Kasulis,Robert Cummings Neville,1997-05-01 Philosophy in America enjoyed a golden age at the end of the nineteenth and beginning of the twentieth centuries with the flourishing of distinctive and original schools of pragmatism idealism and naturalism These American philosophies shared a family of conceptions of human experience far richer than their contemporary European schools of empiricism and phenomenology The American conceptions of experience embrace critical and speculative conceptions of reason presenting decisive alternatives to the Kantian foundationalist project that expressed itself in positivism analytic philosophy and phenomenology During the middle part of the twentieth century these American philosophies were eclipsed by the European schools however and philosophy was reduced from the public intellectual roles given it by the likes of William James and John Dewey to a narrow academic practice interesting to few other than academic philosophers John Edwin Smith through a long publishing and teaching career at Yale has championed the rich American conceptions of experience and speculative reason and it seems that at the end of this century they are returning in triumph This book celebrates the recovery and new growth of American philosophy in a stunning variety of connected and vital intellectual projects represented by its contributors George Allan Douglas R Anderson Lewis S Ford Errol

Harris Richard Hocking Thomas P Kasulis George R Lucas Jr Robert Cummings Neville Donald W Sherburne Merold Westphal Kuang ming Wu and Carl G Vaught Displaying philosophy's recovery in America this book also honors John Edwin Smith who has kept the history and trajectory of philosophy in America in sight and who contributes a prophetic commentary on the other essays The Philosopher's Index, 1978 Selected Essays, Volume II Andrew Louth, 2023 These two volumes contain selected essays written over forty years by Andrew Louth a major scholar in the fields of Theology and Patristics early Christian thought Many of the essays in volume II concern the nature of theology drawing from a famous group of twentieth century Russian thinkers exiled after the 1917 Communist revolution The Philosopher's Index Richard H. Abbott ... Francis Bacon,1889     Essays on Art and Language Charles Harrison,2003-09-12 Critical and theoretical essays by a long time participant in the Art Language movement These essays by art historian and critic Charles Harrison are based on the premise that making art and talking about art are related enterprises They are written from the point of view of Art Language the artistic movement based in England and briefly in the United States with which Harrison has been associated for thirty years Harrison uses the work of Art Language as a central case study to discuss developments in art from the 1950s through the 1980s According to Harrison the strongest motivation for writing about art is that it brings us closer to that which is other than ourselves In seeing how a work is done we learn about its achieved identity we see for example that a drip on a Pollock is integral to its technical character whereas a drip on a Mondrian would not be Throughout the book Harrison uses specific examples to address a range of questions about the history theory and making of modern art questions about the conditions of its making and the nature of its public about the problems and priorities of criticism and about the relations between interpretation and judgment
