Red Hot Mamas Coming Into Our Own At Fifty:

Red Hot Mamas Colette Dowling, 2011-06-22 Colette Dowling's uplifting book celebrates the myriad possibilities for women who are now turning 50. Red hot mamas are the dozens of women, some famous, some not, who are defying stereotypes to discover renewed power and vitality at midlife. In honest, empowering language, the women share with readers their energetic approaches to menopause, career changes, family life, and intimacy.

Granny @ Work Karen E. Riggs, 2004 First Published in 2004, Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an informal company.

Women's Sexuality Across the Life Span Judith C. Daniluk, 2003-06-09 Moving beyond a traditional focus on sexual functioning, this book emphasizes the complex interaction of psychological, social, cultural, and biological influences on women's sense of themselves as sexual beings. Written for practitioners and educators, its goal is to challenge contradictory messages and meanings that cause many women to feel disconnected from their bodies and from their needs and desires. Themes explored include the development of sexual awareness and sexuality in childhood and adolescence, the critical sexual choices of young adulthood, and the multiple transitions characterizing the middle and later years of life. The book features creative exercises and interventions to help girls and women construct more affirming sexual meanings.

Age Becomes Us Leni Marshall, 2015-06-30 In lively, accessible prose, this book expands the reach and depth of age studies. A review of age studies methods in theory, literature, and practice leads readers to see how their own intersectional identities shape their beliefs about age, aging, and old age. This study asks readers to interrogate the texts of menopause self-help books on aging and foundational age studies works. In addition to the study of these nonfiction texts, the poetry and prose of Doris Lessing, Lucille Clifton, and Louise Erdrich serve as vehicles for exploring how age relations work, including how they invoke readers into kinships of reciprocal care as othermothers, otherdaughters, and otherelders. The literary chapters examine how gifted storytellers provide enactments, portrayals, and metaphorical uses of age to create transformative potential.

Lesbian Family Life, Like the Fingers of a Hand Valory Mitchell, 2013-09-13 In this book, an array of approaches, first-person, and theoretical accounts, clinical understandings, qualitative and quantitative research are brought to bear on controversial or under-discussed topics in lesbian family life. From conception all the way to care for elderly parents, this book takes a fresh look at lesbian family relationships. Topics include butch/femme couples, infidelity, the psychological meaning of family for lesbians, age-discrepant couples, lesbian nuns as family, listservs as family, intentional family for aging women, women raising sons, mothers who come out late in life, mothers and children in situations of domestic violence, lack of support for lesbian domestic violence survivors, death of a partner, psychological issues in the use of sperm donors or surrogates, and middle-aged lesbians caring for homophobic elderly parents. Some authors use self-psychology and Jungian psychology to describe aspects of family life. The richness and diversity of topics makes it a text on lesbian lives. Therapists and academics from throughout the U.S. have contributed to this collection. Many lesbian women, as well as teachers, it can be a text and mental health professionals who work with children families couples and elderly will find useful material here This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Lesbian Studies

HIV/AIDS and Older Adults Charles A. Emlet, MSW, PhD, 2004-03-31 This volume focuses on the ways in which HIV AIDS can affect older adults The chapters in this book discuss the variety of HIV AIDS problems that we face at the individual family and community levels Topics examined include demographics and epidemiological aspects of HIV disease with this population prevention of HIV disease issues impacting individuals in a medical psychological and social context and service needs Originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Mental Health and Aging the volume contains new chapters on demographics HIV prevention and education and effective coalition building among systems of care Contributors include Diane Zablotsky Michael Kennedy Janice Nichols and Timothy Heckman among others For Further Information Please Click Here
