Regionalism in the New Asia-Pacific Order Joseph A. Camilleri, 2003-01-01 Regionalism in the Asia Pacific is a complex and rapidly evolving phenomenon This volume explores the relationship between globalization and regionalization between states markets and civil society and between US hegemony and Asian aspirations Indian Ocean Regionalism

Dennis Rumley, Timothy Doyle, 2016-04-14 Pan regional constructions in the Indian Ocean are of relatively recent origin are contested and remain relatively weak at present Sub regional constructions on the other hand have tended to be more focussed especially in terms of security and have generally been more successful The principal purpose of this volume is to critically evaluate the debates surrounding these issues and to elucidate some of the main strengths and weaknesses of regionalism at both scales The discussion begins at the pan regional scale with an evaluation of pan regional contestation followed up by a chapter on the main pan regional grouping Indian Ocean Region Association for Regional Cooperation IOR ARC which was renamed Indian Ocean Rim Association IORA in 2013 Thereafter key examples of sub regional groupings South Asia ASEAN SADC and GCC are critically discussed in turn The principal readership for this volume will be scholars of geography politics and international relations students of Indian Ocean studies regionalism experts bureaucrats and politicians both within and outside the Indian Ocean Region who wish to gain insights into Indian Ocean matters scholars who appreciate a view of regional relations from the inside This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of the Indian Ocean Region Asia-Pacific Geopolitics Joseph A. Camilleri, 2007-01-01 Despite significant cultural exchange mutual trust and understanding remains fragile between Asia Pacific countries The community faces complex and seemingly intractable problems violent civil conflicts geopolitical tensions and economic uncertainties proliferation of nuclear weapons and flashpoints that may lead to war The authors of this book argue that common reflection and dialogue is imperative Their achieved aim is to bring together distinguished scholars and experts on public policy social ethics defence human security and sustainability to consider the future of the Asia Pacific region and appropriate responses by both states and civil society

The Future of Global Relations T. Paupp, 2009-06-22 The collapse of US global hegemony means that the future of global relations will be defined by an integrated and mutually co operative world order of regions in which there are multiple centres of power These centres will continue to mature under the ideology of regionalism and through the long historical process of regionalization Contested Ideas of Regionalism in Asia Baogang He, 2016-09-13 Deepening regionalism in Asia demands new leadership Strong elites who are committed to a supranational identity are a minimum requirement of successful regionalism Regional leaders are increasingly seen as a new set of leaders in Europe Currently Asian regional leaders largely come from the diplomacy community or trade and economic sectors Yet further regionalization demands a new type of leadership from civil society and citizens In this context it is important to cultivate new regional leadership through the development of regional citizenship This book examines contested ideas of regionalism in Asia with a particular focus on two competing ideas of pan Asianism and Pacificism It also identifies a new trend and contestation the fundamental shift from a civilization understanding of regionalism to a technocratic and functional understanding of regionalism in the form of regulatory regionalism It also examines the other contested imaginations of regionalism in Asia including elitist versus participatory approaches to regionalism and democracy centric versus nationalism centric approaches to regionalism
