HOBBS,1858 Red Death Alan Jacobson,2020-09-15 In Hawaii FBI agent Karen Vail pursues a killer without a profile in this thriller by the USA Today bestselling author of The Darkness of Evil When Det Adam Russell of the Honolulu PD encounters the body of a woman in her sixties the second in recent days to inexplicably die of what seem like natural causes he reaches out to Karen Vail the renowned FBI profiler who hops on the next plane But even for someone as fluent in the language of murder as Vail this case is hard to read How were these women asphyxiated with no signs of trauma How can she gather clues or collect evidence when the killer seems to strike during the briefest casual encounters Is this the behavior of a male or a female perpetrator And perhaps most terrifying of all if the deaths appear so natural at first glance how many victims have already been overlooked Now as something cold and dark lurks under the sunny warmth of this island paradise Vail must stop a serial killer as elusive as the breeze Karen Vail is one tough character Kathy Reichs New York Times bestselling author Jacobson should be mandatory reading for the James Patterson crowd Library Journal A unique and imaginative plot filled with witty dialogue and page turning intrigue Catherine Coulter New York Times bestselling author Baltic Pilot: The Gulf of Finland, the Aland Islands, the Aland Sea, and the Gulf of Bothnia United States.

Hydrographic Office,1920 Wielding Words like Weapons Ward Churchill,2017-04-15 Wielding Words like Weapons is a collection of acclaimed American Indian Movement activist intellectual Ward Churchill's essays in indigenism selected from material written during the decade 1995-2005 It includes a range of formats from sharply framed book reviews and equally pointed polemics and op eds to more formal essays designed to reach both scholarly and popular audiences The selection also represents the broad range of topics addressed in Churchill's scholarship including the fallacies of archeological and anthropological orthodoxy such as the insistence of cannibalologists that American Indians were traditionally man-eaters Hollywood's cinematic degradations of native people questions of American Indian identity the historical and ongoing genocide of North America's native peoples and the systematic distortion of the political and legal history of U S Indian relations Less typical of Churchill's oeuvre are the essays commemorating Cherokee anthropologist Robert K Thomas and Yankton Sioux legal scholar and theologian Vine Deloria Jr More unusual still is his profoundly personal effort to come to grips with the life and death of his late wife Leah Renae Kelly thereby illuminating in very human terms the grim and lasting effects of Canada's residential schools upon the country's indigenous peoples. A foreword by Seneca historian Barbara Alice Mann describes the sustained efforts by police and intelligence agencies as well as university administrators and other academic adversaries to discredit or otherwise neutralize both the man and his work. Also included are both the initial stream of consciousness version of Churchill's famous or notorious little Eichmann's opinion piece analyzing the causes of the attacks on 9/11 as well as the counterpart essay in which his argument was fully developed.
