Region Nationality And Religion:

Ethnicity and Religion Joseph Ruane, Jennifer Todd, 2014-06-11 Religion has regained political prominence in the twenty first century and not least for the manner in which it intersects with ethnicity Many ethnic conflicts have a strong religious dimension and religion appears as a powerful force for mobilisation solidarity and violence Religion and ethnicity can each act as a powerful base of identity group formation and communal conflict They can also overlap with ethnic and religious boundaries coinciding partially or completely internally nested or intersecting This volume maps the different forms of intersection cases where religion is prioritised in private life and ethnicity in public where each coexists in tension in political life and where the distinctions reinforce each other with dynamic effects It maps the different patterns with case studies and comparisons from Ireland Northern Ireland France Zimbabwe Ghana and Malaysia It shows how ordinary people construct their solidarities and identities using both ethnic and religious resources This opens up analysis of the socially transformative as well as politically antagonistic potential of religion in situations of ethnic division This book was published as a special issue of Ethnopolitics

The Religions of India, 2025-10-27 This volume is about the religions of India as well as about world religions given that India is the repository of the world's greatest religions Hinduism Islam Christianity Buddhism Jainism Sikhism Zoroastrianism and Judaism A distinctive feature of this volume is that a scholar who is a specialist in a particular religion describes each of the great religions Every chapter is an academic study of a particular religion that not only explains the religion but also connects its history to its unique development in India by showing how it got there Four great religions originated in India Hinduism Buddhism Jainism and Sikhism These have been well elucidated in the relevant chapters and their development assessed for causal and dynamic influences The socio historical framework illustrates how though only four of the Indian religions have originated in India the other religions like Islam Christianity Zoroastrianism and Judaism have over time been Indianized or taken on Indian cultural characteristics The volume an introductory text is a timely and unique collaboration introducing readers to world religions while simultaneously building an overall picture of how these religions became over time The Religions of India

Religious Faith of the Chinese Xinping Zhuo, 2017-12-26 This book comprehensively examines religious faith in China from the perspective of cultural philosophy and cultural history It explores the social political cultural and spiritual meanings of religions tracing their historical development and related paradigm shifts It also analyzes the characteristics of the country's local religions and the process of indigenization of world religions and describes the peaceful co existence and harmonious confluence of multiple religions in Chinese spiritual life revealing the vibrant and diverse colors of its religious culture Examining these religions social and cultural functions in contemporary Chinese society the book demonstrates the rich and complex intertwinement of religious faith cultural spirit and national disposition among the Chinese people

The Logic of Ethnic and Religious Conflict in Africa John F. McCauley, 2017-04-27 This book explains why conflicts in Africa are sometimes ethnic and sometimes religious and why a conflict might change from ethnic to religious even as the opponents remain fixed Conflicts in the region are often viewed as either tribal or Muslim Christian seemingly rooted in deep seated ethnic or religious hatreds Yet as this book explains those labels emerge as a function of political mobilization It argues that ethnicity and religion inspire distinct passions among individuals and that political leaders exploit those passions to achieve their own strategic goals when the institutions of the state break down To support this argument the book relies on a novel experiment conducted in Cote d'Ivoire and Ghana to demonstrate that individual preferences change in ethnic and religious contexts It then uses case illustrations from Cote d'Ivoire Nigeria and Sudan to highlight the strategic choices of leaders that ultimately shape the frames of conflict

Regional Integration, Identity & Citizenship in the Greater Horn of Africa Kidane Mengisteab, Redie Bereketeab, 2012 Examines how regional integration can resolve the crises of the Greater Horn of Africa exploring how it can be used as a mechanism for conflict resolution promoting the economy and tackling issues of identity and citizenship The Greater Horn of Africa GHA is engulfed by three interrelated crises various inter state wars civil wars and inter communal conflicts an economic crisis manifested in widespread debilitating poverty chronic food insecurity and famines and environmental degradation that is ravaging the region While it is apparent that the countries of the region are unlikely to be able to deal with the crises individually there is consensus that their chances of doing so improve markedly with collective regional action The contributors to this volume address the need for regional integration in the GHA They identify those factors that can foster integration such as the proper management of equitable citizenship rights as well as examining those that impede it including the region's largely ineffective integration scheme IGAD and explore how the former can be strengthened and the latter transformed explain how regional integration can mitigate the conflicts and examine how integration can help to energise the region's economy Kidane Mengisteab is Professor of African Studies and Political Science at Penn State University Redie Bereketeab is a researcher at the Nordic Africa Institute Sweden

The Handbook of Cross-Border Ethnic and Religious Affinities Charity Butcher, 2019-04-16 Increasingly ethnic and religious variables are taken into account to explain conflict and relations between nations However ethnic and religious groups exist beyond the confines of frontiers In Africa for example hundreds of ethnic groups were divided by colonial borders and many retained kinship connections to their brethren in other countries thus creating cross border ethnic religious affinity Such cross border connections affect a variety of foreign policy from diplomacy to the use of force An internal problem can spread to other states or external actors can become involved in domestic disputes due to such factors Therefore data on cross border connections are essential to measure and assess their actual or potential effects on foreign policy or conflict This unique resource serves both qualitative and quantitative researchers For ease of use it is divided in sections for each region of world with the entries organized by pairs of contiguous countries Each entry for a pair of countries briefly discusses the ethnic and religious groups that are common to both countries and the historical and current connections between these groups The entries are organized based on the Correlates of War country codes which are widely used by researchers and allow for country pairs to be organized geographically within each section to facilitate easy use of the data

Special Economic Zones in South Asia Aradhna Aggarwal, 2024-03-28 Growth enhancing structural change a relocation of labour from low to high productivity sectors is increasingly perceived as inextricably linked with the sustainable development agenda In the pursuit of structural change policymakers have pinned their hopes on targeted policy tools such as special economic zones SEZs These geographically demarcated spaces designed to attract investment with a wide set of advantages have become de rigueur however a systematic evaluation of evidence informed policymaking is scarce due to conceptual and practical challenges This book fills that gap and shows that SEZs are no shortcut to economic development their success in driving economic transformation depends on the complex interplay of sociopolitical economic and strategic factors This book contributes to the burgeoning literature on SEZs by providing the first systematic evaluation of the SEZ policy It adopts the policy cycle approach to organise policy evaluation into three hierarchical layers input evaluation agenda building output evaluation policy designs and outcome evaluation immediate effects of SEZs on firms behaviour and performance with special reference to South Asian countries The strategy is to bring together the findings of microeconomic evaluations to draw macro inferences on the contribution of SEZs to the broader objectives of structural transformation and competitiveness Part I of the book delves into development challenges facing the region lays out theoretical foundations underlying the relevance of SEZs in addressing them and examines the relevance of SEZs in the context of South Asia Part II evaluates the policy first at systemic level to gauge whether and how the policy is rooted in broader development goals and then at the design level to examine the fit between the policy goals and designs Part III presents a counterfactual evaluation of the impact of SEZs on investment climate export competitiveness of firms technology and innovation and knowledge linkages of SEZ firms with the wider economy The final chapter concludes by discussing the emerging challenges and the way forward This will be a useful reference for academics researchers policymakers and professionals in international trade and business public policy industrial economics and regional integration

Exploring Religious Diversity and Covenantal Pluralism in Asia Dennis R. Hoover, 2022-12-26 This book examines the growing diversity of religions and worldviews across East Southeast Asia and the factors affecting prospects for covenantal pluralism in these regions According to the Pew Religious Diversity Index half of the world's most religiously diverse countries are in Asia The presence of deep religious worldview difference is often seen as a potential threat to socio political cohesion or even as a source of violent conflict Yet in Asia as elsewhere the degree of this diversity is not consistently associated with socio political problems Indeed while religious difference is implicated in some social challenges there are also many instances of respectful multi faith engagement practical collaboration and peaceful debate Whether or not religious worldview difference is part of a positive pluralism depends on a complex array of legal and cultural conditions This book explores these dynamics and contingencies in Asia structuring the inquiry according to the theory of covenantal pluralism Covenantal pluralist theory calls for a constitutional order characterized by freedom of religion conscience and equality of rights and responsibilities combined with a culture of practical religious literacy and virtues of mutual respect and protection Volume I offers a pioneering exploration of the prospects for this robust and non relativistic type of pluralism in East Southeast Asia Volume II examines South Central Asia The chapters in these volumes originally appeared as research articles in a series on covenantal pluralism published by The Review of Faith International Affairs Routledge Handbook on the Governance of Religious Diversity Anna Triandafyllidou, Tina Magazzini, 2020-12-30 This book critically reviews state religion models and the ways in which different countries manage religious diversity illuminating different responses to the challenges encountered in accommodating both majorities and minorities The country cases encompass eight world regions and 23 countries offering a wealth of research material suitable to support comparative research Each case is analysed in depth looking at historical trends current practices policies legal norms and institutions By looking into state religion relations and governance of religious diversity in regions beyond Europe we gain insights into predominantly Muslim countries Egypt Morocco Tunisia Turkey Indonesia Malaysia countries with pronounced historical religious diversity India and Lebanon and into a predominantly migrant pluralist nation Australia These insights can provide a basis for re thinking European models and learning from experiences of governing religious diversity in other socio economic and geopolitical contexts Key analytical and comparative reflections inform the introduction and concluding chapters This volume offers a research and study companion to better understand the connection between state religion relations and the governance of religious diversity in order to inform both policy and research efforts in accommodating religious diversity Given its accessible language and further readings provided in each chapter the volume is ideally suited for undergraduate and graduate students It will also be a valuable resource for researchers working in the wider field of ethnic migration religion and citizenship studies

Making Religion, Making the State Yoshiko Ashiwa, David L. Wank, 2009-03-24 Making Religion Making the State combines cutting edge perspectives on religion with rich empirical data to offer a challenging new argument about the politics of religion in modern China The volume goes beyond extant portrayals of the opposition of state and religion to emphasize their mutual constitution It examines how the modern category of religion is enacted and implemented in specific locales and contexts by a variety of actors from the late nineteenth century until the present With chapters written by experts on Buddhism Protestantism Catholicism Daoism Islam and more this volume will appeal across the social sciences and humanities to those interested in politics religion and modernity in China

Embracing the Song of Appearance: An Psychological Symphony within Region Nationality And Religion

In a world used by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of quick transmission, the melodic beauty and psychological symphony created by the written term frequently fade in to the background, eclipsed by the persistent sound and disruptions that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, nestled within the pages of Region Nationality And Religion a charming literary value full of natural feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by an outstanding composer of language, that charming masterpiece conducts viewers on a mental trip, skillfully unraveling the hidden melodies and profound influence resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths of this emotional analysis, we will examine the book's main harmonies, analyze their enthralling publishing design, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers' souls.
