

The Small Red House

The small red house
loves winter best
when summer colors
fade and rest
when flowers close
their painted eyes
when butterflies
seek warmer skies
when every yellow
leaf has dropped
just when you think
all color stopped –
the small red house
smiles from her hill snuggled in snow
soft and still
as red as a cardinal
or warm red wool
the small red house
feels beautiful.

Red House Poems:

Red House Sasha Dugdale, 2011-08-25 In Red House her third collection Sasha Dugdale evokes the ghosts and presences that flit about on the margins of our lives She finds them at the edge of towns where superstores and allotments blur an older landscape in Europe where emigrants leave their gods their neighbours their memories jettisoned like old clothes and across the chalk Downs of her native Sussex She traces the shapes that they leave through folk song lament and lyric poetry Haunted by history confronted by primal brutalities the poems in Red House proclaim the fierce bright authenticity that is all the proof we need that we re alive

The Red House Gregory Orr, 1980-01-01 Poetry As Poetry John Sparacio, 2006-10 About The Book On June the first I was lying down feeling a sense of uselessness and said God I am a human creation from you and I feel I need to utilize this great creation Please guide me into a creative state The next thing I knew I was at my computer writing thirty poems within a few hours The next night I wrote twenty poems then another thirty plus and so on for ten days Then it left as quickly as it came This book is not so much a revolution in poetry but more a flash of creative energy coupled with prophetic thought and contemplations on contemporary society brought forth through poetic verse and displayed in a spiritually patterned form The poems are all based on my deepest observations and life s experiences which brought me to this critical state where I find myself and the world around me They are inspired reflections on political and regular life brought to me from a higher power inscribed by my hand and fed into this world from my mind for people to understand the wrongs of this unbalanced structured economic system that feeds on the weakest and most vulnerable of our species I believe life is on a dangerous path and we must collectively work toward a more socially conscious society and stop making decisions based on thoughtless animal instincts such as selfishness want and desire This collection of poems reflects the innermost desperation I feel that all human beings should hearken to the understanding that all is not well with the consciousness of the world in which we live This book is designed for people who feel that same sense of urgency and who care deeply about this planet I hope from these writings you get a sense of belonging that ignites the activist in you so you too can voice your dissatisfaction with these beings who are guiding our society and planet into a state of chaos John Sparacio

spaces for Black people to gather free from interruption or regulation Drawing together Black feminist theory critical theories of ecology and ecoaesthetics and Black aesthetics Cervenak shows how novelists poets and visual artists such as Gayl Jones Toni Morrison Clementine Hunter Samiya Bashir and Leonardo Drew advance an ecological imagination that unsettles Western philosophical ideas of the earth as given to humans In their aestheticization and conceptualization of gathering these artists investigate the relationships among art the environment home and forms of Black togetherness Cervenak argues that by offering a formal and conceptual praxis of gathering Black artists imagine liberation and alternative ways of being in the world that exist beyond those Enlightenment philosophies that presume Black people and earth as given to enclosure and ownership
