice issues after successful democratic consolidation Despite democratisation the exhumation of mass graves containing the victims from the violence in Cyprus 1963 1974 and the Spanish civil war 1936 1939 was delayed until the early 2000s when both countries suddenly decided to revisit the past Although this contradicts the actions of other countries such as South Africa Bosnia and Guatemala where truth recovery for disappeared missing persons was a central element of the transition to peace and democracy Cyprus and Spain are not alone this is an increasing trend among countries trying to come to terms with past violence Truth Recovery and Transitional Justice considers the case studies of Spain and Cyprus and explores three interrelated issues First the book examines which factors can explain prolonged silence on the issue of missing persons in transitional settings It then goes on to explore the transformation of victims groups from opponents of truth recovery to vocal pro reconciliation pressure groups and examines the circumstances in which it is better to tie victims rights to an overall political settlement Finally the author goes on to compare Spain and Cyprus with Greece a country that remains resistant to post transitional justice norms This book will be of interest to students of transitional justice human rights peace and conflict studies and security studies in general Jus Post Bellum

Carsten Stahn,Jennifer S. Easterday,Jens Iverson,2014-02 Jus post bellum is the body of international legal norms and rules of international law that applies to a post conflict situation as it moves to a status of peace This book provides a detailed legal analysis of all aspects of jus post bellum and uses case studies to show its relevance to the reality of situations on the ground

Female Ex-Combatants, Empowerment, and Reintegration Michanne Steenbergen,2022-02-24 Female Ex Combatants Empowerment and Reintegration investigates the role of United Nations led Disarmament Demobilization and Reintegration DDR programs in undermining female ex combatants empowerment The participation of female combatants in conflict has increasingly been recognized in feminist literatures and in policies and programs concerned with reintegrating ex combatants and building peace This has illustrated that female ex combatants often experience empowerment through their role as combatant however this empowerment is often lost upon reintegration UN led DDR plays an important role in the broader peacebuilding process as it is one of the largest interventions and directly aims to reintegrate ex combatants into civilian life This book draws on extensive field research and interviews with female ex combatants and DDR officials in Liberia and Nepal to develop a nuanced and comprehensive picture of female ex combatants empowerment and how this is undermined by DDR Through reconceptualized frameworks of empowerment and an emancipatory peace the book explores the pivotal role that DDR programs play in undermining female ex combatants empowerment The author argues that this is detrimental to peacebuilding because DDR officials and documentation narrate female ex combatants in limited and gendered ways which reproduces gendered inequalities and define how female ex combatants should behave This book will be of great interest to scholars and practitioners working on gender conflict peace security and development
